Jung, 2017-05-05 Hong Kong's universities have been transformed by the move from elite to mass higher education from government support to market driven finance from academic management to professional management from local to cross border and international outreach from China's education bridge to China's education window and from a colonial model of curricular specialization to a postcolonial model emphasizing broader intellectual development and service. As the landscape of Hong Kong higher education has undergone change so have the backgrounds specializations expectations and work roles of academic staff. Based on the multitude of challenges in Hong Kong higher education this book explores the future direction of Hong Kong academic profession.
