Marshmallow
Victoria Hansen
Hachette Australia
TND $29.99

September release

In this follow up to Kokomo, Victoria Hansen interrogates the ripple effects of grief. Five friends celebrating a birthday have their lives and relationships upended, and the after-effects of their guilt and sorrow change things forever. The life they had changed so abruptly and so completely that they are confronted with a terrible question: can they find a way to live with what they have lost?

Meris
Joy Carmichael
Scribe
PB $24.99

Two men fall in love in '50s Australia; Christopher who moved from the country to escape persecution, and Margen who helps to push the boat into Christopher's soul. Drawing on archival materials from newspaper articles, Joy Carmichael brings to life the insupportable society these men had to live and love in. A stunning novel from a time not long ago, from the author of Ironbark.

The Diplomat
David Malouf
Penguin Australia
TND $32.99

Five years after his involvement in the theft of Posidon's The Weeping Woman, Edward Diogenes is out of debt and heading to Melbourne for a fresh start. He needs to make one last visit to The Diplomat, a steady site for drug addicts and eccentrics, and take stock of the grief and regret that dwells within. A debt takes on future and redemption by the award-winning author of Barak and Calcut.

Sixty-Six Days
Victoria Holden
Saffron/Joseph Australia
TND $22.99

Ever has been raised in the heart of Aboriginal Northern by a proud traditional Yolngu family. She remembers so much about the previous world, but also has lost a dark pain. When Eric meets James, a young man looking pure love, they travel to Eric's beloved country where they are whole together. Until a sudden event leaves them seeking answers to one of life's most eternal questions: is love strong enough to withstand anything?

Forty Nights
Defne Tahir
Ullrich Press
HB $30.99

This magical, haunting debut follows Tahir as he helps a neighbour seek asylum for his extended family, and in turn begins to reflect on the experiences that led him to leave Iran and seek refuge in Australia. Defne moving between continents and centuries, Forty Nights is a profoundly human story about migration, war, family, and finding home, wherever that may be.

Enclave
Claire G. Coleman
Hachette Australia
TND $29.99

Christine cannot sleep, wake or think. She was told the Agency was keeping them safe from the dangers outside. She never questioned what she was told, allowed to know or permitted to think. The enclave was the only world she knew. Staying or leaving was not a choice she had, but then one day she started to start thinking. A masterful new novel from the critically acclaimed author of Terra Nullius.

Jerustown
Paul Dooly
Allen & Chivers
TND $32.99

In disgrace after the death of his son, Patrick Flannery flees London for his family home in remote Australia. A self-proclaimed 'story-teller' in his own right, he takes his granddaughters' legacy who brook 'colon' between the local Aboriginal people and white settlers. In writing his granddaughters' story, Flannery must confront the many uncomfortable truths that lie at the heart of Australia's colonial past.

Blue Hour
Sarah Schmidt
Hachette Australia
TND $32.99

Following her award-winning debut Sea Myself, Sarah Schmidt's second novel, is an emotionally charged journey through motherhood and trauma. The novel moves back and forth between the stories of Lily and her daughter Eleanor in the 1930s and 1970s as they travel through the different stages of their lives. Schmidt explores the beauty and violence in the world and the brutal cost when we allow grief and trauma to reach down generations.

Readers Guide To Australian Fiction:

A Reader's Guide to Australian Fiction Laurie Clancy, 1992 This authoritative and comprehensive reference book is the first chronological account of the major Australian fiction writers from 1830 to the 1990s Brief biographical information on the writers accompanies a critical discussion of the work Each entry stands alone but the book can be read as a chronological account of the extraordinary development of Australian fiction over a period of 160 years Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa

Publications, 2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature The International Who's Who of Authors and Writers offers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement, 1928 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1920 Integrity and Historical Research Tony

Gibbons, Emily Sutherland, 2012-03-12 There have been serious debates between historians novelists and filmmakers as to how best present historical narratives When writers and filmmakers talk of using historical research with integrity what exactly do they mean Integrity and Historical Research examines this question in detail The first chapter discusses the concept of integrity The chapters that follow reflect on this philosophical treatment in the light of fiction and film that deals with history in a number of ways How should writers and filmmakers use lives Can and may people who are now dead and who may have lived long ago be defamed The authors include academics historians social historians medievalists oral historians literary theorists historical novelists and script writers They examine the theoretical influences and practical choices that involve and concern writers and filmmakers who rely on historical research The desire to be accurate may often conflict with the need to produce a work that goes beyond the mere depiction of events in order to excite the interest of readers and to hold that interest At the same time there is a developing emphasis on historians to write well in clear accessible prose which may involve using the novelists techniques How much license may be given to writers of fiction and filmmakers in their depiction of historical characters and events This book begins to answer this question while inviting further discussion     Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Faye H. Christenberry, 2010-11-19

Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Strategies and Sources is a research guide to the literatures of the two major countries of Oceania Australia and New Zealand Covering over 200 years of these geographically and chronologically connected countries this guide contains references to many different types of resources illustrating how the researcher is best served by using the increasing variety of research tools in combination with each other The book emphasizes research methodology and outlines the best practices for the research process paying special attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting research on the literatures of Australia and New Zealand specifically The book includes commentary on general literary reference materials library catalogs print and online bibliographies indexes and annual reviews scholarly journals contemporary reviews period journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscripts and archives and web resources It is an essential tool for anyone conducting research on Australia or New Zealand and it is a helpful guide for readers with a special interest in these countries literatures     Fabulating Beauty, 2005-01-01 Peter Carey is one of Australia's finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey's literary achievement It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer's fictions Contributors focus on issues as diverse as the writer's biography his use of architectural metaphors his interrogation of narrative structures such as myths and cultural master plots intertextual strategies concepts of sacredness and references to the Christian tradition and his strategies of rewriting history Amidst predictions of the imminent death of postist theory the essays all attest to the ongoing relevance of the critical parameters framed by postmodernism and postcolonialism     Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen, James C. Docherty, 2014-12-05 Australia's development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U S invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Australia      Peter Carey Bruce Woodcock,2013-07-19 This is a revised and expanded edition of Woodcock s accessible study now including detailed readings of Carey s latest novels Jack Maggs and True History of the Kelly Gang      Lighting Dark Places Sue Kossew,2011 Preliminary Material Reading Feminism in Kate Grenville s Fiction Susan Sheridan Kate Grenville as Public Intellectual Brigid Rooney Author Author The Two Faces of Kate Grenville Elizabeth McMahon Madness and Power Lilian s Story and the Decolonized Body Bill Ashcroft Africa and Australia Revisited Reading Kate Grenville s Joan Makes History Kwaku Larbi Korang Mobility is the Key Bodies Boundaries and Movement in Kate Grenville s Lilian s Story Ruth Barcan Homeless and Foreign The Heroines of Lilian s Story and Dreamhouse Kate Livett Impossible Speech and the Burden of Translation Lilian s Story from Page to Screen Alice Healy Constructions of Nation and Gender in The Idea of Perfection Sue Kossew Poison in the Flour Kate Grenville s The Secret River Eleanor Collins History Fiction and The Secret River Sarah Pinto Learning From Each Other Language Authority and Authenticity in Kate Grenville s The Lieutenant Lynette Russell Bibliography Notes on Contributors Index      Reading Down Under Amit Sarwal,Reema Sarwal,2009 The Englishness of English literature had been expressed in Chaucer Shakespeare Wordsworth and Sir Walter Scott those writers whose works seemed best to embody the spirit of the place or the spirit of its folk In what writers or works would the Australianness of Australian literature be discovered David Carter 1997 This first literary Reader on Australian studies from India not only investigates this central question but explores many other facets of Australian literature and especially Australian cross cultural relationships with India and Asia Taking a broad view of what Australian literature is this Reader explores the dimensions of Australian literature national Aboriginal multicultural ecocritical postcolonial modernist comparative feminist and popular in its varied genres of drama poetry autobiography explorers journals short stories literature of war travel writing Anglo Indian fiction diasporic writing mainstream novel nature writing children s literature romance science fiction gothic literature horror crime fiction queer writing and humour Each paper in this Reader presents different ways of reading down under and performing Australianness Juxtaposing the varied critical perspectives of nearly 60 critics this Reader hopes to create a constructive dialogue in the fight against the dominance of an Anglo American academic approach      Being/s in Transit ,2021-11-22 This fifth volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the topics of travelling migration and dislocation All migrants are travellers but not all travellers are migrants Migration and the figure of the migrant have become key concepts in recent post colonial studies However migration is not such a new or exceptional phenomenon From the eighteenth century onward there have been migrations from Europe to what are now called post colonial countries and this prepared the ground for movement back to the old but also to the new centres of Europe and elsewhere Travel and travel experience on the other hand have been part of the cultural codes not only of the West and not only of imperialism The essays in this volume look at both kinds of movement at their intersections and at their dis locating effects They cover a wide range of topics from early seventeenth century travel reports through nineteenth century women s travel writing to such contemporary writers as Michael Ondaatje and Janette Turner Hospital

The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce,2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society

The Animal Fable in Science Fiction and Fantasy Bruce Shaw,2010-04-23 Though animal stories and fables stretch back into the antiquity of ancient India Persia Greece and Rome the reasons for writing them and their resonance for readers and listeners remain consistent to the present This work argues that they were essential sources of amusement and instruction and were also often profoundly unsettling Such authors in the realm of the animal fable as Tolkien Freud Voltaire Bakhtin Cordwainer Smith Karel Capek Vladimir Propp and many more are discussed

Australian National Bibliography ,1978

The A to Z of Australia James C. Docherty,2010-04-01 The last continent to be claimed by Europeans Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere the British were not Australia s original populace The first inhabitants of Australia the Aborigines are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60 000 years ago This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world s most successful immigrant nations The A to Z of Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world Through a detailed chronology an introduction appendixes a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets author James Docherty provides a much needed single volume reference on Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal tolerant democracy it is today
