Philosophy of Lyric Voice Karen Simecek, 2023-10-05 Carefully considering the difference in the philosophical potential of page poetry and performance poetry Karen Simecek argues that it is only by considering them side by side that the unique cognitive value of each can be realised Focusing on spoken word poetry reveals the importance of voice and embodied words to the differing epistemic rewards of engaging with contemporary works of poetry in both private reading and live performance This concept of embodied voice progresses a new line of thinking in the cognitivism debate and unlocks the philosophical value of engaging with poetry Simecek's discussion of performed poetry also advances discussions of affect and experience in contemporary analytic aesthetics which raise new insights and connections within the field The moral significance of the differing effects of poetry finds comprehensive articulation through a rich philosophical analysis of the thoughts and affects which arise in particular contexts Simecek concludes that when page poetry is treated as paradigmatic this enables reflection in the singular whereas taking poetry in live performance as paradigmatic enables reflection on what is shared and shareable with others

Signing the Body Poetic Heidi M. Rose, 2006 Publisher Description Wedding, Gender, and Performance in Ancient Greece

Andromache Karanika, 2024-09-11 Wedding Gender and Performance in Ancient Greece traces the wedding song tradition its imagery and its tropes as a genre that became crystallized throughout the ages It explores how wedding poetics permeates ancient Greek literature It first analyzes how explicit or implicit matrimonial references shape archaic epic diction and become an integral part of epic discourse orally circulating texts such as wedding songs could have a life of their own but beyond their original context could also become an integral part of a different genre especially epic and drama This author discusses the multiple platforms that enrich the wedding song tradition including children's songs hymns paeans and ululations arguing for a combination of ritualized discourse with ludic childhood poetics With an approach from cognitive and trauma studies such references can be more revealing of the female experience than previously acknowledged This book resists the idea that a wedding constitutes an initiation ritual arguing that what on the surface may seem like a transition to a new phase reveals other underlying trends that work against the concept of a passage It further considers how emotion is staged and revisits the poetics of return by looking at patterns such as the eloping returning failed and dead bride Finally the theme of separation and return as an exemplification of a distinct female nostos is revisited in female authored poetry which helps us decode the complex interweaving of wedding performances and lamentation among other types of performance
