Rational Geomancy The Kids Of Themachine:

Rational Geomancy B. P. Nichol, Toronto Research Group, 1992 History of the 18 year critical collaboration between the late bpNichol and Steve McCaffery and its resulting intellectual growth      McLuhan in Space Richard Cavell, 2002-01-01 Demonstrates how McLuhan extended insights derived from advances in physics and artistic experimentation into a theory of acoustic space which he then used to challenge the assumptions of visual space that had been produced through print culture

Avant-Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts, 2013-02-27 In Avant Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts draws attention to the fact that the avant garde has had a presence in Canada long before the country's literary histories have recognized and that the radicalism of avant garde art has been sabotaged by pedestrian terms of engagement by the Canadian media the public and the literary critics This book presents a rich body of evidence to illustrate the extent to which Canadians have been producing avant garde art since the start of the twentieth century Betts explores the radical literary ambitions and achievements of three different nodes of avant garde literary activity mystical revolutionaries from the 1910s to the 1930s Surrealists Automatists from the 1920s to the 1960s and Canadian Vorticists from the 1920s to the 1970s Avant Garde Canadian Literature offers an entrance into the vocabulary of the ongoing and primarily international debate surrounding the idea of avant gardism providing readers with a functional vocabulary for discussing some of the most hermetic and yet energetic literature ever produced in this country      Trash Culture Gillian Pye, 2010 In the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries concerns about the environment and the future of global capitalism have dominated political and social agendas worldwide The culture of excess underlying these concerns is particularly evident in the issue of trash which for environmentalists has been a negative category heavily implicated in the destruction of the natural world However in the context of the arts trash has long been seen as a rich aesthetic resource and more recently particularly under the influence of anthropology and archaeology it has been explored as a form of material culture that articulates modes of identity construction In the context of such shifting often ambiguous attitudes to the obsolete and the discarded this book offers a timely insight into their significance for representations of social and personal identity The essays in the book build on scholarship in cultural theory sociology and anthropology that suggests that social and personal experience is embedded in material culture but they also focus on the significance of trash as an aesthetic resource The volume illuminates some of the ways in which our relationship to trash has influenced and is influenced by cultural products including art architecture literature film and museum culture      Dynamic Fair Dealing Rosemary J. Coombe, Darren Wershler, Martin Zeilinger, 2014-01-01 Dynamic Fair Dealing presents a range of insightful and provocative essays that rethink our relationship to Canadian fair dealing policy      Close Listening Charles Bernstein, 1998-04-30 Close Listening brings together seventeen strikingly original essays especially written for this volume on the poetry reading the sound of poetry and the visual performance of poetry While the performance of poetry is as old as poetry itself critical attention to modern and postmodern poetry performance has been surprisingly slight This volume featuring work by critics and poets such as Marjorie Perloff Susan Stewart Johanna Drucker Dennis Tedlock and Susan Howe is the first comprehensive introduction to the ways in which twentieth century poetry has been practiced as a performance art From the performance styles of individual poets and types of poetry to the relation of sound to meaning from historical and social approaches to poetry readings to new imaginations of prosody the entries gathered here investigate a compelling range of topics for anyone interested in poetry Taken together these essays encourage new forms of close listenings not only to the printed text of poems but also to tapes performances and other expressions of the sounded and visualized word The time is right for such a volume with readings spoken word events and the Web gaining an increasing audience for poetry Close Listening opens a number of new avenues for the critical discussion of the sound and performance of poetry

Symbolism Florian Klaeger, Klaus Stierstorfer, Marlena Tronicke, 2022-10-03 Special Focus Omission edited by Patrick Gill Throughout literary history and in many cultures we encounter an astute use of conspicuous absences to conjure an imagined reality into a recipient's mind The term omission as used in the present study then demarcates a common artistic phenomenon a silence blank or absence introduced against the recipient's generic or experiential expectations but which nonetheless frequently encapsulates the tenor of the work as a whole Such omissions can be employed for their affective potential when emotions represented or evoked by the text are deemed to be beyond words They can be employed to raise epistemological questions as when an omission marks the limits of what can be known Ethical questions can also be approached by means of omissions as when a character's voice is omitted for instance Finally omission always carries within it the potential to reflect on the media and genres on which it is brought to bear as its efficacy depends on the recipient's generic expectations omission is frequently characterized by a high degree of meta discursiveness This volume investigates the various strategies with which the phenomenon of omission is employed across a range of textual forms and in different cultures to conclusively argue for its status as a highly effective and near universal form of artistic signification

