Raw Vision 35 Summer 2001:

Raw Vision ,2001 Vernacular Visionaries The Museum of International Folk Art, Santa Fe, New Mexico, Museum of International Folk Art (N.M.), Director of Garden and Landscape Studies John Beardsley, John Beardsley, Caterina Gemma Brenzoni, Victoria Y. Lu, John Maizels, Susan Brown McGreevey, Jacques Mercier, Randall Morris, 2003-01-01 Outsider Art is a name for the often mesmerizing creations of those who live and work at a distance from prevailing notions about mainstream artistic trends individuals who are frequently unaware of themselves as artists or their works as art This book presents and discusses some of the 20th century s most significant examples of Outsider Art artists from around the world including Gedewon a cleric from Ethiopia who made unique and psychedelic talismans William Hawkins an African American self taught artist with a unique pop sensibility the Mexican artist Martin Ramirez creator of large scale works that tell tales of mestizo life Nek Chand Saini whose Rock Garden in India is a leading visionary site Hung Tung whose colourful scrolls reflect both traditional Taiwanese culture and fantastic imagination former Navajo medicine man Charlie Willetto carver of raw expressionistic figures and animals Anna Zemankova Czech maker of dreamy biomorphic drawings perhaps done in a trance or mediumistic state and Italian artist Carlo Zinelli whose bold graphic compositions display incredible patterns and energy of international Outsider Art and demonstrates the importance of place and time as well as internal genius in these artists creative processes American Folk Art Kristin G. Congdon, Kara Kelley Hallmark, 2012-03-19 Folk art is as varied as it is indicative of person and place informed by innovation and grounded in cultural context The variety and versatility of 300 American folk artists is captured in this collection of informative and thoroughly engaging essays American Folk Art A Regional Reference offers a collection of fascinating essays on the life and work of 300 individual artists Some of the men and women profiled in these two volumes are well known while others are important practitioners who have yet to receive the notice they merit Because many of the artists in both categories have a clear identity with their land and culture the work is organized by geographical region and includes an essay on each region to help make connections visible There is also an introductory essay on U S folk art as a whole Those writing about folk art to date tend to view each artist as either traditional or innovative One of the major contributions of this work is that it demonstrates that folk artists more often exhibit both traits they are grounded in their cultural context and creative in the way they make work their own Such insights expand the study of folk art even as they readjust readers understanding of who folk artists are World Heritage and National Registers Thomas R. Gensheimer, Celeste Lovette Guichard, 2017-09-08 Historic sites celebrate defining moments in history memorialize important events and people and contribute to the character of the locations where they are situated Heritage designation both globally and nationally is an inherently contested issue As detailed in this volume concerns of politics and identity criteria for designation impacts on communities and sites and challenges to management planning are central to any understanding of the process by which heritage sites are created developed and maintained The idea for this volume originated at a symposium hosted by the Savannah College of Art and Design Contributors address such topics as the need to revamp criteria for designation the effect historic site recognition has on local communities the challenges encountered in maintaining a site and issues linked to specific political climates or actions and group identity The contributors constitute an international cast of leading scholars employees and policy makers all of whom have had extensive experience with World Heritage and National Register site stewardship The work will be an invaluable reference for historians architects and those committed to the preservation of national monuments
