RARE II United States. Forest Service, 1979 Bibliographical account of nearly fifteen hundred curious and rare books ... relating to the history and topography of Yorkshire John Camden Hotten, 1865 Book Talk Robert H. Jackson (jurist), Carol Zeman Rothkopf, 2006 A fascinating and valuable insight into the fast changing worlds of the bibliophile John Lewis Delusions and the Madness of the Masses Lawrie Reznick, 2010-11-16 We all think that we can tell the difference between someone who is mad or whom psychiatrists call psychotic and someone who is sane But can we really tell who is mad and who is not Do we really know what madness is and how it should be recognized Have psychiatrists made a sensible distinction between the patient who believes that aliens are beaming messages to him from a foreign planet and the religious fanatic who believes God communicates to him via automatic writing Is there a difference between the paranoid patient who believes that the FBI is after him and the sizeable proportion of our normal population that believe that the US government orchestrated the 9 11 bombings Here Reznick hopes to shed light on the delusions of the masses those delusions that are common to everyday people living so called ordinary lives He provides an understanding of madness and the psychological processes that drive us to adopt delusions arguing that it is a mistake to view only schizophrenic patients as delusional while excluding large groups of society from such an analysis If we abandon the idea that whole communities cannot share a delusion we can come to a better understanding about why the world is such a dangerous place Uncovering Rare Disease.
