Poet's Modern Poet "Human Exposure" Richard F. Jarmain, 2003-11 Poet's Modern Poet Human Exposure Richard Jarmain, 2003-11 The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry Cary Nelson, 2012-01-06

The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry gives readers a cutting edge introduction to the kaleidoscopic world of American poetry over the last century. Offering a comprehensive approach to the debates that have defined the study of American verse, the twenty-five original essays contained herein take up a wide array of topics: the influence of jazz on the Beats and beyond; European and surrealist influences on style; poetics of the disenfranchised; religion and the national epic; antiwar and dissent poetry; the AIDS epidemic; digital innovations; transnationalism; hip hop and more. Alongside these topics, major interpretive perspectives such as Marxist, psychoanalytic, disability, queer, and ecocritical are incorporated. Throughout, the names that have shaped American poetry in the period—Ezra Pound, Wallace Stevens, Marianne Moore, Mina Loy, Sterling Brown, Hart Crane, William Carlos Williams, Posey Langston, Hughes, Allen Ginsberg, John Ashbery, Rae Armantrout, Larry Eigner, and others—serve as touchstones along the tour of the poetic landscape.

A Social Biography of Contemporary Innovative Poetry Communities Elizabeth-Jane Burnett, 2017-09-15. This book offers a new reading of Marcell Mauss and Lewis Hyde's theories of poetry as gift, exploring poetry exchanges within 20th and 21st century communities of poets, publishers, audiences, and readers operating along a gift economy. The text considers trans-Atlantic case studies across fields of performance and ecopoetics, small press publishing, and poetry institutions, with focus on Joan Retallack, Bob Holman, Anne Waldman, Bob Cobbing, and feminist performance. Elizabeth Jane Burnett focuses on innovative poetry that resists commodification, drawing on ethnography to show parallels with gift-giving tribal societies; she also considers the ethical, philosophical, and psychological motivations for such exchanges, with particular reference to poethics. This book will appeal to researchers in modern poetry, poetry teachers, advanced students of modern literature, and those with an interest in poetry.

Modernist Poetry, Gender and Leisure Technologies Alex Goody, 2019-10-29. Modernist Poetry, Gender and Leisure Technologies: Machine Amusements explores how modernist women poets were inspired by leisure technologies to write new versions of the gendered subject. Focusing on American women writers and particularly on the city of New York, the book argues that the poetry of modernist women that engages with, examines, or critiques the new leisure technologies of their era is fundamentally changed by the encounter with that technology. The chapters in the book focus on shopping, advertising, dance, film, radio, and phonography on city spaces such as Coney Island, Greenwich Village, and Harlem, and on poetry that embraces the linguistic and formal innovations of modernism whilst paying close attention to the embodied politics of gender. The technologized city and the leisure cultures and media forms emerging from it enabled modernist women writers to re-imagine forms of lyric embodiment inspired by the impact of technology on modern ideas of selfhood and subjectivity.

On Modern Poetry Guido Mazzoni, 2022-04-19. Guido Mazzoni tells the story of poetry's revolution in the modern age The chief transformation was the rise of the lyric as it is now conceived a genre in which a first person speaker talks about itself Mazzoni argues that modern poetry embodies the age of the individual and has wrought profound changes in the expectations of readers

Welsh Environments in Contemporary Poetry Matthew Jarvis, 2021-03-15 Welsh Environments in Contemporary Poetry examines the question of how recent English language poetry from Wales has responded to the diverse physical environments of Wales The first volume to offer a sustained assessment of Welsh poetry in English within the context of recent developments in environmental literary criticism this book also draws on aspects of human geography to explore the rich contemporary poetics of Welsh space and place Opening with an examination of poets from the 1960s as well as the early work of R S Thomas Welsh Environments in Contemporary Poetry subsequently concentrates on the poetry of writers who have come to prominence since the 1970s Gillian Clarke Ruth Bidgood Robert Minhinnick Mike Jenkins Christine Evans and Ian Davidson Close reading of key texts reveals the way in which these writers variously create Welsh places landscapes and environments fashioning rural and urban spaces into poetic geographies that are both abundantly physical and inescapably cultural Far from reducing Wales to mere scenery the poetry that emerges from this book engages with the environments of Wales not just for their own sake but as a crucial way of exploring key issues in Welsh culture from the negotiation of female identity in a land of masculine myths to the exploration of Welsh space in a global context

