Re Creations Visualizing Our Past:

Re-creations Mark Redknap, 2002 This beautiful book looks at the ways we illustrate our past through the eyes of artists craftspeople historians and scientists

Computers, Visualization, and History David J Staley, 2015-04-16 This visionary and thoroughly accessible book examines how digital environments and virtual reality have altered the ways historians think and communicate ideas and how the new language of visualization transforms our understanding of the past Drawing on familiar graphic models maps flow charts museum displays films the author shows how images can often convey ideas and information more efficiently and accurately than words With emerging digital technology these images will become more sophisticated manipulable and multidimensional and provide historians with new tools and environments to construct historical narratives Moving beyond the traditional book based on linear narrative digital scholarship based on visualization and hypertext will offer multiple perspectives dimensions and experiences that transform the ways historians work and people imagine and learn about history This second edition of Computers Visualization and History features expanded coverage of such topics as sequential narratives 3 D modeling simulation and video games as well as our theoretical understanding of space and immersive experience The author has also added Guidelines for Visual Composition in History for history and social studies teachers who wish to use technology for student assignments Also new to the second edition is a web link feature that users of the digital edition can use to enhance visualization within the text

The Palgrave

Handbook of the History of Human Sciences David McCallum, 2022-08-27 The Palgrave Handbook of the History of Human Sciences offers a uniquely comprehensive and global overview of the evolution of ideas concepts and policies within the human sciences Drawn from histories of the social and psychological sciences anthropology the history and philosophy of science and the history of ideas this collection analyses the health and welfare of populations evidence of the changing nature of our local communities cities societies or global movements and studies the way our humanness or human nature undergoes shifts because of broader technological shifts or patterns of living This Handbook serves as an authoritative reference to a vast source of representative scholarly work in interdisciplinary fields a means of understanding patterns of social change and the conduct of institutions as well as the histories of these ways of knowing probe the contexts circumstances and conditions which underpin continuity and change in the way we count analyse and understand ourselves in our different social worlds It reflects a critical scholarly interest in both traditional and emerging concerns on the relations between the biological and social sciences and between these and changes and continuities in societies and conducts as 21st century research moves into new intellectual and geographic territories more diverse fields and global problematics

Anglo-Saxon Studies in Archaeology and History 14 Sarah Semple, Howard Williams, 2007-10-10 Volume 14 of the Anglo Saxon Studies in Archaeology and History series is dedicated to the archaeology of early medieval death burial and commemoration Incorporating studies focusing upon Anglo Saxon England as well as research encompassing western Britain

Continental Europe and Scandinavia this volume originated as the proceedings of a two day conference held at the University of Exeter in February 2004 It comprises of an Introduction that outlines the key debates and new approaches in early medieval mortuary archaeology followed by eighteen innovative research papers offering new interpretations of the material culture monuments and landscape context of early medieval mortuary practices Papers contribute to a variety of ongoing debates including the study of ethnicity religion ideology and social memory from burial evidence The volume also contains two cemetery reports of early Anglo Saxon cemeteries from Cambridgeshire

The First Stones William Britnell, Alasdair Whittle, 2022-12-01 The First Stones brings together the results of recent research on the Neolithic long cairns lying in the shadow of the Black Mountains in south east Wales focusing upon Penywyrldod and Gwernvale the two best known tombs within the group previously excavated in the 1970s Important results lie in both new site detail and reassessment of the wider context Small scale excavation geophysical survey and geological assessment at Penywyrldod the largest of the Welsh long cairns gave further information about the distinctive external and internal architecture of the monument In turn this opened the opportunity to reassess the pre monument sequence at Gwernvale with re examination of both Mesolithic and Neolithic occupations including a timber structure and midden lithic and pottery assemblages and cereal remains The frame for wider reassessment is given by fresh chronological modeling both of the monuments themselves suggesting a sequence from Penywyrldod and Pipton to Ty Isaf and Gwernvale probably spanning the 38th to the 36th or 35th centuries cal BC and of early Neolithic activity in south Wales and the Marches probably beginning in the 39th century cal BC A detailed study of the major assemblages of human remains from the Black Mountains tombs includes evidence for diet trauma and lifestyles of the populations represented Recent isotope analysis of human remains from the tombs is also reviewed implying social mobility and migration within local populations during the early Neolithic The First Stones makes a significant contribution to the study of tomb building treatment of the dead place making the relationship of monuments to landscape local and regional identities connections and affiliations across southern Britain and the adjacent continent and Neolithization in western Britain Viewed within the context of tombs within the Cotswold Severn tradition as a whole it leads to an appreciation of the local and regional distinctiveness of architecture and mortuary practice exhibited by the tombs in this area of south east Wales emerging as part of the intake of a significant inland area in the early centuries of the Neolithic

Bones and Ochre Marianne Sommer, 2007 When ochre stained bones were unearthed by William Buckland in a Welsh cave in 1823 they raised many unsettling questions regarding their origin and inspired the casting and recasting of the character who became known as the Red Lady Her biography reflects the personal professional and national ambitions of those who studied her

