Dickie,Wayne Bergmann,2024-02-27 I ve spent the majority of my life fighting for the rights of Traditional Owners This has put me in the firing line But I chose this job I chose this political path My family did not Wayne Bergmann It s Broome 2010 Nyikina man Wayne Bergmann has just received a death threat His wife has watched a friend cross the road to avoid speaking with her His children are subject to intense schoolyard bullying Bergmann a boilermaker by trade and lawyer is chief executive of the Kimberley Land Council during the controversial James Price Point gas hub negotiations It s an event that will tear the Broome community apart Wayne s story starts on Nyikina country and encompasses backbreaking station work buried treasure a Swedish bone thief and traditional magic love songs His is an electrifying tale of resilience determination and optimism which shows what it takes to be an Aboriginal person walking in two cultures in a country where racism runs deep True North Brenda Niall,2012-03-21 Through war love affairs children and old age the Duracks creative lives were always shaped by the enduring power of the Kimberley region With unprecedented access to hundreds of private family letters unpublished memoirs diaries and papers Brenda Niall gets to the heart of a uniquely Australian story

Teaching 'Proper' Drinking? Maggie Brady,2017-12-12 In Teaching Proper Drinking the author brings together three fields of scholarship socio historical studies of alcohol Australian Indigenous policy history and social enterprise studies The case studies in the book offer the first detailed surveys of efforts to teach responsible drinking practices to Aboriginal people by installing canteens in remote communities and of the purchase of public hotels by Indigenous groups in attempts both to control sales of alcohol and to create social enterprises by redistributing profits for the community good Ethnographies of the hotels are examined through the analytical lens of the Swedish Gothenburg system of municipal hotel ownership The research reveals that the community governance of such social enterprises is not purely a matter of good administration or compliance with the relevant liquor legislation Their administration is imbued with the additional challenges posed by political contestation both within and beyond the communities concerned The idea that community or government ownership and management of a hotel or other drinking place would be a good way to control drinking and limit harm has been commonplace in many Anglophone and Nordic countries but has been less recognised in Australia Maggie Brady s book brings together the hidden history of such ideas and initiatives in Australia In an original and wide ranging set of case studies Brady shows that success in reducing harm has varied between communities largely depending on whether motivations to raise revenue or to reduce harm are in control Professor Robin Room Director Centre for Alcohol Policy Research La Trobe University

'Every Mother's Son is Guilty' Chris Owen, 2016 This is a marvellous contribution by Chris Owen to the understanding of the role the Western Australian police force played in the colonial expansion into the Kimberley district of Western Australia Senator Patrick Dodson Yawuru Elder Chris Owen provides a compelling account of policing in the Kimberley district from 1882 when police were established in the district until 1905 when Dr Walter Roth s controversial Royal Commission into the treatment of Aboriginal people was released Owen s achievement is to take elements of all the pre existing historiography and test them against a rigorous archival investigation In doing so a fuller understanding of the complex social economic and political changes occurring in Western Australia during the period are exposed The policing of Aboriginal people changed from one of protection under law to one of punishment and control The subsequent violence of colonial settlement and the associated policing and criminal justice system that developed often of questionable legality was what Royal Commissioner Roth termed a brutal and outrageous state of affairs Every Mother s Son is Guilty is a significant contribution to Australian and colonial criminal justice history Subject History Aboriginal Studies Criminal Justice policing

Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines Mitchell Rolls, Murray Johnson, 2019-11-05 The Aboriginal Australians first arrived on the continent at least 60 000 years ago occupying and adapting to a range of environmental conditions from tropical estuarine habitats densely forested regions open plains and arid desert country to cold mountainous and often wet and snowy high country Cultures adapted according to the different conditions and adapted again to environmental changes brought about by rising sea levels at the end of the last ice age European colonization of the island continent in 1788 not only introduced diseases to which Aborigines had no immunity but also began an enduring and at times violent conflict over land and resources Reconciliation between Aborigines and the settler population remains unresolved This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of Australian Aborigines contains a chronology an introduction an extensive bibliography and more than 300 cross referenced entries on the politics economy foreign relations religion and culture of the Aborigines This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the indigenous people of Australia

Deadly Sounds, Deadly Places Peter Dunbar-Hall, Chris Gibson, 2004 A comprehensive book on contemporary Aboriginal music in Australia

Aboriginal Autonomy Herbert Cole Coombs, 1994-10-17 After more than two hundred years one of the most important moral issues facing Australian society in the 1990s remains the need for reconciliation with its indigenous people In this selection of essays H C Coombs reflects on the nature of Aboriginal identity and the importance of autonomy for Australia's Aboriginal people He also suggests strategies by which self determination might be achieved in practice Many of the chapters have been written especially for this volume including one in which Dr Coombs makes a thoughtful and provocative contribution to the Mabo debate linking the High Court's historic 1992 decision on native title to prospects for Aboriginal autonomy Dr Coombs writes with the conviction that mainstream Australia stands to gain as much if not more than Aboriginal people from the fulfilment of Aboriginal aspirations It is a personal and passionate plea for a just society from one of white Australia's most influential and eloquent advocates of self determination for its indigenous people

Raparapa Kularr Mantuwarra ed LAWFORD, 1988

Governing Savages Andrew Markus, 2020-07-31 In 1928 after a white man was killed a punitive party mounted a series of attacks on Aborigines northwest of Alice Springs The party's leader admitted that 31 Aborigines were killed One missionary in the area put the toll at 70 another at as many as 100 Since 1911 the administration of the Northern Territory had been the direct responsibility of the Commonwealth In placing this event and others within the context of policies pursued by the national government Governing Savages reveals how policies of brutality and calculated neglect bequeathed a bitter legacy to subsequent generations