The Figure of the Animal in Modern and Contemporary Poetry Michael Malay, 2018-06-05 This book argues that there are deep connections between poetic thinking and the sensitive recognition of creaturely others It explores this proposition in relation to four poets Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Ted Hughes and Les Murray Through a series of close readings and by paying close attention to issues of sound rhythm simile metaphor and image it explores how poetry cultivates a special openness towards animal others The thinking behind this book is inspired by J M Coetzee's The Lives of Animals In particular it takes up that book's suggestion that poetry invites us to relate to animals in an open ended and sympathetic manner Poets according to Elizabeth Costello the book's protagonist return the living electric being to language and doing so compel us to open our hearts towards animals and the claims they make upon us There are special affinities for her between the music of poetry and the recognition of others But what might it mean to say that poets to return life to language And why might this have any bearing on our relationship with animals Beyond offering many suggestive starting points Elizabeth Costello says very little about the nature of poetry's special relationship with the animal one aim of this study then is to ask of what this relationship consists not least by examining the various ways poets have bodied forth animals in language

Human-Plant Entanglement and Vegetal Agency in the Poetry of Thomas Hardy and Sylvia Plath Dilek Bulut Sarikaya, 2024-03-06 Dilek Bulut Sarikaya scrutinizes human plant entanglement in the poetry of Thomas Hardy and Sylvia Plath from the perspective of critical plant studies which is committed to restoring the lost connection between humans and plants The author offers a theoretical reading of Hardy and Plath's poetry focusing specifically on how plants are depicted by these two poets as self conscious and emotional individuals who are turned into vulnerable victims of humans exploitative practices The author develops a critical argument on the necessity of eradicating humans anthropocentric mindsets categorizing plants as sessile inert objects and replaces it with a plant centric world view perceiving plants as instantly active biological organisms who exist with their botanical accuracy rather than with the impositions of humans metaphoric meanings upon them

Continuum 2

Alessandro De Francesco, 2024 This volume gathers Alessandro De Francesco's essays and theoretical writings produced from 2015 to 2022 It follows the first volume Continuum Writings on Poetry as Artistic Practice reuniting essays written between 2007 and 2015 The title of this new volume could only be Continuum 2 given that the underlying concept remains the same to testify to the seamless continuity of the author's commitment to poetry and art over the years and to reaffirm at the same time on a theoretical level a model of creation and thinking as a continuous flow not discretized not quantized but organic liquid without end or beginning a kind of linguistic translation of the space time in which every text like every other object is necessarily immersed Continuum 2 is a trilingual book containing writings in English French and Italian and it is particularly focused on two lines of inquiry the author's ongoing meditation on the poetic practice and the first steps of his new investigation into seventeenth century art poetry and forms of thought Poetry and the Idea of Progress, 1760-90

John Regan, 2018-04-10 Poetry and the Idea of Progress 1760 1790 explores under examined relationships between poetry and historiography in the eighteenth century deepening our understanding of the relationship between poetry and ideas of progress with sustained attention to aesthetic historical antiquarian and prosodic texts from the period Its central contention is that the historians and theorists of the time did not merely instrumentalize verse in the construction of narratives of human progress but that the aesthetics of verse had a kind of agency it determined the character of historical knowledge of the period With numerous examples from poems and writing on poetics Poetry and the Idea of Progress 1760 1790 shows how the poetic line became a site at which one could make assertions about human development even as one experienced the expressive effects of metred language Contemporary Women's Poetry and Urban Space Z. Skoulding, 2013-10-03 This book focuses on the role of the city and its processes of mutual transformation in poetry by experimental women writers Readings of their work are placed in the context of theories of urban space while new visions of the contemporary city and its global relationships are drawn from their innovations in language and form The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1887 T. S. Eliot's Ariel Poems Anna Budziak, 2021-09-05 T S Eliot once stated that the supreme poet in writing himself writes his time In saying that he honoured Dante and Shakespeare but this pithy remark fittingly characterises his own work including The Ariel Poems with which he promptly and pointedly responded to the problems of his times Published with unwavering regularity a poem a year the Ariels were composed in the period when Eliot was mainly writing prose and like his prose they reverberated with diverse contemporary issues ranging from the revision of the Book of Common Prayer to the translations of Heidegger to the questions of leadership and populism In order to highlight the poems historical specificity this study seeks to outline the constellations of thought connecting Eliot's poetry and prose In addition it attempts to expose the Ariels shared arc of meaning an unobtrusive incarnational metaphor determining the perspective from which they propose an unorthodox understanding of the epoch an underlying pattern of thought bringing them together into a conceptually discrete set This is the first study that both universalizes and historicises the series striving to disclose the regular without suppressing the random Approaching the series as a system of orderly disorder the notion very much at home with chaos theory it suggests new intellectual contexts offering interpretations that are either fresh or significantly reangled Chapter 5 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license THE ECLECTIC REVIEW.
