Libertarian Accounts of Free Will Randolph Clarke, Randolph K. Clarke, 2005-12-08 This comprehensive study offers a balanced assessment of libertarian accounts of free will Bringing to bear recent work on action causation and causal explanation Clarke defends a type of event causal view from popular objections concerning rationality and diminished control He subtly explores the extent to which event causal accounts can secure the things for the sake of which we value free will judging their success here to be limited Clarke then sets out a highly original agent causal account one that integrates agent causation and nondeterministic event causation He defends this view from a number of objections but argues that we should find the substance causation required by any agent causal account to be impossible Clarke concludes that if a broad thesis of incompatibilism is correct one on which both free will and moral responsibility are incompatible with determinism then no libertarian account is entirely adequate

Contractualism and the Foundations of Morality Nicholas Southwood, 2013-11-07 Contractualism has a venerable history and considerable appeal Yet as an account of the foundations or ultimate grounds of morality it has been thought by many philosophers to be subject to fatal objections In this book Nicholas Southwood argues otherwise Beginning by detailing and diagnosing the shortcomings of the existing Hobbesian and Kantian models of contractualism he then proposes a novel deliberative model based on an interpersonal deliberative conception of practical reason He argues that the deliberative model of contractualism represents an attractive alternative to its more familiar rivals and that it has the resources to offer a more compelling account of morality's foundations one that does justice to the twin demands of moral accuracy and explanatory adequacy

The Cambridge History of Moral Philosophy Sacha Golob, Jens Timmermann, 2017-12-31 With fifty-four chapters charting the development of moral philosophy in the Western world this volume examines the key thinkers and texts and their influence on the history of moral thought from the pre-Socratics to the present day Topics including Epicureanism humanism Jewish and Arabic thought perfectionism pragmatism idealism and intuitionism are all explored as are figures including Aristotle Boethius Spinoza Hobbes Hume Kant Hegel Mill Nietzsche Heidegger Sartre and Rawls as well as numerous key ideas and schools of thought Chapters are written by leading experts in the field drawing on the latest research to offer rigorous analysis of the canonical figures and movements of this branch of philosophy The volume provides a comprehensive yet philosophically advanced resource for students and teachers alike as they approach and refine their understanding of the central issues in moral thought Intergenerational Justice Lukas H. Meyer, 2017-05-15 The essays selected for this volume show how relations between past current and future generations have become a major subject of philosophical research since the 1970s The relations between people alive today with people who may exist in the future and people now deceased differ from relations between contemporaries and in ways that raise new conceptual logical and substantive questions Among the questions addressed in this volume are what is the status of people now deceased and people who may exist in the future Can the latter be harmed by the actions of people alive today What duties of justice do we have towards people with whom we can neither interact nor co operate and can people who are indirect victims of past injustices legitimately claim compensation Answers to these questions are relevant in a number of policy areas most notably in issues regarding reparations for historical injustice and responding to climate change and its consequences The Oxford Handbook of Animal Ethics Tom L. Beauchamp, R.G. Frey, 2011-11-17 This text is designed to capture the nature of the questions as they stand today and to propose solutions to many of the major problems in the ethics of how we use animals Addiction and Self-Control Neil Levy, 2013-12 This book brings cutting edge neuroscience and psychology into dialogue with philosophical reflection to illuminate the loss of control experienced by addicts and thereby cast light on ordinary agency and the way in which it sometimes goes wrong Amartya Sen Christopher W. Morris, 2010 A volume of essays on aspects of Amartya Sen s hugely influential and multi disciplinary work Strategic Justice Peter Vanderschraaf, 2019 The author defends the ancient claim that justice is at bottom a body of social conventions Recent analytical and empirical concepts and results from the social sciences together with insights and arguments of past masters of moral and political philosophy are integrated into a new game theoretic conventionalist analysis of justice Envisioning a Better Future for Nonhuman Animals Doris Schneeberger, 2024-12-15 This book presents an ethical discussion of the possible future Universal Declarations of diverse specific nonhuman Animal Rights It contributes to a basis for a discussion about nonhuman animal rights concerning diverse aspects and quality of nonhuman animal life Doris Schneeberger deals with the interpretation and justification of animal rights and argues that because nonhuman animals are individuals whose lives are intrinsically and inherently valuable their goods and welfare ought to be protected She claims that these rights should be protected in possible morally advanced societies of the future Child Versus Childmaker Melinda A. Roberts, 1998 Child Versus Childmaker investigates a person affecting approach to ethical choice A form of consequentialism this approach is intended to capture the idea that agents ought both do the most good that they can and respect each person as distinct from each other Focusing on cases in which a conflict of interest arises between childmakers _parents infertility specialists embryologists and others engaged in the task of bringing new people into existence_ and the children they aim to create the author considers what we today owe those who will come into existence tomorrow Topics addressed include what the person affecting intuition is and how it differs from other forms of consequentialism the consistency of the person affecting intuition the non identity problem wrongful life and human cloning and other new reproductive technologies This book is intended for upper level undergraduates and graduate students in philosophy law and economics and for anyone interested in bioethics population policy normative theory children s rights constitutional privacy or family law Philosophy and Its Public Role William Aiken, John Arthur, Bob Brecher, Richard Brook, David Carr, James Child, Geoffrey Cupit, Wendy Donner, Anthony Ellis, Daniel Farrell, Bart Gruzalski, John Haldane, Jonathan Jacobs, Rex Martin, Terence McLaughlin, Andrew Moore, Lisa Portmess, 2011-10-04 This collection of essays brings together moral social and political philosophers from Britain Canada New Zealand and the United States who explore a wide range of issues under the three headings of Philosophy Society and Culture Ethics Economics and Justice and Rights Law and Punishment The topics discussed range from the public responsibility of intellectuals to the justice of military tribunals and from posthumous reproduction to the death penalty Liberal Eugenics Nicholas Agar, 2008-04-15 In this provocative book philosopher Nicholas Agar defends the idea that parents should be allowed to enhance their children s characteristics Gets away from fears of a Huxleyan Brave New World or a return to the fascist eugenics of the past Written from a philosophically and scientifically informed point of view Considers real contemporary cases of parents choosing what kind of child to have Uses moral images as a way to get readers with no background in philosophy to think about moral dilemmas Provides an authoritative account of the science involved making the book suitable for readers with no knowledge of genetics Creates a moral framework for assessing all new technologies The Bloomsbury Companion to Hobbes S.A. their maldevelopment often emerges neither merely through their own fault when they were children nor through the fault of biological caregivers who were guilty of parental child neglect Beyond this Adams argues that the maldevelopment of at risk youth commonly emerges through a kind of political child neglect when corrupt public officials fail to provide adequate protection or back up support for their development In these ways the author shows how the former type of high corruption or suite crime can significantly contribute to the latter type of corruption and street crime By applying a set of moral constitutional and criminological principles from Derek Parfit Ronald Dworkin and Jeffrey Reiman respectively Adams also provides a systematic account of why and how both these types of corruption should be curbed

