Denise Levertov Dana Greene, 2012-09-30 Kenneth Rexroth called Denise Levertov 1923 1997 the most subtly skillful poet of her generation the most profound and the most moving Author of twenty four volumes of poetry four books of essays and several translations Levertov became a lauded and honored poet Born in England she published her first book of poems at age twenty three but it was not until she married and came to the United States in 1948 that she found her poetic voice helped by the likes of William Carlos Williams Robert Duncan and Robert Creeley Shortly before her death in 1997 the woman who claimed no country as home was nominated to be America's poet laureate Levertov was the quintessential romantic She wanted to live vividly intensely passionately and on a grand scale She wanted the persistence of C zanne and the depth and generosity of Rilke Once she acclimated herself to America the dreamy lyric poetry of her early years gave way to the joy and wonder of ordinary life By the late 1960s and early 1970s however her poems began to engage the issues of her times Vehement and strident her poetry of protest was both acclaimed and criticized The end of both the Vietnam War and her marriage left her mentally fatigued and emotionally fragile but gradually over the span of a decade she emerged with new energy The crystalline and luminous poetry of her last years stands as final witness to a lifetime of searching for the mystery embedded in life itself Through all the vagaries of life and art her response was that of a primary wonder In this illuminating biography Dana Greene examines Levertov's interviews essays and self-revelatory poetry to discern the conflict and torment she both endured and created in her attempts to deal with her own psyche her relationships with family friends

lovers colleagues and the times in which she lived Denise Levertov A Poet's Life is the first complete biography of Levertov a woman who claimed she did not want a biography insisting that it was her work that she hoped would endure And yet she confessed that her poetry in its various forms lyric political natural and religious derived from her life experience Although a substantial body of criticism has established Levertov as a major poet of the later twentieth century this volume represents the first attempt to set her poetry within the framework of her often tumultuous life Poet's Market 2020 Robert Lee Brewer, 2019-11-26 The Most Trusted Guide to Publishing Poetry Want to get your poetry published There's no better tool for making it happen than Poet's Market 2020 which includes hundreds of publishing opportunities specifically for poets including listings for book and chapbook publishers print and online poetry publications contests and more These listings include contact information submission preferences insider tips on what specific editors want and when offered payment information In addition to the completely updated listings the 33rd edition of Poet's Market offers articles devoted to the craft and business of poetry including the art of finishing a poem ways to promote your new book habits of highly productive poets and more Poetic Inquiry, 2009-01-01 Poetic Inquiry Vibrant Voices in the Social Sciences co edited by Monica Prendergast Carl Leggo and Pauline Sameshima features many of the foremost scholars working worldwide in aesthetic ways through poetry The contributors from five countries are all committed to the use of poetry as a way to collect data analyze findings and represent understandings in multidisciplinary social science qualitative research investigations The creativity and high aesthetic quality of the contributions found in the collection speak for themselves they are truly as the title indicates vibrant voices This groundbreaking collection will mark new territories in qualitative research and interpretive inquiry practices at an international level Poetic Inquiry will contribute to many ongoing and energetic debates in arts based research regarding issues of evaluation aesthetics ethics activism self study and practice based research while also spelling out some innovative ways of opening up these debates in creative and productive ways Instructors and students will find the book a clear and comprehensive introduction to poetic inquiry as a research method The Publishers Weekly, 1900

Transcultural Identities in Contemporary Literature Irene Gilsenan Nordin, Julie Hansen, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2013-10-01 In recent decades globalization has led to increased mobility and interconnectedness For a growing number of people contemporary life entails new local and transnational interdependencies which transform individual and collective allegiances Contemporary literature often reflects these changes through its exploration of migrant experiences and transcultural identities Calling into question traditional definitions of culture many recent works of poetry and prose fiction go beyond the spatial boundaries of a given state emphasizing instead the mixing and collision of languages cultures and identities In doing so they also challenge recent and contemporary discourses about cultural identities fostering a more nuanced understanding of the complexities of identity formation processes in diverse transcultural frameworks This volume analyses how traditional understandings of culture as well as literary representations of identity constructs can be reconceptualized from a transcultural perspective In four thematic sections focusing on migration cosmopolitanism multiculturalism and literary translingualism the twelve essays included in this volume explore various facets of transculturality in contemporary poetry and fiction from around the world Contributors Malin Lidström Brock Katherina Dodou Pilar Cuder Domínguez Stefan Helgesson Christoph Houswitschka Carly McLaughlin Kristin Rebien J B Rollins Karen L Ryan Eric Sellin Mats Tegmark Carmen Zamorano Llena Irene Gilsenan Nordin is Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden She is founder and director of DUCIS Dalarna University Centre for Irish Studies and leads Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group Julie Hansen is Research Fellow at the Uppsala Centre for Russian and Eurasian Studies and teaches Russian literature in the Department of Modern Languages at Uppsala University Sweden Carmen Zamorano Llena is Associate Professor of English Literature at Dalarna University Sweden and member of Dalarna University's Transcultural Identities research group

