

The background of the image is a classical religious painting. It depicts St. Paul, identifiable by his halo, wearing a green tunic and an orange cloak. He is shown from the side, gesturing with both hands raised as if in the middle of a sermon. He is addressing a group of people, with the heads and shoulders of several listeners visible in the lower right corner. The setting is an interior space with large stone columns and arches, rendered in a style reminiscent of Renaissance or Baroque art.
