Patriarchy And Economic Development Womens Positions At The End Of The Twentieth Century:

Patriarchy and Economic Development Valentine M. Moghadam,1996 Gender and Identity Construction

Feride Acar,Günes-Ayate,2021-12-28 This volume deals with issues and problems of national and gender identity in Central Asia the Caucasus and Turkey Articles discuss experiences and position of women vis vis state intervention economic political and cultural change in both public and private spheres of life In the book the real life conditions and experiences of women are analyzed on three complementary levels The first of these is the economic and institutional circumstances shaped by structural adjustment policies globalization and transnational policies The second is realities of everyday life particularly pertaining to family religion tradition and education The third level is that of politics and ideology where national and nationalist discourses often build on the gender identity shaped by the economic and social levels The book does not only present a cross cultural analysis of women s position in the region but also reflects the varied perspectives of female scholars from many different countries and disciplines Gender Economics: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources,2018-12-07 Gender Economics challenges current economic theory targeting the way gender is often used for economic gain or increased market share Experts realize that company growth can no longer be achieved by taking a conventional approach but few follow through with introducing new frameworks that change the way diversity is treated Gender Economics Breakthroughs in Research and Practice features current research that combines the concepts of gender theory sociology and economics observing how diversity influences numerous dimensions of business and consumerism Covering topics including gender empowerment and also bias economic equality industrial creativity leadership and the impact of social connectedness on life satisfaction this publication is an ideal reference source for legislators and policymakers economic developers corporate practitioners educational faculties academicians researchers and graduate level students of all disciplines Hermeneutics and Honor Anan Ameri,1999 Women s traversal of public space in Islamic ate societies and the ensuing process of negotiating gendered identities are the central concerns of this collection of essays The dichotomy between private and public spheres upheld as axiomatic for most societies has recently been challenged by scholars as an artificial construct For women in particular the demarcation between the two spheres has become blurred by the enormous public consequences of their private behaviour Elaborate cultural codes of honour and traditional masculinist interpretations of scripture have reinforced the public private polarity and restricted Muslim women s access to the public realm as conventionally defined The distinguished contributors to this volume provide insight into how women from different social strata and historical periods in various Islamic ate societies have creatively engaged with these limitations upon their behaviour Agency and Gender in Gaza Aitemad Muhanna,2016-04-01 Drawing on rich interview material and adopting a life history approach this book examines the agency of women living in insecure and uncertain conflict situations It explores the effects of the Israeli policy of closure against Gaza and the resulting humanitarian crisis in relation to gender relations and gender subjectivity With attention to the changing roles of men in the household and community as a result of the loss of male employment the author explores the extension of poor women s mobility particularly that of young wives with dependent children for whom the meaning of agency has shifted from being providers in the domestic sphere to becoming publicly dependent on humanitarian aid Without conflating women s agency with resistance to patriarchy Agency and Gender in Gaza extends the concept of agency to include its subjective and intersubjective elements shedding light on the recent distortion of the traditional gender order and the reasons for which women resist the masculine power that they have acquired as a result An empirically grounded examination of the attempt to maintain the meaning of social existence through the preservation of socially constructed images of masculinity and femininity this book will be of interest to social scientists with interests in gender studies masculinities and the sociology of the family