Comparative Criticism: Volume 10, Comedy, Irony, Parody E. S. Shaffer, 1989-11-09 Volume 10 dedicated to Comedy Irony Parody celebrates the first decade of Comparative Criticism in a light hearted vein Michael Silk opens with a wide ranging essay asserting the primacy of comedy and declaring its independence of tragedy T L S Sprigge explores philosophers who dared to write on laughter Schopenhauer and Bergson Bernard Harrison looks at the twentieth century's favourite comic novel Tristram Shandy in the light of Locke's views on the particular Peter Brand pursues the theatrical arts of disguises masking and gender swapping through Renaissance Europe from Ariosto to Shakespeare Jane H M Taylor traces the danse macabre in modern black humour Christine Brooke Rose distinguished novelist and critic reads from and comments on her own witty fictions Michael Wood describes how Lolita outwitted her seducer

Literature from the Peripheries Anjum

Khan, Shubhanku Kochar, 2022-12-19 Literature from the Peripheries Refrigerated Culture and Pluralism is a collection of chapters dealing with multiple minority cultures from all over the world The book examines the status of several less known cultures or cultural communities which exist in the peripheries of space and time In addition to this the arguments and the discourses running through chapters prove the need of cultural diversity and pluralism This well thought and critically written book is a clarion call for humanity to look over the shoulder and see the ghost of civilization receding farther away The book will interest the readers scholars practitioners and activists who like to explore several cultures and cultural conflicts

The Poetry of Ibn Khafājah Magda M. Al-Nowaihi, 2023-11-27 This study is an attempt to identify and describe the distinctive features of the poetic style of the acclaimed medieval Andalusian poet Ibn Khafajah who has been credited with starting a new school of poetry in Andalus and elsewhere It offers a close reading of his poetry concentrating on the three basic elements of style imagery rhetorical devices and structural patterns It shows how Ibn Khafajah creatively uses the poetic tradition available to him to form new images and scenes create multi layered poems and bestow different levels of unity and coherence on his poems The study demonstrates some of the ways by which the various elements of style are combined and interrelated to produce original meaningful and highly moving poems in the Khafajian style

Teaching Secondary English Mark Pike, 2003-10-30 What the book does extremely well is do describe the way things are in terms of the requirements of the Framework for Teaching English the curriculum and the new specifications and for this reason it is likely to be most useful to those contemplating English teaching in the maintained sector from outside returnees aspiring NQTs or those in the independent sector Times Educational Supplement Instead of taking us yet again on a tour through the four modalities of English this book's tripartite structure takes a refreshingly different approach by offering thought provoking argument grounded in classroom practicality Nick McGuinn University of York Students comments on Teaching Secondary English The book is written in clear digestible terms offering many practical ideas for teaching the key skills and the wide range of material encountered in the English classroom It is the kind of book which can be dipped into which is particularly useful for people who spend most of their time planning lessons Teaching Secondary English is a must for student teachers and NQTs It is a clear comprehensive and practical guidebook dealing not solely with theory and pedagogy but with the very real issues facing new teachers today It is clear that Teaching Secondary English unlike so many textbooks on the subject is written by someone with recent classroom experience and this helps the reader to trust and respect the advice it purports I certainly feel it is grounded in practicalities not pie in the sky theory that will not work in most real classrooms This book enables English teachers to implement change and rise to new challenges while remaining true to an ethically and socially just position which provides the rationale for their vocation The author describes and evaluates recent changes to English teaching brought about by initiatives such as the Literacy Strategy the new A levels and the requirement to focus on spiritual moral social and cultural development Examples of innovative teaching and learning strategies are provided throughout The author helps teachers to foster keen readers writers and communicators He shows how they can enable their students to acquire skills and knowledge as well as to recognize the value of aesthetic experience emotional literacy and spiritual and moral response to literature in their own lives and in their communities This book is essential reading for PGCE students as well as practising teachers and all those involved in English in education
