Paul Green, Playwright of the Real South John Herbert Roper, 2003 Drawing on his complete access to Green's papers and on interviews with surviving family members John Herbert Roper covers all the important aspects of Green's life and career By word and deed Paul Green spread the faith of liberalism across the New South which he insistently called the Real South Long after literary fashion had left him behind he wrote daily and remained at the forefront of causes concerning race relations militarism women's and workers rights and capital punishment BOOK JACKET A Southern Life Laurence G. Avery, 2017-02-15 This exceptional collection provides new insight into the life of North Carolina writer and activist Paul Green 1894-1981 the first southern playwright to attract international acclaim for his socially conscious dramas Green who taught philosophy and drama at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill won the Pulitzer Prize in 1927 for In Abraham's Bosom an authentic drama of black life Among his other Broadway productions were Native Son and Johnny Johnson From the 1930s onward Green created fifteen outdoor historical productions known as symphonic dramas thereby inventing a distinctly American theater form These include The Lost Colony 1937 which is still performed today Laurence Avery has selected and annotated the 329 letters in this volume from over 9 000 existing pieces The letters to such figures as Sherwood Anderson Langston Hughes Richard Wright John Dos Passos Zora Neale Hurston and others interested in the arts and human rights in the South are alive with the intellect buoyant spirit and sensitivity to the human condition that made Green such an inspiring force in the emerging New South Avery's introduction and full bibliography of the playwright's works and first productions give readers a context for understanding Green's life and times A Gambler's Instinct Milly S. Barranger, 2010-07-01 Broadway producer Cheryl Crawford 1902-1986 declared in her 1977 autobiography The theatre has been my life Crawford was notoriously circumspect about her private life and only now with Milly S Barranger's insightful biography is her full story revealed A major Broadway producer in an era when women producers were exceedingly rare Crawford found unprecedented success with the plays of Tennessee Williams including The Rose Tattoo and Sweet Bird of Youth but her enduring legend is as a musical producer having brought Kurt Weill's One Touch of Venus Lerner and Loewe's Brigadoon and Paint Your Wagon to the stage Her commercial success though was balanced with the founding of studios that would enable actors to explore their art outside the strictures of commercial theater She cofounded the Group Theatre with Harold Clurman and Lee Strasberg the American Repertory Theatre with Margaret Webster and Eva Le Gallienne and the Actors Studio with Elia Kazan and Robert Lewis but her idealism was constantly frustrated by unfulfilled artistic promises from her male counterparts and by the chronic shortage of funding for the nonprofit enterprises As Barranger traces Crawford's career as an independent producer she tells the parallel story of American theater in the mid twentieth century making A Gambler's Instinct both an enjoyable and informative biography of a remarkable woman and an important addition to the literature of the modern theater The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture M. Thomas Inge, Charles Reagan

Wilson, 2014-02-01 Offering a comprehensive view of the South's literary landscape past and present this volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture celebrates the region's ever flourishing literary culture and recognizes the ongoing evolution of the southern literary canon. As new writers draw upon and reshape previous traditions southern literature has broadened and deepened its connections not just to the American literary mainstream but also to world literatures a development thoughtfully explored in the essays here. Greatly expanding the content of the literature section in the original Encyclopedia this volume includes 31 thematic essays addressing major genres of literature theoretical categories such as regionalism the southern gothic and agrarianism and themes in southern writing such as food religion and sexuality. Most striking is the fivefold increase in the number of biographical entries which introduce southern novelists playwrights poets and critics. Sheppard and discover whether such cherished places can ever truly be lost. Thunder on the Stage Bruce Allen Dick, 2024-03-26 Richard Wright's dramatic imagination guided the creation of his masterpieces Native Son and Black Boy and helped shape Wright's long overlooked writing for theater and other performative mediums. Drawing on decades of research and interviews with Wright's family and Wright scholars Bruce Allen Dick uncovers the theatrical influence on Wright's oeuvre from his 1930s boxing journalism to his unpublished one acts on returning Black GIs in WWII to his unproduced pageant honoring Vladimir Lenin. Wright maintained rewarding associations with playwrights writers and actors such as Langston Hughes Theodore Ward Paul Robeson and Lillian Hellman and took particular inspiration from French literary figures like Jean Paul Sartre. Dick's analysis also illuminates Wright's direct involvement with theater and film including the performative aspects of his travel writings the Orson Welles directed Native Son on Broadway his acting debut in Native Son's first film version and his play Daddy Goodness a satire of religious charlatans like Father Divine in the 1930s. Bold and original Thunder on the Stage offers a groundbreaking reinterpretation of a major American writer. Watering the Sahara James R. Spence, 2008 Based primarily on previously unpublished interviews with Paul Green Watering the Sahara is a compelling study that chronicles the dramatist's life from childhood in rural Harnett County to military service in World War I the beginnings of his career as both educator and writer his work as a Hollywood screenwriter and the theater collaborations that culminated in the creation of the symphonic drama The Lost Colony. Extensive quotation from the interviews provides the reader with new insight into the complexity of North Carolina's leading playwright. Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater: 1930-2010 James Fisher, 2011-06-01 From legends like Eugene O'Neill, Tennessee Williams and Arthur Miller to successful present day playwrights like Neil LaBute, Tony Kushner and David Mamet, some of the most important names in the history of theater are from the past 80 years. Contemporary American theater has produced some of the most memorable, beloved, and important plays in history, including Death of a Salesman, A Streetcar Named Desire, Barefoot in the Park, Our Town, The Crucible, A Raisin in the Sun, and The Odd Couple. Historical Dictionary of Contemporary American Theater presents the plays and personages, movements and institutions, and cultural developments of the American stage from 1930 to 2010, a period of vast and almost continuous change. It covers the ever-changing history of the American theater with emphasis on major movements, persons, plays, and events. Remembering the Early Modern Voyage M. Fuller, 2008-05-12 This book investigates the operations of memory over time through three case studies: the famous anthology by Richard Hakluyt memorializing the feats of Elizabethan voyagers; the eccentric autobiography of Captain John Smith; and the little-known history of early modern Newfoundland.

Principles of Art History Heinrich Wölfflin, 2015-05-07 Principles of Art History by Heinrich Wölfflin (1864-1945) is a revolutionary attempt to construct a science of art through the study of the development of style. It has been a foundational work of formalist art history since it was first published in 1915. At once systematic and subjective, and remarkable for its compelling descriptions of works of art, Wölfflin's text has endured as an accessible yet rigorous approach to the study of style. Although Wölfflin applied his analysis to objects of early modern European art, Principles of Art History has been a fixture in the theoretical and methodological debates of the discipline of art history and has found a global audience. With translations in twenty-four languages and many reprints, Wölfflin's work may be the most widely read and translated book of art history ever. This new English translation, appearing one hundred years after the original publication, returns readers to Wölfflin's 1915 text and images. It also includes the first English translations of the prefaces and afterword that Wölfflin himself added to later editions. Introductory essays provide a historical and critical framework, referencing debates engendered by Principles in the twentieth century for a renewed reading of the text in the twenty-first.
