the prior critical perceptions associated with Ovidian suasive discourse in particular the unproblematic assertion of male will and the erasure of female voice Responding to the great fund of critical work done on amatory literature in the Middle Ages a literature thus far organized into an array of categories such as the rhetorical institution of persuasion and seduction the Ovidian heritage aetas ovidiana the language of amatory trial the genealogy of the romance and the convention of courtly love this volume seeks to provide a comprehensive look at the rhetorical and social conditions of desire

Audience and Reception in the Early Modern Period John R. Decker, Mitzi Kirkland-Ives, 2021-09-09 Early modern audiences readerships and viewerships were not homogenous Differences in status education language wealth and experience to name only a few variables could influence how a group of people or a particular person received and made sense of sermons public proclamations dramatic and musical performances images objects and spaces The ways in which each of these were framed and executed could have a serious impact on their relevance and effectiveness The chapters in this volume explore the ways in which authors poets artists preachers theologians playwrights and performers took account of and encoded pluriform potential audiences readers and viewers in their works and how these varied parties encountered and responded to these works The contributors here investigate these complex interactions through a variety of critical and methodological lenses

They Keep It All Hid Peter E. Knox, Hayden Pelliccia, Alexander Sens, 2018-10-22 This volume comprises a series of studies focusing on the Latin poetry of the first and second centuries BCE its relationship to earlier models both Greek and Latin and its reception by later writers A point of particular focus is the influence of Greek poetry including not only Hellenistic writers like Callimachus Theocritus and Lycophron but also archaic poets like Pindar and Bacchylides The volume also includes studies of style as well as treatments of the influence of Latin poetry on writers like Marvell and Dylan Contributors include J N Adams Barbara Weiden Boyd Brian Breed Sergio Casali Julia Hejduk Peter Knox Leah Kronenburg Charles Martindale Charles McNelis James O'Hara Thomas Palaima Hayden Pelliccia David Petrain David Ross and Alexander Sens

Abandoned Women Suzanne C. Hagedorn, 2004 Sheds light on the complex web of allusions that link medieval authors to their literary predecessors

