Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States The New American Poetry and Cold War Nationalism Stephan Delbos, 2021-08-20 This book examines Donald M Allen's crucially influential poetry anthology The New American Poetry 1945-1960 from the perspectives of American Cold War nationalism and literary transnationalism considering how the anthology expresses and challenges Cold War norms claiming post war Anglophone poetic innovation for the United States and reflecting the conservative American society of the 1950s Examining the crossroads of politics social life and literature during the Cold War this book puts Allen's anthology into its historical context and reveals how the editor was influenced by the volatile climate of nationalism and politics that pervaded every aspect of American life during the Cold War Reconsidering the dramatic influence that Allen's anthology has had on the way we think about and anthologize American poetry and recontextualizing The New American Poetry as a document of the Cold War this study not only helps us come to a more accurate understanding of how the anthology came into being but also encourages new ways of thinking about all of Anglophone poetry from the twentieth century and today Out of the Sixties David Wyatt, 1993-10-29 This study looks at the cultural legacy of the sixties through ten creative figures who came of age during the Vietnam War The Adventures of Cancer Bitch S. L. Wisenberg, 2009-03 Wisenberg may have lost a breast but she retained her humor outrage and skepticism toward common wisdom and most institutions While following the prescribed protocols at the place she called Fancy Hospital Wisenberg is unsparing in her descriptions of the fumbblings of new doctors her own awkward announcement to her students and the mounds of unrecyclable plastic left at a survivors walk Combining the personal with the political she shares her research on the money spent on pink ribbons instead of preventing pollution and the disparity in medical care between the insured and the uninsured When chemotherapy made her bald she decorated her head with henna swirls in front and an antiwar protest in back During treatment she also recorded the dailiness of life in Chicago as she rode the L taught while one breasted and attended High Holiday services and a Passover seder Wisenberg's writing has been compared to a mix of Leon Wieseltier and Fran Lebowitz and in this book she has Wieseltier's erudition and Lebowitz's self deprecating cleverness If anybody ever offers you the choice between suffering and depression take the suffering And I don't mean physical suffering I mean emotional suffering I am hereby endorsing psychic suffering over depression From The Adventures of Cancer Bitch I found that when you invite people to a pre mastectomy party they show up Even those with small children The kids were so young that they didn't notice that most of the food had nipples I talked to everyone about what I'm not sure Probably about my surgery Everyone told me how well I looked I felt giddy I was going to go under but not yet I was going to be cut but not yet I was going to be bald but not yet As my friend who had bladder cancer says The thing about cancer is you feel great until they start treating you for it The Michigan Alumnus, 1986 In volumes 1-8 the final number consists of the Commencement annual Karsh David Travis, 2012-06-15 The renowned photographer reveals the stories behind his iconic images in this definitive collection of portraits and personal reflections

Portrait photographer Yousuf Karsh captured some of the twentieth century's most influential personalities from Winston Churchill to Muhammad Ali, Albert Einstein, Mother Theresa and many others in photographs that became as recognizable as their subjects. Karsh's Beyond the Camera presents a chronological overview of the photographer's work paired with his own reflections about each image and the time he spent one on one with the subject. Edited by veteran curator David Travis, Karsh's Beyond the Camera is a fascinating study of the photographer's technical and stylistic development over the course of his career. Drawing on extensive interviews between Karsh and his long time assistant Jerry Fielder, it also shares a rare and intimate look at the man's life from surviving the Armenian genocide to becoming one of the world's most sought after portrait photographers. Famously reticent about his work, this is a rare invitation to learn the stories behind Karsh's most famous meetings with great men and women and of his aesthetic choices when met with the challenge of capturing them as they were. Publishers Weekly International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Questions of Possibility: Contemporary Poetry and Poetic Form David Caplan, 2006-09-26 Questions of Possibility examines the particular forms that contemporary American poets favor and those they neglect. The poet's choices reveal both their ambitions and their limitations, the new possibilities they discover and the traditions they find unimaginable. By means of close attention to the sestina, ghazal, love sonnet, ballad and heroic couplet, this study advances a new understanding of contemporary American poetry. Rather than pitting closed verse against open and traditional poetry against experimental, Questions of Possibility explores how poets associated with different movements inspire and inform each other's work. Discussing a range of authors from Charles Bernstein, Derek Walcott and Marilyn Hacker to Agha Shahid Ali, David Caplan treats these poets as contemporaries who share the language, not as partisans assigned to rival camps. The most interesting contemporary poetry crosses the boundaries that literary criticism draws, synthesizing diverse influences and establishing surprising affinities. In a series of lively readings, Caplan charts the diverse characteristics and accomplishments of modern poetry from the gay and lesbian love sonnet to the currently popular sestina.
