

The background of the book cover is a dense, intricate abstract drawing in a light brown or tan ink on a slightly textured, off-white paper. The drawing consists of a complex interplay of lines, shapes, and textures. There are large, rounded, organic forms that resemble leaves or petals, some with internal hatching. There are also more angular, geometric shapes, some of which are cross-hatched. The overall effect is a rich, layered composition that suggests a natural or organic world, but one that is highly stylized and abstract. The drawing covers the entire surface of the cover, with the text elements placed over it.
