Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ralph Ellison Tracy Floreani, 2024-07-19 One of the most important American authors and public intellectuals of the twentieth century Ralph Ellison had a keen and unsentimental understanding of the relationship between race art and activism in American life He contended with other writers of his day in his examination of the entrenched racism in society and his writing continues to inform national conversations in letters and culture The essays in Approaches to Teaching the Works of Ralph Ellison will help instructors in colleges high schools and prisons teach not only the indispensable Invisible Man but also Ellison's short stories his essays and the two editions of his second unfinished novel Juneteenth and Three Days before the Shooting In considering Ellison's works in relation to jazz technology humor politics queerness and disability this volume mirrors the breadth of Ellison's own life which extended from the Jim Crow era through the Black Power movement

Harriet Beecher Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin Elizabeth Ammons, 2007 General for the Series The Casebooks in Criticism introduce readers to the essential criticism on landmark works of literature and film For each volume a distinguished scholar who is an authority on the text has collected the most elucidating and distinctive scholarly essays on that work and added key supporting materials Each volume includes a substantial introduction which considers the key features of the work describes its publication history and contextualizes its cultural import and contemporary reputation while also surveying the major approaches which have informed the work's critical history A condensed bibliography offers suggestions for further reading The compact volumes provide a critical survey and suggest provocative ways to engage with their texts They are ideally suited to those interested in developing a deeper understanding of a work's history and significance

Specific for this book Most of the best criticism on Stowe's landmark novel is fairly recent Until the combined impact of the civil rights and women's movements changed the focus of the academic curriculum Uncle Tom's Cabin seldom appeared in classrooms or as the subject of published scholarship However from the mid 1970 forward the book has been widely written about and taught Today Uncle Tom's Cabin is a stable important part of the nineteenth century American literature canon and has generated a rich body of new critical work This casebook collects the best of the new scholarship as well as the most influential older essays Included in this volume are letters by Harriet Beecher Stowe and articles by James Baldwin Leslie Fiedler Jane Tompkins Gillian Brown Robert Stepto and Elizabeth Ammons

Orson Welles's Citizen Kane James Naremore, 2010-04-10 Citizen Kane is arguably the most admired and significant film since the advent of talking pictures No other film is quite so interesting from both artistic and political points of view To study it even briefly is to learn a great deal about American history motion picture style and the literary aspects of motion picture scripts Rather than presenting a sterile display of critical methodologies James Naremore has gathered a set of essays that represent the essential writings on the film It gives the reader a lively set of critical interpretations together with the necessary production information historical background and technical understanding to comprehend the film s larger cultural significance Selections range from the anecdotal Peter Bogdanovich s interview with Orson Welles to the critical with discussions on the scripts and sound track and a discussion of what accounts for the film s enduring popularity Contributors include James Naremore Peter Bogdanovich Jonathan Rosenbaum Robert L Carringer Francois Thomas Michael Denning Laura Mulvey Peter Wollen and Paul Arthur Ezra Pound's Cantos Peter Makin,2006
