H. Lawrence M. Lockwood, 1987-12-08 Movements in English Literature Gillie, 1975-05-29 In this 1975 volume Christopher Gillie follows the method of selecting writers that are most significant for this study He tries to show the main movements in English literature between 1900 and 1940 and selects for discussion those writers who have an abiding relevance even those without a large readership As a guide to himself as well as the reader he includes in the account enough historical and social narrative as may help explain such relevance and why he has made particular selections Gillie reinforces his critical comments with quotations from the selected writers and provides an extensive bibliography for further study International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets A Dictionary of Writers and their Works Christopher Riches, Michael Cox, 2015-01-29 Over 3 200 entries An essential guide to authors and their works that focuses on the general canon of British literature from the fifteenth century to the present There is also some coverage of non fiction such as biographies memoirs and science as well as inclusion of major American and Commonwealth writers This online exclusive new edition adds 60 000 new words including over 50 new entries dealing with authors who have risen to prominence in the last five years as well as fully updating the entries that currently exist Each entry provides details of a writer's nationality and birth death dates followed by a listing of their titles arranged chronologically by date of publication The Life of Metrical and Free Verse in Twentieth-Century Poetry Jon Silkin, 2016-07-27 In a wide ranging and compelling account of the life of metrical and free verse in the twentieth century poet and critic Jon Silkin deepens our understanding of the way poetry works on us He begins from the premiss that two modes of verse free and metrical engage the creative energies of poetry now creating a rich fertile environment capable of yielding work valuable to poetry itself and to the society which has given it life With a practitioner's empathy Silkin reads the poetry of Whitman Hopkins Eliot Pound Lawrence Dylan Thomas Bunting and eight British poets from the post second World War period to illustrate how free and metrical verse create separately or together a poetic harmony Additionally he includes crucial statements on modern poetry from poets themselves concluding with a fine memoir of Basil Bunting by Connie Pickard published in book form for the first time The Literature 100 Daniel S. Burt, 2008 Here is the revised and expanded edition of Daniel S Burt s fascinating assessment of the 100 most influential novelists playwrights and poets of all times and cultures now with 25 additional entries and some reassessments as well as 25 new black and white photographs and illustrations From Doris Lessing and Gabriel Garc a M rquez to Homer and Marcel Proust the entries provide a compelling accessible introduction to significant writers of world literature All of the writers selected have helped to redefine literature establishing a standard with which succeeding generations of writers and readers have had to contend The ranking attempts to discern from the broadest possible perspective what makes a literary artist great and how that greatness can be measured and compared Each profile distills the essence of the writer s career and character to help prompt consideration of literary merit and relationships by the reader