Tragedy and Trauma in the Plays of Christopher Marlowe Mathew R. Martin, 2016-03-09 Contending that criticism of Marlowe's plays has been limited by humanist conceptions of tragedy this book engages with trauma theory especially psychoanalytic trauma theory to offer a fresh critical perspective within which to make sense of the tension in Marlowe's plays between the tragic and the traumatic The author argues that tragedies are trauma narratives narratives of wounding however in Marlowe's plays a traumatic aesthetics disrupts the closure that tragedy seeks to enact Martin's fresh reading of Massacre at Paris which is often dismissed by critics as a bad tragedy presents the play as deliberately breaking the conventions of the tragic genre in order to enact a traumatic aesthetics that pulls its audience into one of the early modern period's most notorious collective traumatic events the massacre of French Huguenots in Paris in 1572 The chapters on Marlowe's six other plays similarly argue that throughout Marlowe's drama tragedy is held in tension with and disrupted by the aesthetics of trauma      The Cambridge Guide to Homer Corinne Ondine Pache, Casey Dué, Susan Lupack, Robert Lamberton, 2020-03-05 From its ancient incarnation as a song to recent translations in modern languages Homeric epic remains an abiding source of inspiration for both scholars and artists that transcends temporal and linguistic boundaries The Cambridge Guide to Homer examines the influence and meaning of Homeric poetry from its earliest form as ancient Greek song to its current status in world literature presenting the information in a synthetic manner that allows the reader to gain an understanding of the different strands of Homeric studies The volume is structured around three main themes Homeric Song and Text the Homeric World and Homer in the World Each section starts with a series of macropedia essays arranged thematically that are accompanied by shorter complementary micropedia articles The Cambridge Guide to Homer thus traces the many routes taken by Homeric epic in the ancient world and its continuing relevance in different periods and cultures      The Yale Companion to Chaucer Seth Lerer, 2006-01-01 A collection of essays on Chaucer's poetry this guide provides up to date information on the history and textual contexts of Chaucer's work on the ranges of critical interpretation and on the poet's place in English and European literary history      How to Do Things with Narrative Jan Alber, Greta Olson, 2017-11-20 This volume combines narratological analyses with an investigation of the ideological ramifications of the use of narrative strategies The collected essays do not posit any intrinsic or stable connection between narrative techniques and world views Rather they demonstrate that world views are inevitably expressed through highly specific formal strategies This insight leads the contributors to investigate why and how particular narrative techniques are employed and under what conditions      Widow City Anna Wainwright, 2025 Widow City Gender Emotion and Community in the Italian Renaissance investigates the evolving role of the widow in medieval and Renaissance Italian literature from Dante Petrarch and Boccaccio to women poets including Vittoria Colonna and Veronica Gambara as a key model demonstrating to readers how to mourn and how to live well after devastating loss      The Routledge Companion to Global Chaucer Craig E. Bertolet, Susan Nakley, 2024-10-02 The Routledge Companion to Global Chaucer offers 40 chapters by leading scholars working with contemporary theoretical and textual approaches to the poetry and prose of Geoffrey Chaucer c 1340 1400 in a global context This volume is an ideal starting point for beginners offering contemporary perspectives to Chaucer both geographically and intellectually including Exploration of major and lesser known works translations and lyrics such as The Canterbury Tales and Troilus and Criseyde Spatial intersections and external forms of communication Discussion of identities cognitions and patterns of thought including gender race disability science and nature The Routledge Companion to Global Chaucer also includes a section addressing ways of incorporating its material in the classroom to integrate global questions in the teaching of Chaucer's works This guide provides post pandemic twenty first century readers a way to teach learn and write about Chaucer's works complete with awareness of their reach their limitations and occlusions on a global field of culture      Global Telecommunications Market Access Jennifer A.

Manner,2002 Global Telecommunications Market Access offers you a solid understanding of the regulatory economic business public policy and other considerations associated with entry into global telecommunications markets from a commercial governmental and legal perspective The primary focus of this book is on the global telecommunications regulatory environment and how it impacts market access strategies and implementation of these strategies You are presented with case studies and a global view of the progression of telecommunications to help you better see how global markets are evolving from being dominated by monopoly service providers to one where choice has become a reality for consumers

The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature Rita Copeland,2016-01-28 The Oxford History of Classical Reception in English Literature OHCREL is designed to offer a comprehensive investigation of the numerous and diverse ways in which literary texts of the classical world have stimulated responses and refashioning by English writers Covering the full range of English literature from the early Middle Ages to the present day OHCREL both synthesizes existing scholarship and presents cutting edge new research employing an international team of expert contributors for each of the five volumes OHCREL endeavours to interrogate rather than inertly reiterate conventional assumptions about literary periods the processes of canon formation and the relations between literary and non literary discourse It conceives of reception as a complex process of dialogic exchange and rather than offering large cultural generalizations it engages in close critical analysis of literary texts It explores in detail the ways in which English writers engagement with classical literature casts as much light on the classical originals as it does on the English writers own cultural context This first volume and fourth to appear in the series covers the years c 800 1558 and surveys the reception and transformation of classical literary culture in England from the Anglo Saxon period up to the Henrician era Chapters on the classics in the medieval curriculum the trivium and quadrivium medieval libraries and medieval mythology provide context for medieval reception The reception of specific classical authors and traditions is represented in chapters on Virgil Ovid Lucan Statius the matter of Troy Boethius moral philosophy historiography biblical epics English learning in the twelfth century and the role of antiquity in medieval alliterative poetry The medieval section includes coverage of Chaucer Gower and Lydgate while the part of the volume dedicated to the later period explores early English humanism humanist education and libraries in the Henrician era and includes chapters that focus on the classicism of Skelton Douglas Wyatt and Surrey
