Paul, Luke and the Graeco-Roman World Alf Christophersen,Carsten

Claussen,Jörg Frey,Bruce Longenecker,2003-10-01 The quality of contributions in this volume reflects the eminence of Sandy Wedderburn who taught at St Andrews before moving to Durham and finally to Munich to succeed Ferdinand Hahn The topics addressed reflect Wedderburn s interests and include a comparison of the Lord s Supper with cultic meals in Qumran and in Hellenistic cults glossolalia in Acts the Lukan prologue new creation in Paul and Adam and Christ in Romans The contributors include David Aune Richard Bauckham Richard Bell James Dunn Ferdinand Hahn Christina Hoegen Rohls Robert Jewett Hans Klein H W Kuhn David Moessner Stanley Porter Heikki Raisanen Margaret Thrall Oda Wischmeyer and Christian Wolff This is volume 217 in the Journal for the Study of the New Testament Supplement series The Figure of Adam in Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15 Filipe d Jesus Legarreta-Castillo,2014-02-01 Felipe Legarreta gives careful attention to patterns of exegesis in Second Temple Judaism and identifies for the first time a number of motifs by which Jews drew ethical implications from the story of Adam and his expulsion from Eden He then demonstrates that throughout the Christological passages in Romans and 1 Corinthians Paul is taking part in a wider Jewish exegetical and ethical discussion regarding life in the new creation A New Perspective on Hebrews Kenneth Schenck,2019-08-27 Going against the tide of much recent scholarship on Hebrews Kenneth Schenck argues that the letter was addressed to a primarily Gentile audience to console them and strengthen their faith in the wake of the destruction of the Temple The implications that Christians Jews and Gentiles alike valued the Temple highly and grieved its destruction point to a new perspective on the so called parting of the ways between Jews and predominantly Gentile Christians Schenck s work challenges many of the established assumptions of Hebrews scholarship and will deserve close attention for years to come Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally,2016-03-02 In Commonwealth and Covenant Marcia Pally argues that in order to address current socioeconomic problems we need not more economic formulas but rather a better understanding of how the world is set up an ontology of how we and the world work Without this good proposals that arise lack political will and go unimplemented Pally describes our basic setup as separability amid situatedness or distinction amid relation Though we are all unique individuals we become our singular selves through our relations and responsibilities to the people and environments around us Pally argues that our culture s overemphasis on separability individualism run amok results in greed adversarial and deceitful political discourse and chicanery resource grabbing broken relationships and anomie Maintaining that separability and situatedness can and must be considered together in public policy Pally draws on intellectual history philosophy and especially historic Christian and Jewish theologies of relationality to construct a new framework for addressing present economic and political ills Christian Engagements with Judaism W. D. Davies,1999-08-01 This volume gathers together studies on various engagements between Judaism and Christianity The author examines such topics as the nature of Judaism canon and Christology Torah and dogma law in Christianity and the promised land in Jewish and Christian tradition Romans: Three Exegetical Interpretations and the History of Reception Daniel Patte, 2018-07-26 In the first of a three volume work Daniel Patte presents three very different critical exegeses of Romans 1 arguing that all are equally legitimate and hermeneutically plausible By expanding upon and respecting the exegeses of many erudite scholars of the last two centuries Patte concludes that three families of vastly different critical interpretations are fully justified traditional philological and epistolary studies rhetorical and sociocultural studies and figurative studies of the coherence of Paul s teaching Arising from a long standing interdisciplinary investigation of many receptions of Romans in light of recent diversification of exegetical methodologies Patte concludes that the interpretation of a scriptural text necessarily involves making a choice among equally legitimate and plausible alternatives and second that this choice is always contextual and ethical When these points are denied by failing to respect the interpretations of others and absolutizing one s interpretation instead of being a scriptural blessing Romans becomes a deadly weapon against others heretics Jews Shoah and many others The result is a threefold commentary of Romans 1 that is unique in its scope and thorough going exegesis Eschatology and the Covenant Bruce Longenecker, 2015-01-29 This extensive and detailed analysis compares Paul with the author of 4 Ezra against the background of Sanders s portrayal of early Judaism 4 Ezra and Paul would seem to have one significant point in common their common displacement from the covenantal pattern of religion which was so prevalent in Early Judaism It is from this perspective that Longenecker undertakes his comparison
