Paul Robeson A Voice Of Struggle:

Paul Robeson Burnham Holmes, 1995 Honor student athlete actor singer and political activist who became involved in movements for world peace and racial equality Paul Robeson's Voices Grant Olwage, 2023-11-20 Paul Robeson's Voices is a meditation on Robeson's singing a study of the artist's life in song Music historian Grant Olwage examines Robeson's voice as it exists in two broad and intersecting domains as sound object and sounding gesture specifically how it was fashioned in the contexts of singing practices in recital concert and recorded performance and as subject of identification Olwage asks how does the voice encapsulate modes of subjectivity of being Combining deep archival research with musicological theory this book is a study of voice as central to Robeson's sense of self and his politics Paul Robeson's Voices charts the dialectal process of Robeson's vocal and self discovery documenting some of the ways Robeson's practice revised the traditions of concert singing in the first half of the twentieth century and how his voice manifested as resistance Jim Crow: Voices from a Century of Struggle Part 2 (LOA #387) Tyina L. Steptoe, 2025-06-17 A vivid firsthand record of the struggle for legal equality and dignity in the face of segregation and racial terror from 1919 to 1976 W E B Du Bois famously identified the problem of the color line as the defining issue in American life The powerful writings gathered here reveal the many ways Americans Black and white fought against white supremacist efforts to police the color line envisioning a better America in the face of disenfranchisement segregation and widespread lynching mob violence and police brutality Jim Crow Voices from a Century of Struggle Part Two brings together speeches pamphlets newspaper and magazine articles public testimony and appeals judicial opinions and poems and song lyrics more than ninety essential texts in all from the end of the bloody Red Summer of 1919 to the Boston busing crisis of 1974-76 This volume includes writing by both famous and lesser known individuals including B C Franklin on the Tulsa Massacre Robert Russa Moton's suppressed address on the dedication of the Lincoln Memorial Alain Locke's tribute to the New Negro Ned Cobb's recounting of the harsh realities of sharecropping Thurgood Marshall on police brutality in wartime Detroit Rosa Parks's appeal for justice for Recy Taylor Earl Warren's landmark opinion in Brown Paul Robeson's defiant response to congressional inquisitors Fannie Lou Hamer's eloquent challenge to disenfranchisement in Mississippi and James Baldwin on the myths and meaning of the American Dream Also presented are white supremacist writings from the 1920s Klan and the Dixiecrats of 1948 examples of Southern voter literacy tests blues lyrics sung by Bessie Smith and Big Bill Broonzy Robert F Williams's controversial call for armed Black self defense speeches by Marcus Garvey and Stokeley Carmichael letters in the Black press about Confederate monuments Ann Moody on her childhood in segregated Mississippi and Mary McLeod Bethune's advocacy for reproductive rights as an essential element of democratic freedom As the teaching of our nation's history especially the history of race in America becomes increasingly contested this book will serve as a vital resource a crucial reminder of where we've been how far we've come and how long the road ahead remains Literature Connections to American History K6 Lynda G.

