Raphael's Roman Style Henk Th. van Veen,2007 The papers show that the response to the new style was without exception a very conscious one In Siena and Venice it was simply rejected whereas in Pesaro Mantua Rome and Fontainebleau it was transformed or attempts were made even to surpass it In other cases Florence in particular the answer to the new Raphaellesque style was found by proposing a conspicuously Michelangesque one instead BOOK JACKET Patronage

Sebastiano del Piombo and the World of Spanish Rome Piers Baker-Bates, 2017-07-05 Sebastiano del Piombo c. 1485-1547 was a close associate and rival of the central artistic figures of the High Renaissance notably Michelangelo and Raphael After the death of Raphael and the departure of Michelangelo from Rome Sebastiano became the dominant artistic personality in the city Despite being one of the most significant artistic figures of the period he remains the last artist of major importance in the western canon about whom no recent work has been published in English In this study Piers Baker-Bates approaches Sebastiano's career through analysis of the patrons he attracted following his arrival at Rome The first half of the book concentrates on Sebastiano's network of patrons predominantly Italian who had strong factional ties to the Imperial camp the second half discusses Sebastiano's relationship with his principal Spanish patrons Sebastiano is a leading example of a transcultural artist in the sixteenth century and his relationship with Spain was fundamental to the development of his career The author investigates the domination of Sebastiano's career by patrons who had geographically different origins but who were all members of a wider network of Imperial loyalties Thus Baker-Bates removes Sebastiano from the shadow of his contemporaries bringing him to life for the reader as an artistic personality in his own right Baker-Bates' characterization of the Rome in which Sebastiano made his career differs from previous scholarly accounts and he describes how Sebastiano was ideally suited to flourish in the environment he depicts Sebastiano del Piombo and the World of Spanish Rome thus re-appraises not only Sebastiano's place in the canon of Renaissance art but using him as a lens also the cultural worlds of Early Modern Italy and Spain in which he operated

Reactions to the Master Francis Ames-Lewis, 2017-09-29 The immense effect that Michelangelo had on many artists working in the sixteenth century is widely acknowledged by historians of Italian Renaissance art Yet until recently greater stress has been placed on the individuality of these artists' styles and interpretation rather than on the elucidation of their debts to others There has been little direct focus on the ways in which later sixteenth century artists actually confronted Michelangelo or how those areas or aspects of their artistic production that are most closely related to his reveal their attitudes and responses to Michelangelo's work Reactions to the Master presents the first coherent study of the influence exerted by Michelangelo's work in painting and sculpture on artists of the late Renaissance period including Alessandro Allori Agnolo Bronzino Battista Franco Francesco Parmigianino Jacopo Pontormo Francesco Salviati Raphael Giorgio Vasari Marcello Venusti and Alessandro Vittoria The essays focus on the direct relations such as copies and borrowings previously underrated by art historians but which here form significant keys to understanding the aesthetic attitudes and broader issues of theory advanced at the time

Italian Fifteenth- to Seventeenth-century Drawings Anna Forlani Tempesti, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1991 Perhaps more than any other collector of his generation in the United States Robert Lehman was interested in acquiring early drawings He made a great effort to add drawings to the collection of paintings sculpture ceramics glass and other objects that his father Philip Lehman had begun assembling The 116 Italian drawings analyzed and discussed in this volume are among the more than 2 000 works of art from the collection now housed in the Robert Lehman Wing of The Metropolitan Museum of Art Robert Lehman's collection demonstrates the variety of drawings produced in Italy from the fifteenth to the seventeenth century a period when the purposes and techniques of drawings as well as the aims and abilities of the artist who made them became increasingly sophisticated The volume includes an elaborate design for an equestrian monument by Antonio Pollaiuolo a magnificent study of a bear by Leonardo da Vinci a cartoon by Luca Signorelli a study for a vault fresco by Taddeo Zuccaro and many other drawings that are among the best Italian examples to have survived from that era Most types of drawings in a wide variety of techniques are represented figure studies grand compositions landscapes cartoons modelli and even sculptors studies Metropolitan Museum of Art website