Last House on the Hill Mirjana Stevanovic, Ruth Tringham, 2012-12-31 Recipient of the Jo Anne Stolaroff Cotsen Prize Occupied from around 7500 BC to 5700 BC the large Neolithic and Chalcolithic settlement of Catalhoyuk in Anatolia is composed entirely of domestic buildings no public buildings have been identified First excavated in the early 1960s the site was left untouched until 1993 During the summers of 1997 2003 a team from the University of California at Berkeley the BACH team excavated an area at the northern end of the East Mound of Catalhoyuk The houses there date predominantly to the late Aceramic and early Ceramic Neolithic around 7000 BC Last House on the Hill is the final report of the BACH excavations This volume comprises both interpretive chapters and empirical data from the excavations and their materials The research of the BACH team focuses on the lives and life histories of houses and people the use of digital technologies in documenting and sharing the archaeological process the senses of place and the nature of cultural heritage and our public responsibilities

Recreation ,1937 From Photography to 3D Models and Beyond: Visualizations in Archaeology Donald H.

Sanders,2023-12-21 This book explores the history of visual technology and archaeology and outlines how the introduction of interactive 3D computer modelling to the discipline parallels very closely the earlier integration of photography into archaeological fieldwork Mathematical Recreations and Essays Walter William Rouse Ball,1920 International Journal for Digital Art History: Issue 3, 2018 Liska Surkemper,Harald Klinke,Justin Underhill,2019-02-18 Art History is centrally concerned with a vast array of three dimensional objects such as sculptures and spaces such as architecture Digital technologies allow the creation of virtual spaces which in turn allow us to simulate and compare aspects of a visual culture s three dimensional timespace that cannot be communicated as a single still image The third issue thus focusses on the third dimension in Art History and the digital realm that continues to mediate and transform it Hells Canyon National

Teaching Digital History Jennifer Guiliano,2022-04-22 A Primer for Teaching Digital History is a guide for college and high school teachers who are teaching digital history for the first time or for experienced teachers who want to reinvigorate their pedagogy It can also serve those who are training future teachers to prepare their own syllabi as well as teachers who want to incorporate digital history into their history courses Offering design principles for approaching digital history that represent the possibilities that digital research and scholarship can take Jennifer Guiliano outlines potential strategies and methods for building syllabi and curricula Taking readers through the process of selecting data identifying learning outcomes and determining which tools students will use in the classroom Guiliano outlines popular research methods including digital source criticism text analysis and visualization She also discusses digital archives exhibits and collections as well as audiovisual and mixed media narratives such as short documentaries podcasts and multimodal storytelling Throughout Guiliano illuminates how digital history can enhance understandings of not just what histories are told but how they are told and who has access to them Outdoor Recreation Resources Commission United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs,1957 The Gurob Ship-Cart Model and Its Mediterranean Context Shelley Wachsmann,2013-01-09 When Shelley Wachsmann began his analysis of the small ship model excavated by assistants of famed Egyptologist W M F Petrie in Gurob Egypt in 1920 he expected to produce a brief monograph that would shed light on the model and the ship type that it represented Instead Wachsmann discovered that the model held clues to the identities and cultures of the enigmatic Sea Peoples to the religious practices of ancient Egypt and Greece and to the oared ships used by the Bronze Age Mycenaean Greeks Although found in Egypt the prototype of the Gurob model was clearly an Aegean style galley of a type used by both the Mycenaeans and the Sea Peoples The model is the most detailed representation presently known of this vessel type which played a major role in changing the course of world history Contemporaneous textual evidence for Sherden one of the Sea Peoples settled in the region suggests that the model may be patterned after a galley of that culture Bearing a typical Helladic bird head decoration topping the stempost with holes along the sheer strakes confirming the use of stanchions the model was found with four wheels and other evidence for a wagon like support structure connecting it with European cultic prototypes The online resources that accompany the book illustrate Wachsmann s research and analysis They include 3D interactive models that allow readers to examine the Gurob model on their computers as if held in the hand both in its present state and in two hypothetical reconstructions The online component also contains high resolution color photos of the model maps and satellite photos of the site and other related materials Offering a wide range of insights and evidence for linkages among ancient Mediterranean peoples and traditions The Gurob Ship Cart Model and Its Mediterranean Context presents an invaluable asset for anyone interested in the complexities of cultural change in the eastern Mediterranean at the end of the Bronze Age and the beginning of the Iron Age The Gurob ship cart model is was part of an exhibition entitled Beyond the Nile Egypt and the Classical World at the J Paul Getty Center March 27 September 9 2018 Read about it here <http://blogs.getty.edu/iris/egyptian-ship-model-sheds-light-on-bronze-age-warfare-and-religion/> Digital supplement to the book featuring 3D models <http://www.vizin.org/Gurob/Gurob.html>
