The Razing of Romania's Past Dinu C Giurescu,1989-06-01 Razing of Romania's past D.C. Giurescu,1990 The Razing of Romania's Past: International Preservation Report Dinu C. Giurescu,1990 The Communist Genocide in Romania Gheorghe Boldur-Lătescu,2005 Communist Genocide in Romania The Destruction of Memory Robert Bevan,2007-04-20 Crumbled shells of mosques in Iraq the bombing of British cathedrals in World War II the fall of the World Trade Center towers on September 11 when architectural totems such as these are destroyed by conflicts and the ravages of war more than mere buildings are at stake The Destruction of Memory reveals the extent to which a nation weds itself to its landscape Robert Bevan argues that such destruction not only shatters a nation s culture and morale but is also a deliberate act of eradicating a culture s memory and ultimately its existence Bevan combs through world history to highlight a range of wars and conflicts in which the destruction of architecture was pivotal From Cortez s razing of Aztec cities to the carpet bombings of Dresden and Tokyo in World War II to the war in the former Yugoslavia The Destruction of Memory exposes the cultural war that rages behind architectural annihilation revealing that in this subliminal assault lies the complex aim of exterminating a people He provocatively argues for the fatally intertwined experience of genocide and cultural genocide ultimately proposing the elevation of cultural genocide to a crime punishable by international law In an age in which Frank Gehry I M Pei and Frank Lloyd Wright are revered and yet museums and temples of priceless value are destroyed in wars around the world Bevan challenges the notion of collateral damage arguing that it is in fact a deliberate act of war

Romania After Tyranny Daniel N Nelson,2019-06-19 In 1973 Romanians were beginning to recognize that the regime of Nicolae Ceausescu contrary to what his first five or six years in power seemed to imply would bring no respite from communism Instead after a 1971 mini cultural revolution ended hope for a Bucharest spring and intellectual latitude was curtailed further in 1972 73 the ominous possibilities of Ceausescu were becoming evident In 1973 I went to Romania on a dissertation research grant from the International Research and Exchanges Board It was a year in which wide ranging survey research was still possible But it was also a time when historians and writers who had different ideas or workers who gave thought to non party union organization felt the heavy hand of Ceausescu s Securitate As happens to most graduate students and their field research it was a formative experience with indelible impressions that remain today Crimes against History Antoon De Baets,2018-12-13 Crimes against History takes a global approach to the extreme forms of censorship to which history and historians have been subjected through the ages The book opens by considering the varieties of censorship from suppression dismissal and defamation to persecution and murder Part I Kill switch tells the tragic story of how the censorship of history has sometimes turned into deadly crimes against history with chapters looking at topics such as historians and archivists being killed for political reasons attacks by political leaders on historians iconoclastic breaks with the past and fake news Part II Fragile freedom reverses the perspective and examines how the censorship of history has backfired Chapters consider the subversive power of historical analogies and resistance to the censorship of history The book also contains a Provisional memorial for history producers killed for political reasons from ancient times until 2017 It is a double tribute to the history producers who were killed and to those who mustered the courage to resist the blows of censorship Testimony of public witnesses for natural resources management programs United States. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies,1990 The Handbook of COURAGE Apor, Balázs,Apor, Péter,Horváth, Sándor,2018-11-27 The COURAGE

Handbook ushers its reader into the world of the compellingly rich heritage of cultural opposition in Eastern Europe It is intended primarily to further a subtle understanding of the complex and multifaceted nature of cultural opposition and its legacy from the perspective of the various collections held in public institutions or by private individuals across the region Through its focus on material heritage the handbook provides new perspectives on the history of dissent and cultural non conformism in the former socialist countries of Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe The volume is comprised of contributions by over 60 authors from a range of different academic and national backgrounds who share their insights into the topic It offers focused discussions from comparative and transnational perspectives of the key themes and prevailing forms of opposition in the region including non conformist art youth sub cultures intellectual dissent religious groups underground rock avantgarde theater exile traditionalism ethnic revivalism censorship and surveillance The handbook provides its reader with a concise synthesis of the existing scholarship and suggests new avenues for further research

The Romanian Revolution of December 1989 Peter Siani-Davies,2007 The Romanian Revolution of 1989 was the most spectacularly violent and remains today the most controversial of all the East European upheavals of that year Despite or perhaps because of the media attention the revolution received it remains shrouded in mystery How did the seemingly impregnable Ceausescu regime come to be toppled so swiftly and how did Ion Iliescu and the National Salvation Front come to power Was it by coup d tat Who were the mysterious terrorists who wreaked such havoc on the streets of Bucharest and the other major cities of Romania Were they members of the notorious securitate What was the role of the Soviet Union Blending narrative with analysis Peter Siani Davies seeks to answer these and other questions while placing the events and their immediate aftermath within a wider context Based on fieldwork conducted in Romania and drawing heavily on Romanian sources including television and radio transcripts official documents newspaper reports and interviews this book is the most thorough study of the Romanian Revolution that has appeared in English or any other major European language