Adamson,1997-09-15 Identifying thousands of historical fiction novels biographies history trade books CD ROMs and videotapes this book helps you locate resources on American history for students Each book presents information in two sections In the first part titles are listed according to grade levels within eras and further organized according to product type The books cover American history from North America Before 1600 and The American Colonies 1600 1774 to The Mid Twentieth Century 1946 1975 and Since 1975 The second section has annotated bibliographies that describe each title and includes publication information and awards won The focus is on books published since 1990 and all have received at least one favorable review Some books with more illustration than text will be valuable for enticing slow or reticent readers An index helps users find resources by author title or biographical subject Voices of the Spirit Denise Marie Glover,1995 This text provides a selection of African American voices describing written works oral history photographs and moving images Sources from 1883 to the 1990s are annotated and discussed and are aimed at showing more of the African American experience than is often portrayed in the mass media Voices and Silences James Earl Jones, Penelope Niven,2002 Limelight As this book explores the upbringing of James Earl Jones so does it discover his beginnings as an actor As Jones delves deeply into his memory so we venture deep into the rural south of his origins and early life deep into his turbulent family history and deep into the roles he s played both on the stage and on screens large and small In the new epilogue that concludes this edition Jones now in his seventies remembers the personal and professional events of the decade since the book s original publication Paul Robeson Scott Allen Nollen,2014-01-10 This is the first book length study of the 12 films starring African American Renaissance man Paul Robeson 1898 1976 Singer actor author lawyer athlete pacifist and civil rights activist Robeson was also the first African American to receive top billing in motion pictures delivering unforgettable characterizations in such classics as The Emperor Jones 1933 Sanders of the River 1935 Show Boat 1936 and The Proud Valley 1940 Original research is provided from primary materials housed at the Schomburg Center for Black Culture in Harlem and the FBI archives in Washington D C and from Robeson s family and friends including his son Paul Robeson Jr Two appendices cover Robeson s film work as offscreen narrator and singer and his many stage appearances Rare illustrations include never before published original studio materials Struggles for Representation Phyllis Rauch Klotman,Janet K. Cutler,1999 Struggles for Representation examines over 300 non fiction films by more than 150 African American film videomakers and includes an extensive filmography bibliography and excerpts from interviews with film videomakers In eleven original essays contributors explore the extraordinary scope of these aesthetic and social documents and chart a previously undiscovered territory documentaries that examine the aesthetic economic historical political and social forces that shape the lives of black Americans as seen from their perspectives Until now scholars and critics have concentrated on black fiction film and on mainstream non fiction films neglecting the groundbreaking body of black non fiction productions that offer privileged views of American life Yet these rich and varied works in film video and new electronic media convey vast stores of knowledge and experience Although most documentary cannot hope to match fiction film s mass appeal it is unrivaled in its ability to portray searing indelible impressions of black life including concrete views of significant events and moving portraits of charismatic individuals Documentary footage brings audiences the moments when civil rights protestors were attacked by state troopers it provides the sights and sounds of Malcom X delivering an electrifying speech Betty Carter performing a heart wrenching song and Langston Hughes strolling on a beach Uniting all of this work is the struggle for representation that characterizes each film an urgent desire to convey black life in ways that counter the uninformed and often distorted representations of mass media film and television productions African American documentaries have long been associated with struggles for social and political empowerment for many film videomakers documentary is a compelling mode with which to present an alternative more authentic narrative of black experiences and an effective critique of mainstream discourse Thus many socially and politically committed film videomakers view documentary as a tool with which to interrogate and reinvent history their works fill gaps correct errors and expose distortions in order to provide counter narratives of African American experience Contributors include Paul Arthur Houston A Baker Jr Mark F Baker Pearl Bowser Janet K Cutler Manthia Diawara Elizabeth Amelia Hadley Phyllis R Klotman Tommy Lee Lott Erika Muhammad Valerie Smith and Clyde Taylor

Unsung Voices of Black History (From the Archives) KaaVoniahinton,2025-09-02 A perfect book for young readers to discover lesser known people who have shaped Black history in the United States The organizer behind the 1963 March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom The first Black American head coach in the National Football League The first Black female state senator from New York Throughout history Black people have broken barriers and protested to fight for equality Celebrate little known people like these and learn about the social impact of their work on American history in Unsung Voices of Black History ABOUT THIS SERIES This brand new series is rooted in a profound commitment to shedding light on some of the important and often lesser known aspects of Black history From the Archives features landmarks events people and artistic endeavors that have played a significant role in the Black experience in America and offers a chance to celebrate them Written in a vivid engaging style and featuring a colorful combination of photos and illustrations each title serves as a powerful vehicle for education inspiration and empowerment for young readers

Paul Robeson Gerald Horne,2016-01-20 A world famous singer and actor a trained lawyer an early star of American professional football and a polyglot who spoke over a dozen languages These could be the crowning achievements of a life well lived yet for Paul Robeson the higher calling of social justice led him to abandon both the NFL and Hollywood and become one of the most important political activists of his generation battling both Jim Crow and Joseph McCarthy Gerald Horne s biography uses Robeson s remarkable and revolutionary life to tell the story of the 20th century s great political struggles against racism against colonialism and for international socialism This critical and searching account provides an opportunity for readers to comprehend the triumphs and tragedies of the revolutionary progressive movement of which Robeson was not just a part but perhaps its most resonant symbol
