Poetry I France England:

Poetry in France and England Jean Stewart, 1931 My aim has been to trace simultaneously the evolution of poetry in France and England My concern is less with poetry in itself than with the idea of poetry I have tried to discover in each country and in each period what the poets were trying to do what the word poetry meant for them and their generation

Intro The English Language Poetry of South Asians Mitali Pati Wong, Syed Khwaja Moinul Hassan, 2013-01-24 In this study ten independent critical essays and a coda explore the English language poetry of South Asians in terms of time place themes and poetic methodologies The transnational perspective taken establishes connections between colonial and postcolonial South Asian poetry in English as well as the poetry of the old and new diaspora and the Subcontinent The poetry analysis covers the relevance of historical allusions as well as underlying concerns of gender ethnicity and class Comparisons are offered between poets of different places and time periods yielding numerous sociopolitical paradigms that surface in the poetry

Court Poetry in Late Medieval England and Scotland Antony J. Hasler, 2011-03-10 This book explores the anxious and unstable relationship between court poetry and various forms of authority political and cultural in England and Scotland at the beginning of the sixteenth century Through poems by Skelton Dunbar Douglas Hawes Lyndsay and Barclay it examines the paths by which court poetry and its narrators seek multiple forms of legitimation from royal and institutional sources but also in the media of script and print The book is the first for some time to treat English and Scottish material of its period together and responds to European literary contexts the dialogue between vernacular and Latin matter and current critical theory In so doing it claims that public and occasional writing evokes a counter discourse in the secrecies and subversions of medieval love fictions The result is a poetry that queries and at times cancels the very authority to speak that it so proudly promotes

The Oxford History of Poetry in English Julia Boffey, Anthony Stockwell Garfield Edwards, 2023 This volume explores a range of English verse from 1400 to 1500 It studies specific genres and modes of fifteenth century verse the contexts for its creation the material forms of its transmission and some of its individual practitioners

The

Paley,1999-10-07 The interrelationship of the ideas of apocalypse and millennium is a dominant concern of British Romanticism The Book of Revelation provides a model of history in which apocalypse is followed by millennium but in their various ways the major Romantic poets Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Keats and Shelley question and even at times undermine the possibility of a successful secularization of this model No matter how confidently the sequence of apocalypse and millennium seems to be affirmed in some of the major works of the period the issue is always in doubt the fear that millennium may not ensue emerges as a significant if often repressed theme in the great works of the period Related to it is the tension in Romantic poetry between conflicting models of history itself history as teleology developing towards end time and millennium and history as purposeless cycle This subject matter is traced through a selection of works by the major poets partly through an exposition of their underlying intellectual traditions and partly through a close examination of the poems themselves      Quarterly Register and Journal of the American Education Society ,1833      Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,Library of Congress.
