Patterns And Illusions Thai History And Thought:

Patterns and Illusions Gehan Wijeyewardene, E. C. Chapman, 1992 Democracy and National Identity in Thailand Michael Kelly Connors, 2003-09-02 This book seeks to illuminate how Thai elites have used democracy as an instrument for order and discipline Drawing on interviews numerous Thai language sources and critical theory the author reveals a remarkable adaptation of the idea of democracy in the Thai context Connors shows how elites have drawn on Western political theory to design projects to create modern citizens He argues that it is possible to see the idea and practice of elite liberal democracy in Thailand and elsewhere as a key ideological resource in the project of securing hegemony over undisciplined populations In this perspective the ideas of civil society civic virtue social capital and democracy itself are all part of the weaponry deployed in an effort to create good citizens who act as guardians of the elite defined common good

Civility and Savagery Andrew Turton, 2000-05-18 This is a book about social differentiation and distinction in one of the ethnically and politically most complex regions of the world dealing with crucial issues in currently renewed debates on cultural pluralism nationalism irredentism and ethnic dispersal The themes are given a regional and historical focus by treating peoples within the Tai Anthony Reid and the Study of the Southeast Asian Past Geoff Wade, Li Tana, 2012 To celebrate Anthony Reid's numerous and seminal contributions to the field of Southeast Asian history a group of his colleagues and students has contributed essays for this Festschrift In addition to introductory essays which provide personal and intellectual histories of Anthony Reid the man there is a range of original scholarly contributions addressing historical issues which Reid has researched during his career Divided into sections which examine Southeast Asia in the world early modern Southeast Asia and modern Southeast Asia these works engage with issues ranging from the Age of Commerce and comparative Eurasian history to nationalism ethnic hybridity Islam technological change and the Chinese and Arabs in Southeast Asia The authors include some of the foremost historians of Southeast Asia in our generation Instruments,

Travel and Science Marie Noëlle Bourguet, Christian Licoppe, H. Otto Sibum, 2003-08-29 We are now accustomed to conceive of science as an instrumental activity producing numbers measurements and graphs by means of sophisticated devices This book investigates the historical process that gave rise to this instrumental culture The contributors trace the displacement of instruments across the globe the spread of practices or precision and the circulation and appropriation of skills and knowledge Through comparative and contextual approaches the volume confronts the tension between the local and the global examining the process of the universalization of science Bringing together case studies ranging from the seventeenth to the twentieth centuries contributors discuss French German and British initiatives as well as the knowledge and techniques of travellers in countries such as India Africa South East Asia and the Americas Students and researchers interested in the history of science in both Western and non Western cultures will find this book a valuable and thought provoking read Unity and Diversity Tao Tao Liu, David Faure, 1996-03-01 This book examines the evolution of the local identity in China from historical times to the present day It traces the expression of local identity in religion and myth in the construction of the provincial character in the growth of cities in literature in economic development and in the expansion of the Chinese state It argues that the growth of a local identity was part and parcel of the evolution of a national character But it notes also that the transforming of the local identity with the extension of the state has often come with a sense of nostalgia a yearning for a world that has perhaps never been

Paths to Conflagration Mayoury Ngaosyvathn, Pheuiphanh Ngaosyvathn, 2018-08-06 A reexamination of the historical relationship between Laos and Thailand by two preeminent Lao historians who bring to light a wealth of new source material in their evaluation of the Laotian leader Chao Anou and his failed revolt against Siam This book challenges conventional Thai interpretations of that event and of the political conflicts leading up to it

The Heavens on Earth David Aubin, Charlotte Bigg, H. Otto Sibum, 2010-01-26 A collection exploring the place of the observatory in nineteenth century science culture

Imagining the Fetus Vanessa R Sasson, Jane Marie Law, 2009-03-26 In contemporary Western culture the word fetus introduces either a political subject or a literal medicalized entity Neither of these frameworks does justice to the vast array of religious literature and oral traditions from cultures around the world in which the fetus emerges as a powerful symbol or metaphor This volume presents essays that explore the depiction of the fetus in the world's major religious traditions finding some striking commonalities as well as intriguing differences Among the themes that emerge is the tendency to conceive of the fetus as somehow independent of the mother's body as in the case of the Buddha who is described as inhabiting a palace while gestating in the womb On the other hand the fetus can also symbolically represent profound human needs and emotions such as the universal experience of vulnerability The authors note how the advent of the fetal sonogram has transformed how people everywhere imagine the unborn today giving rise to a narrow range of decidedly literal questions about personhood gender and disability

Hanvueng: The Goose King and the Ancestral King, 2015-03-31 This work is an annotated edition of a ritual manuscript written in the traditional Zhuang character script The Hanvueng epic is a narrative in verse about murderous enmity between two royal step brothers recited when there is fraternal feuding death by violence outbreaks of smallpox or other such disasters The theme of enmity is an important one that resonates deeply in the Tai societies on the periphery of the Chinese empire The narrative touches on many other aspects of life in the valley kingdoms in the highlands of Guangxi marriage and inheritance match making slavery and social stratification agriculture hunting fishing raiding livestock raising dye making wild animals and plants and the use of ritual to put things to rights