Finding Nothing Gregory Betts, 2021-07-30 Experimental literature accelerated dramatically in Vancouver in the 1960s as the influence of New American poetics merged with the ideas of Marshall McLuhan Vancouver poets and artists began thinking about their creative works with new clarity and set about testing and redefining the boundaries of literature As new gardens in Vancouver explored the limits of text and language some writers began incorporating collage and concrete poetics into their work while others delved deeper into unsettling revolutionary and Surrealist imagery There was a presumption across the avant garde communities that radical openness could provoke widespread socio political change In other words the intermedia experimentation and the related destruction of the line between art and society pushed art to the frontlines of a broad socio political battle of the collective imagination of Vancouver Finding Nothing traces the rise of the radical avant garde in Vancouver from the initial salvos of the Tish group through Blewointment's spatial experiments to radical Surrealisms and new feminisms Incorporating images original texts and interviews Gregory Betts shows how the VanGardes signalled a remarkable consciousness of the globalized forces at play in the city impacting communities orientations races and nations

What Are Poets For? Gerald L Bruns, 2012-06 Conceptions and practices of poetry change not only from time to time and from place to place but also from poet to poet This has never been more the case than in recent years Gerald Bruns's magisterial What Are Poets For explores typographical experiments that distribute letters randomly across a printed page sound tracks made of vocal and buccal noises and holographic poems that recompose themselves as one travels through their digital space Bruns surveys one word poems found texts and book length assemblies of disconnected phrases he even includes descriptions of poems that no one could possibly write but which are no less interesting or no less poetic for all of that The purpose of the book is to illuminate this strange poetic landscape spotlighting and describing such oddities as they appear anomalies that most contemporary poetry criticism ignores Naturally this breadth raises numerous philosophical questions that Bruns also addresses for example whether poetry should be responsible semantically ethically politically to anything outside itself whether it can be reduced to categories distinctions and the rule of identity and whether a particular poem can seem odd or strange when everything is an anomaly Perhaps our task is simply to learn like anthropologists how to inhabit such an anarchic world The poets taken up for study are among the most important and innovative in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries John Ashbery Charles Bernstein Paul Celan Kenneth Goldsmith Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Karen Mac Cormack Steve McCaffery John Matthias J H Prynne and Tom Raworth What Are Poets For is nothing less than a lucid detailed study of some of the most intractable writings in contemporary poetry      The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars,2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole      Avant Canada Gregory Betts,Christian Bök,2019-01-10 Avant Canada presents a rich collection of original essays and creative works on a representative array of avant garde literary movements in Canada from the past fifty years From the work of Leonard Cohen and bpNichol to that of Jordan Abel and Liz Howard Avant Canada features twenty eight of the best writers and critics in the field The book proposes four dominant modes of avant garde production Concrete Poetics which accentuates the visual and material aspects of language Language Writing which challenges the interconnection between words and things Identity Writing which interrogates the self and its sociopolitical position and Copyleft Poetics which undermines our habitual assumptions about the ownership of expression A fifth section commemorates the importance of the Centennial in the 1960s at a time when avant garde cultures in Canada began to emerge Readers of this book will become familiar with some of the most challenging works of literature and their creators that this country has ever produced From Concrete Poetry in the 1960s through to Indigenous Literature in the 2010s Avant Canada offers the most sweeping study of the literary avant garde in Canada to date      Time in Time J. Mark Smith,2013-01-01 Edgar Allan Poe arguing that brevity and intensity were the essence of poetry declared there was no such thing as a long poem It can also be said there is no difference between a short and a long poem except duration a measure of time Time in Time examines what the difference really is and investigates the interplay of short and long forms in contemporary poetry Moving beyond the opposition of lyric and experimental schools Time in Time constructs a history of recent North American efforts to bring about a more open poetic form Contributors explore ways in which the work of Louis Zukofsky William Carlos Williams Jackson Mac Low George Oppen Hannah Weiner A R Ammons Marjorie Perloff Er n Moure Ron Silliman and Kenneth Goldsmith reconceives reframes and sometimes interknits the possibilities of short and long poems In doing so the collection offers insight into the affiliative networks and inter generational lines of avant gardism on the continent Attuned to the surprising reversals and unstable categories of the period Time in Time illuminates the ongoing encounter of literary creativity with the limits and possibilities of form Contributors include Adam Dickinson Brock University Kerry Doyle York University Rachel Blau DuPlessis Temple University Steve McCaffery SUNY Buffalo Er n Moure Montreal Michael O Driscoll University of Alberta Jennifer Russo City University of New York Graduate Center and J Mark Smith Grant MacEwan University