The Stag Hunt and the Evolution of Social Structure Brian Skyrms,2004 Brian Skyrms author of the successful Evolution of the Social Contract which won the prestigious Lakatos Award has written a sequel The book is a study of ideas of cooperation and collective action The point of departure is a prototypical story found in Rousseau s A Discourse on Inequality Rousseau contrasts the pay off of hunting hare where the risk of non cooperation is small but the reward is equally small against the pay off of hunting the stag where maximum cooperation is required but where the reward is so much greater Thus rational agents are pulled in one direction by considerations of risk and in another by considerations of mutual benefit Written with Skyrms s characteristic clarity and verve this intriguing book will be eagerly sought out by students and professionals in philosophy political science economics sociology and evolutionary biology

Intergenerational Justice Janna Thompson,2009-05-01 In this timely study Thompson presents a theory of intergenerational justice that gives citizens duties to past and future generations showing why people can make legitimate demands of their successors and explaining what relationships between contemporary generations count as fair What connects these various responsibilities and entitlements is a view about individual interests that both argues that individuals are motivated by intergenerational concerns and that a polity that appropriately recognizes these interests must support and accept intergenerational responsibilities The book ranges over the philosophical ethical political and environmental questions raised by intergenerational issues how we can have duties to non-existent people whether we can wrong the dead or be held responsible for what they did what sacrifices we should make for our successors and whether we have duties to people of the remote future Encompassing the ethical problems created by demographic change the ethical issues of population control and intergenerational implications of new technologies for creating people this book will be of interest to those studying philosophy politics legal theory and environmental studies Parental Obligations and Bioethics Bernard G.

Prusak, 2013-10-15 This book examines the question of what parental obligations procreators incur by bringing children into being Prusak argues that parents as procreators have obligations regarding future children that constrain the liberty of would-be parents to do as they wish Moreover these obligations go beyond simply respecting a child's rights He addresses in turn the ethics of adoption child support gamete donation surrogacy prenatal genetic enhancement and public responsibility for children
