Collisions in the Digital Paradigm David John Harvey,2017-03-23 It has been said that the only asset that a lawyer has is time But the reality is that a lawyer s greatest asset is information The practice and the business of law is all about information exchange The flow of information travels in a number of different directions during the life of a case A client communicates certain facts to a lawyer The lawyer assimilates those facts and seeks out specialised legal information which may be applicable to those facts In the course of a generation there has been a technological revolution which represents a paradigm shift in the flow of information and communication Collisions in the Digital Paradigm is about how the law deals with digital information technologies and some of the problems that arise when the law has to deal with issues arising in a new paradigm Distributed Computing Gadi Taubenfeld,2008-09-10 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 22nd International Symposium on Distributed Computing DISC 2008 held in Arcachon France in September 2008 The 33 revised full papers selected from 101 submissions are presented together with 11 brief announcements of ongoing works all of them were carefully reviewed and selected for inclusion in the book The papers address all aspects of distributed computing including the theory design implementation and applications of distributed algorithms systems and networks ranging from foundational and theoretical topics to algorithms and systems issues and to applications in various fields

The Atlantic Monthly ,1917 Reading Caravan Paul Witty,1964 Silence on Monte Sole Jack Olsen,2020-05-28 The story of the Italian mountain villagers who lived on Monte Sole trying to survive the war and the horror that overtook them in September and October when the retreating German army massacred 1800 of the citizens of Monte Sole The mountain a 2000 foot peak in central Italy some fifteen miles south of Bologna had been a haven for Partisans For this reason the Germans mistrusted the villagers but the ugly rastrellamento purge occurred more by chance than vengeance Monte Sole happened to be located on the main route of the retreating army and the SS deemed it necessary to neutralize the mountain In operational terms this meant mass murder The book is based on the accounts of survivors the few official records courtroom testimony and visible scars It begins with the postman on his rounds and by this device visits with most of the contadini tenant farmers of the region the priests the storekeeper the elders They are simple people family oriented rather than nationalistic and often likably eccentric It is their very individuality that makes the ensuing chapters on the mass murder so effective Compelling compassionate rarely sentimental a stirring book Jack Olsen is the award winning author of thirty three books published in fifteen countries and eleven languages Olsen s journalism earned the National Headliners Award Chicago Guild s Page One Award commendations from Columbia and Indiana Universities the Washington State Governor s Award the Scripps Howard Award and other honors The Philadelphia Inquirer described him as an American treasure Pathways to Literacy Trevor Cairney,1995-11-02 This text recognizes that there is no simple way to develop literacy It begins with the central premise that literacy is not simply a cognitive process but a set of social practices used in socio cultural contexts and argues that literacy learners come to school with unique social histories that need to be recognised in the programmes devised to facilitate learning Cairney claims that literacy is not a unitary social practice and suggests that there are many forms of literacy each with specific purposes and contexts in which they are used The author provides a look at the many practical classroom strategies and practices that are necessary to recognize multiple pathways to literacy Community-Based Transformational Learning Christian Winterbottom, Jody S. Nicholson, F. Dan Richard, 2020-05-14 Rooted in the work of community school collaborations this text focuses on connecting the rigors of the classroom with the ambiguity of lived community experience Community Based Transformational Learning CBTL draws on the increasing evidence that course learning conducted in an applied community setting can positively transform students professional and personal identity and creates new ways of thinking and working in university courses and pre professional experiences To illustrate the different ways to successfully implement community based learning examples are provided of experiences integrated in courses across multiple disciplines across an American university whose mission is focused on teaching Topics covered include refugee and immigration transition issues incarceration and health needs with international examples of community experiences from Jamaica Korea and Belize Qualitative and quantitative data depict how these experiences impact students and each chapter presents how community engagement has been established as an effective approach in the different disciplines including computer science and sports management The authors demonstrate how CBTL experiences can be transformative when students are provided a chance to connect the academic commitment to community aims but also provides suggestions for overcoming challenges and pit falls in developing these experiences Individual Instruction Lucille E. Ogle, 1929 The Giant Postman Sally Grindley, 2000 All the villagers are frightened when the giant postman comes thumping down the street to deliver the mail but everything changes when Billy takes a letter of his own to the postman s house One Child, Many Worlds Eve Gregory, 2017-07-20 Originally published in 1997 By drawing on the experiences of children aged 3 to 8 attending schools in Britain Germany Iceland Australia and the USA the authors of these eleven case studies provide insights into what it means for young children to enter a new language and culture in school They look at the scope of out of school language and learning practices the role of care givers siblings and community language classes and go on to look at the ways in which the teacher can act as mediator of a new language and culture in school This book helps teachers develop culturally responsive teaching programmes based on an awareness of the knowledge children bring from home and the community The book will be of interest to early years and primary school teachers working in multilingual classrooms and students School Children and the Challenge of Managing AI Technologies Emanuela Guarcello, Abele Longo, 2024-06-14 This edited volume recognises the need to cultivate a critical and acute understanding of AI technologies amongst primary and elementary school children enabling them to meet the challenge of a human and ethically oriented management of AI technologies Focusing on school settings from both the national and international level to form comparative case studies chapters present a robust conceptual and foundational framework within a global context as the idea of AI and our relationship to it advances apace The book uses research garnered from interviews and observational data qualitative and quantitative research and theoretical findings gathered from single schools or institutions across the world Providing an innovative perspective in promoting the importance of a critical creative and ethical orientation based on aesthetic experiences the book focuses on development in areas like visual arts literature environmental education robotics photography and screen education movement and play Ultimately the book responds to an urgent and time sensitive call to provide guidance on AI to primary education researchers and will be of interest to academics scholars and researchers in the fields of primary and elementary education technology in education children s rights education and moral and values education more broadly
