Reading Begins at Home Dorothy Butler, Marie M. Clay, 1987 Butler and Clay present easy and informal ways to prepare a child to begin reading and to help him or her respond positively to written words Reading Begins at Home ; Preparing Children for Reading Before They Go to School Dorothy Butler, Marie M. Clay, 1979 Offers advice to parents on what they can do to prepare their preschoolers to read explaining what is meant by reading looking at the learning points that can be emphasized throughout the course of a normal day discussing more direct approaches to reading instruction and answering parents questions Reading, Language, and Literacy Fran Lehr, Jean Osborn, 2012-10-12 The impetus for this book emerged from a conference that brought together publishers and reading researchers and educators for the purpose of examining the best available research evidence about what we know and what we have yet to learn about the teaching of reading and about how children learn to read The goal of the conference was to contribute to a sound research base upon which to develop classroom practices that will ensure that every American child will become fully literate Because the field is still so deeply divided over the best ways to translate belief into classroom practice the editors decided to highlight rather than gloss over these divisions It is hoped that the papers in this volume will promote thought and discussion that will lead to action in improving reading instruction for children now and into the new century Reading Still Matters Catherine Sheldrick Ross, Lynne (E.F.)
