Paul Klee/art & Music Andrew Kagan,1983 Paul Klee--painting and Music Hajo DÜchting,1997 Paul Klee Painting Music describes and illustrates how from his earliest work as both painter and musician Klee focused his efforts on combining these two related art forms He attempted to translate the fundamental structures and rhythms of musical composition into painting He developed and harmonized pictorial themes as a composer would write music weaving a complex series of signs and symbols into his painting It is no surprise that he constantly sought inspiration in music the most abstract of all art forms This book represents the first major attempt to focus on the fascinating bond between music and painting in Klee's work particularly at the Bauhaus where his theories and practice first merged and where he was to develop his Colour Spectrum Square and Polyphonic painting series Paul Klee Hajo DÜchting,2008 This accessible look at Klee's life and art displays the many facets that make his career so intriguing Filled with personal photographs quotations from the artist and beautiful reproductions of his colorful paintings watercolors and prints this volume introduces readers to the various themes that occupied Klee throughout his life The book explores topics such as Munich between two world wars the artists whom Klee befriended in the Blue Rider Group and at the Bauhaus the music that continued to inspire him and the illness that marked his final years A fascinating introduction for anyone interested in learning about this renowned artist here is a book that is as readable as it is informative AUTHOR Hajo DÜchting is an art historian and author of numerous books ILLUSTRATIONS 120 illustrations Paul Klee/art & Music Andrew Kagan,1983 Musical Influences on the Art of Paul Klee Charles Werner Haxthausen,1966 "Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915" JamesH. Rubin,2017-07-05 Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists Eye-music Frances Guy,Simon Shaw-Miller,Michael Tucker,2007 Searching for a new visual language at the beginning of the twentieth century many artists were inspired by musical forms and ideas in their early experiments in abstract art The arrival of jazz shocked both artists and composers into creating responses to its syncopated beats and vital sensuality This book explores the results of these investigations from some of the pre eminent names in Modern art including Wassily Kandinsky Paul Klee and Piet Mondrian Paul Klee and artworks Donald Wigal,2023-11-16 An emblematic figure of the early 20th century Paul Klee participated in the expansive Avant Garde movements in Germany and Switzerland From the vibrant Blaue Reiter movement to Surrealism at the end of the 1930s and throughout his teaching years at the Bauhaus he attempted to capture the organic and harmonic nature of painting by alluding to other artistic mediums such as poetry literature and above all music While he collaborated with artists like August Macke and Alexej von Jawlensky his most famous partnership was with the abstract expressionist Wassily Kandinsky

Art, Music, and Mysticism at the Fin de Siècle Corrinne Chong, Michelle Foot, 2024-07-29 This edited volume explores the dialogue between art and music with that of mystical currents at the turn of the twentieth century The volume draws on the most current research from both art historians and musicologists to present an interdisciplinary approach to the study of mysticism's historical importance The chapters in this edited volume gauge the scope of different interpretations of mysticism and illuminate how an exchange between the sister arts unveil an underlying stream of metaphysical supernatural and spiritual ideas over the course of the century Case studies include Charles Tournemire Joseph P. Ladang Erik Satie Hilma af Klint Jean Sibelius František Kupka and Wassily Kandinsky The contributors' unique theoretical perspectives and disciplinary methodologies offer expert insight on both the rewards and inevitable aesthetic complications that arise when one artform meets another The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history musicology visual culture and mysticism

The Diaries of Paul Klee, 1898-1918 Paul Klee, 1968-06 Paul Klee was endowed with a rich and many-sided personality that was continually spilling over into forms of expression other than his painting and that made him one of the most extraordinary phenomena of modern European art These abilities have left their record in the four intimate Diaries in which he faithfully recorded the events of his inner and outer life from his nineteenth to his fortieth year Here together with recollections of his childhood in Bern his relations with his family and such friends as Kandinsky Marc Macke and many others his observations on nature and people his trips to Italy and Tunisia and his military service the reader will find Klee's crucial experience with literature and music as well as many of his essential ideas about his own artistic technique and the creative process