Recognizing that a definitive history of these events may be impossible Siani Davies focuses on the ways in which participants interpreted the events according to particular scripts and myths of revolution rooted in the Romanian historical experience In the process the author sheds light on the ways in which history and the conflicting retellings of the 1989 events are put to political use in the transitional societies of Eastern Europe Architecture RePerformed: The Politics of Reconstruction Tino Mager,2016-03-09 First emerging at the beginning of the twentieth century architectural reconstruction has increasingly become an instrument to visually revive a long bygone past This book deals with the phenomenon of meticulous reconstruction in architecture It argues that the politics of reconstruction go far beyond aesthetic considerations Taking architecture as a major source of history and regional identity the impact of large scale reconstruction is deeply intertwined with political and social factors Furthermore memories and associations correlated with lost buildings of a bygone era are heavily influenced by their re appearance something which often contradicts historical events Reconstruction has become an established way of building and dealing with the past yet so far there is no comprehensive scientific study on it By bringing together eight case studies from Eastern Europe France Spain China Japan Israel and Brazil it provides valuable insights into this topic The chapters analyse the political background of the reconstructions and identify the protagonists In doing so this volume adds to our understanding of the impact of reconstruction to memory and oblivion as well as the critical power of reconstruction regarding contemporary architecture and urbanism Virtually Jewish Ruth Ellen Gruber,2002-01-15 The author explores the phenomenon of the Jewish culture in Europe In this book she asks in what way do non Jews embrace and enact Jewish culture and for what reasons CRM Bulletin United States. National Park Service. Cultural Resources Management Division,1988 East Central Europe and Communism Sabrina P. Ramet,2023-03-23 The communists of East Central Europe came to power promising to bring about genuine equality paying special attention to achieving gender equality to build up industry and create prosperous societies and to use music art and literature to promote socialist ideals Instead they never succeeded in filling more than a third of their legislatures with women and were unable to make significant headway against entrenched patriarchal views they considered it necessary with the sole exception of Albania to rely heavily on credits to build up their economies eventually driving them into bankruptcy and the effort to instrumentalize the arts ran aground in most of the region already by 1956 and in Yugoslavia by 1949 Communism was all about planning control and politicization Except for Yugoslavia after 1949 the communists sought to plan and control not only politics and the economy but also the media and information religious organizations culture and the promotion of women which they understood in the first place as involving putting women to work Inspired by the groundbreaking work of Robert K Merton on functionalist theory this book shows how communist policies were repeatedly undermined by unintended consequences and outright dysfunctions Mass Housing Miles Glendinning,2021-03-25 Shortlisted for the Alice Davis Hitchcock Medallion 2021 The Society of Architectural Historians of Great Britain It will become the standard work on the subject Literary Review This major work provides the first comprehensive history of one of modernism's most defining and controversial architectural legacies the 20th century drive to provide homes for the people Vast programmes of mass housing high rise low rise state funded and built in the modernist style became a truly global phenomenon leaving a legacy which has suffered waves of disillusionment in the West but which is now seeing a dramatic 21st century renaissance in the booming crowded cities of East Asia Providing a global approach to the history of Modernist mass housing production this authoritative study combines architectural history with the broader social political cultural aspects of mass housing particularly the mass politics of power and state building throughout the 20th century Exploring the relationship between built form ideology and political intervention it shows how mass housing not only reflected the transnational ideals of the Modernist project but also became a central legitimizing pillar of nation states worldwide In a compelling narrative which likens the spread of mass housing to a Hundred Years War of successive campaigns and retreats it traces the history around the globe from Europe via the USA Soviet Union and a network of international outposts to its ultimate optimistic resurgence in China and the East where it asks Are we facing a new dawn for mass housing or another great housing failure in the making Heritage under Socialism Eszter Gantner, Corinne Geering, Paul

Vickers, 2021-10-15 How was heritage understood and implemented in European socialist states after World War II By exploring national and regional specificities within the broader context of internationalization this volume enriches the conceptual methodological and empirical scope of heritage studies through a series of fascinating case studies Its transnational approach highlights the socialist world's diverse interpretations of heritage and the ways in which they have shaped the trajectories of present day preservation practices Under the Sign of the Cross Giuseppe Tateo, 2020-08-01 Based on extensive ethnographic research this book delves into the thriving industry of religious infrastructure in Romania where 4 000 Orthodox churches and cathedrals have been built in three decades Following the construction of the world's highest Orthodox cathedral in Bucharest the book brings together sociological and anthropological scholarship on eastern Christianity secularization urban change and nationalism Reading postsocialism through the prism of religious change the author argues that the emergence of political entrepreneurial and intellectual figures after 1990 has happened under the sign of the cross Stalinism for All Seasons Vladimir Tismaneanu, 2003-10-15 This history of the Romanian Communist Party RCP traces its origins as a tiny clandestine revolutionary organization in the 1920s to its years in national power from 1944 to 1989 and to the post 1989 metamorphoses
