Read To Me:

Read Me Leo Benedictus, 2025-04-08 Hitchcock's Rear Window meets Mesopotamia's The Woman Upstairs in this unnerving superbly crafted novel which takes readers deep into the mind of a serial stalker and through him the lives of his unsuspecting victims Try it yourself Go out pick somebody and watch them Take your phone and a notebook Persist What begins as a confluence of yours and another person's journeys on the train maybe or leaving a cinema gets into an entanglement You follow feeling that it's not really following because you're going the same way then when they at last reach their office you feel the clutch of a goodbye It's normal But how many times do you think the person being followed has been you Read Me is a seductive haunting novel that holds a sinister mirror up to the ways in which we observe judge and influence people Benedictus prose commands and draws readers into the dark manipulative mind of a serial stalker as he targets women across London escalating his efforts until he settles on Frances a bright young professional whose career is set to take off whose life he proceeds to unravel from the inside out A chilling rumination on power manipulation complicity and anonymity Read Me exposes just how vulnerable we are to the whims of others people we may not even know

J.F. Miller, 2018-05-11 A fascinating and compelling exploration of the learning process for parents teachers and anyone with an interest in education Reading and writing are fundamentally about the communication of meaning Yet when a child has difficulty in learning to read and write the one area that is never seen as having any relevance is the child's life experiences The author's contention is that the concept of dyslexia is something that has been invented rather than discovered in order to evade the question of meaning and the understanding of the individual Based on the author's thirty years experience of both educational psychology and analytical therapy the book sets out a radical approach to learning difficulties in which the primary assumption is that there will usually be underlying emotional conflicts tensions and anxieties Any learning disability is thus more likely to be the symptom of less evident personal difficulties rather than a problem in itself The book examines with examples typical patterns of personal and emotional difficulty that give rise to learning problems

New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression Marcel Cornis-Pope, 2014-11-15 Begun in 2010 as part of the Histories of Literatures in European Languages series sponsored by the International Comparative Literature Association the current project on New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression recognizes the global shift toward the visual and the virtual in all areas of textuality the printed verbal text is increasingly joined with the visual often electronic text This shift has opened up new domains of human achievement in art and culture The international roster of 24 contributors to this volume pursue a broad range of issues under four sets of questions that allow a larger conversation to emerge both inside the volume s sections and between them The four sections cover 1 Multimedia Productions in Theoretical and Historical Perspective 2 Regional and Intercultural Projects 3 Forms and Genres and 4 Readers and Rewriters in Multimedia Environments The essays included in this volume are examples of the kinds of projects and inquiries that have become possible at the interface between literature and other media new and old They emphasize the extent to which hypertextual multimedia and virtual reality technologies have enhanced the sociality of reading and writing enabling more people to interact than ever before At the same time however they warn that as long as these technologies are used to reinforce old habits of reading writing they will deliver modest results One of the major tasks pursued by the contributors to this volume is to integrate literature in the global informational environment where it can function as an imaginative partner teaching its interpretive competencies to other components of the cultural landscape

In the Shadow of Angels Charles Maldon Sr, Charles Maldon, 2010-03 In his book In the Shadow of Angels Charles Maldon reflects upon that season of his life when he was without the peace of God He presents the contribution of several extraordinary saints whom he addresses as angels who are largely responsible for his journey and victory into the perfect peace of God He reveals the uniqueness of each angel and relates the love and care provided by each when he needed someone to encourage and stand by him on his march toward his purpose and calling in God These individuals displayed strength and character that became an incentive for him to strive to be the best person that God ordained him to be Without them being there his life in the Deep South would almost definitely have taken a different direction By the mercy of God he encountered each of them at a time when he was in desperate need of love and encouragement to keep from fainting Each of them left him with a lifetime memory and a victory of healing and peace and thankfulness