Crosstalk Diana Brydon, Marta Dvořák, 2012-08-07 What are the fictions that shape Canadian engagements with the global What frictions emerge from these encounters In negotiating aesthetic and political approaches to Canadian cultural production within contexts of global circulation this collection argues for the value of attending to narratorial lyric and theatrical conventions in dialogue with questions of epistemological and social justice Using the twinned framing devices of crosstalk and cross sighting the contributing authors attend to how the interplay of the verbal and the visual maps public spheres of creative engagement today Individual chapters present a range of methodological approaches to understanding national culture and creative labour in global contexts Through their collective enactment of methodological crosstalk they demonstrate the productivity of scholarly debate across differences of outlook culture and training In highlighting convergences and disagreements the book sharpens our understanding of how literary and critical conventions and theories operate within and across cultures

Material Poetics in Hemispheric America Rebecca Kosick, 2020-09-04 Reconsiders the lyrical norm that predominates in Anglophone accounts of poetry through a multilingual and transnational lens A bold project that departs from a tradition heavily dominated by the lyric to question the very nature of what counts as poetry A visually exciting text that draws on poetry and art from a wide array of late twentieth and early twenty first century practitioners An interdisciplinary approach to poetry and poetics that opens new avenues for understanding how poetry intersects with philosophies of the object media theory and visual studies A transnational frame that responds to a growing scholarly push to situate American studies within the broader context of the American hemisphere This book examines poets and artists in the Americas during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries to show how they worked to make language into material objects and material objects into language It builds a theory of material poetics that provides an alternative account of poetry in hemispheric America Rebecca Kosick argues that by reframing American poetry to prominently include object oriented practices within and beyond the United States material poetry can be seen as representing a significant branch of the American poetic tradition      Guy Maddin's My Winnipeg Darren Sean Wershler-Henry,2010-01-01 If you love movies in the very sinews of your imagination you should experience the work of Guy Maddin Roger Ebert Chicago Sun Times Guy Maddin s My Winnipeg is a major advance in the academic understanding of a key film of one of Canada s most important living filmmakers Ernest Mathijs Department of Theatre and Film University of British Columbia      Poetry on & Off the Page Marjorie Perloff,1998 The fourteen essays that make up this collection have as their common theme a reconsideration of the role historical and cultural change has played in the evolution of twentieth century poetry and poetics Committed to the notion that in John Ashbery s words You can t say it that way anymore Poetry On Off the Page describes the formations and transformations of literary and artistic discourses and traces these discourses as they have evolved in their dialogue with history culture and society The volume is testimony to the important role that contemporary artistic practice will continue to play as we move into the twenty first century

Everybody's Autonomy Juliana Spahr,2001-01-11 Everybody s Autonomy is about reading and identity Experimental texts empower the reader by encouraging self governing approaches to reading and by placing the reader on equal footing with the author      Dooble Tongue Jeffrey Skoblow,2001 Dooble Tongue is an imaginative meditation on Robert Burns and Scottish poetry as well as a book that engages and contests the customary assumptions and practices of literary criticism Beginning with an examination of two contemporary Scottish poets W N Herbert and Robert Crawford and moving back in time to the Scottish Modernist master Hugh MacDiarmid then further back to Burns himself the study of the Scottish tradition is situated in a broad historical context The focus throughout is on language particularly Scots more broadly vernacular literature in relation to culturally elite literary and critical modes as well as on questions of literary nationalism and the cultural politics of poetic discourse
