Paths Of Individuation In Literature And Film A Jungian Approach:

Paths of Individuation in Literature and Film Phyllis B. Kenevan, 1999-01-01 In his account of the individuation process Carl G Jung describes a spiritual goal for the individual as well as the collective That process as exemplified through archetypes in both literature and film offers the reader insight into the variety and richness those paths may take In this highly original book Phyllis Berdt Kenevan provides an analysis of individuation and then explores four different individual paths of characters from the stories of Zorba the Greek House of the Spirits Crime and Punishment and Bagdad Cafe Kenevan then explores ways in which individuation can become a path for the collective analyzing My Dinner With Andre Wings of Desire and various Dostoevsky novels An engaging and thought provoking look at archetypes as vehicles for interpretation Paths of Individuation in Literature and Film is a must read for courses in personal and social psychology literary or film interpretation Jung and philosophy and psychology

Post-Jungian Criticism James S. Baumlin, Tita French Baumlin, George H. Jensen, 2004-01-01 Rereads Jung in light of contemporary theoretical concerns and offers a variety of examples of post Jungian literary and cultural criticism

Cinema as Therapy John Izod, Joanna Dovalis, 2014-12-17 Loss is an inescapable reality of life and individuals need to develop a capacity to grieve in order to mature and live life to the full Yet most western movie audiences live in cultures that do not value this necessary process and filmgoers finding themselves deeply moved by a particular film are often left wondering why In Cinema as Therapy John Izod and Joanna Dovalis set out to fill a gap in work on the conjunction of grief therapy and cinema Looking at films including Million Dollar Baby The Son s Room Birth and The Tree of Life Cinema as Therapy offers an understanding of how deeply emotional life can be stirred at the movies Izod and Dovalis note that cinema is a medium which engages people in a virtual dialogue with their own and their culture s unconscious more deeply than is commonly thought By analysing the meaning of each film and the root cause of the particular losses featured the authors demonstrate how our experiences in the movie theatre create an opportunity to prepare psychologically for the inevitable losses we must all eventually face In recognising that the movie theatre shares symbolic features with both the church and the therapy room the reader sees how it becomes a sacred space where people can encounter the archetypal and ease personal suffering through laughter or tears without inhibition or fear to reach a deeper understanding of themselves Cinema as Therapy will be essential reading for therapists students and academics working in film studies and looking to engage with psychological studies in depth as well as filmgoers who want to explore their relationship with the screen The book includes a glossary of Jungian and Freudian terms which enhances the clarity of the text and the understanding of the reader

A Midsummer Night's Dream: Shakespeare's Syzygy of Meaning,

Cinematic Projections Luke Hockley, 2001 An introduction to the world of postJungian film studies this book redresses the dominance of Freudian theories of cinema and guides individuals through the intricacies of Jungian thought In so doing it provides the basis on which to construct a contemporary theory of cinema Drawing on research into detective films and the myths of detection Hockley weaves together psychological analysis with textual interpretation The resulting hypothesis suggests that watching films is an intensely personal experience in which viewers according to individual needs and desires project and identify with films and their characters Exploring the Collective Unconscious in the Age of Digital Media

 Schafer, Stephen Brock, 2016-01-28 For decades we have witnessed the emergence of a media age of illusion that is based on the principles of physics the multidimensionality immateriality and non locality of the unified field of energy and information as a virtual reality As a result a new paradigm shift has reframed the cognitive unconscious of individuals and collectives and generated a worldview in which mediated illusion prevails Exploring the Collective Unconscious in a Digital Age investigates the cognitive significance of an altered mediated reality that appears to have all the dimensions of a dreamscape This book presents the idea that if the digital media sphere proves to be structurally and functionally analogous to a dreamscape the Collective Unconscious researched by Carl Jung and the Cognitive Unconscious researched by George Lakoff are susceptible to research according to the parameters of hard science This pivotal research based publication is ideally designed for use by psychologists theorists researchers and graduate level students studying human cognition and the influence of the digital media revolution Canadian Philosophical Reviews ,2000 Comptes Rendus Philosophiques ,2000 BFI Film and Television Handbook 2001 Eddie Dya, 2000-12-01 No Marketing Blurb Encyclopedia of Heroism Studies ,2024-10-01
