Reading Into Cultural Studies Martin Barker, Anne Beezer, 2003-09-02 Reading Into Cultural Studies revisits a selection of key texts central to the formation of cultural studies as a discipline and as a project These texts address questions of power ideology and the possibilities and limits of resistance Each of the eleven essays in the collection renews an early study in one area of cultural investigation bringing such seminal texts as Subculture by Dick Hebdige Loving With a Vengeance by Tania Modleski and Bond and Beyond by Tony Bennett back to the centre of attention However the essays are not purely celebratory Each study is critically examined in a number of ways for its research strategy its implicit theories of power and ideology for the empirical evidence it draws on and its conceptual framework Together the essays provide an introduction to some of the central debates and issues in cultural studies

Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology Ian Marsh, Rosie Campbell, Mike Keating, 2014-05-12

Classic and Contemporary Readings in Sociology introduces the reader to sociological issues theories and debates providing extracts of primary source material from both classical and contemporary theorists Theorists are examined within their historical and sociological framework and the text provides an analysis of developments in sociological thought and research The text is divided into four main sections Part One Origins and Concepts surveys the history of the discipline of sociology and examines key themes which have influenced sociological theorising and investigation in particular social control culture and socialisation Parts Two and Four Sociological Theories and Sociological Research include a number of readings from the founding theorists and investigators including Auguste Comte Emile Durkheim Karl Marx Max Weber and Charles Booth and also include more recent theoretical writing and research approaches The focus on theory and research is extended by a selection of readings centred around the theme of Differences and Inequalities Part Three these readings provide students with examples of work from an area where sociological theorising and research has been widely applied

Handbook of Reading Research P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, Michael L. Kamil, Peter Mosenthal, Elizabeth B. Moje, Peter Afflerbach, Patricia Enciso, Nonie K. Lesaux, 1996 The Handbook of Reading Research is the research handbook for the field Each volume has come to define the field for the period of time it covers When taken as a set the four volumes provide a definitive history of reading research Back of cover volume 4 Reading Circles, Novels and Adult Reading Development

Sam Duncan, 2012-02-23 Adult literacy teachers are constantly searching for effective engaging and distinctly adult ways to develop adult emergent reading and for at least the past two hundred years adults have formed themselves into reading circles to read and discuss novels on a weekly or monthly basis Why then are reading circles rarely used or studied in formal adult literacy provision This book explores adult reading development novel reading and reading circles in the context of a wider examination of reading pedagogies and practices in the English speaking world It discusses reading as both an individual and a communal act and investigates the relationship between literature and literacy development practice and pedagogy including a reassessment of the controversial approaches of reading aloud and phonics for adults Sam Duncan reviews a case study of an adult reading circle in a large London further education college and identifies the wider implications for the teaching and learning of adult emergent reading for the use and understanding of reading circles and for how we understand the novel reading experience more broadly Learning to Read Critically in Language and Literacy

Andrew Goodwyn, Andrew W Stables, 2004-09-14 This book has definitely aided my understanding of the processes involved in taking a critical stance and would enable me to pick out and maybe even teach the different facets of critical thinking It has also developed my knowledge in the field of language and literacy education British Journal of Educational Studies Following other volumes in the Learning to Read Critically series Learning to Read Critically in Language and Literacy aims to develop skills of critical analysis and research design It presents a series of examples of best practice in language and literacy education research at a time when literacy development and learning through language are key policy issues This book is an overview of issues in Language and Literacy Education research as well as a guide to appropriate research methods and how to do a literature survey. Leading researchers present a research project together with their gloss on why they did it that way, what they found or did not find and why the research worked or in some cases did not work. The book is intended as a reference and teaching text for taught postgraduate courses in the area of language and literacy. This series edited by Mike Wallace supports research based teaching on masters and taught doctorate courses in the humanities and social sciences fields of enquiry. Each book is a three in one text designed to assist advanced course tutors and dissertation supervisors with key research based teaching tasks and aims to develop students critical understanding of research literature, increase students appreciation of what can be achieved in small scale investigations similar to those which they undertake for their dissertation, present students with major findings, generalisations and concepts connected to their particular field.

Understanding Reading and Writing Research Michael Leslie Kamil, Judith A. Langer, Timothy Shanahan, 1985. A collection of twelve humorous poems about such strange creatures as the sneezy and the quossible. Ethnographic Writing Research Wendy Bishop, 1999. The primary goal of Ethnographic Writing Research is to help you conduct your day to day research, whether it means developing an informal classroom report, writing a dissertation prospectus and study or participating in local civic literacy research. Qualitative Research in Action Tim May, 2002-04-22. Rather than being a how to book, this volume examines the ideas and practices of qualitative research in terms of their applicability for an understanding and explanation of the place of qualitative research in the social sciences. Resources in Education, 2001.

Research Methods in Applied Linguistics Brian Paltridge, Aek Phakiti, 2015-08-27. Research Methods in Applied Linguistics is designed to be the essential one volume resource for students. The book includes qualitative, quantitative and mixed methods research techniques and approaches, ethical considerations, sample studies, a glossary of key terms, resources for students. As well as covering a range of methodological issues, it looks at numerous areas in depth including language learning strategies, motivation, teacher beliefs, language and identity, pragmatics, vocabulary and grammar. Comprehensive and accessible, this is the essential guide to research methods for undergraduate and postgraduate students in applied linguistics and language studies.

Designing Social Research Ian Greener, 2011-04-13. Designing Social Research aims to guide students and new researchers using everyday non-jargonised language through the jungle of setting up their own research study. Ian Greener provides readers an accessible combination of guidance on how to practically plan one's research and understand the underpinning methodological principles that should inform the decisions we make about the methods we plan to use. This is the perfect starter book for anyone looking to design their own research project and make sense of and justify the many decisions that go into the research design process. The goal throughout is to enable students and researchers to assess the appropriateness of a range of methods and to get understanding of the strengths and limitations of different approaches to research. Greener highlights key debates in the field, both philosophical and practical, and presents them in such a way that they remain constantly relevant to research practice of his readers Coverage includes Framing an effective research question problem Examining the jargon of social research The links between theory methodology and method The role of literature reviewing in research design Managing and planning the research process Sampling Qualitative designs Quantitative designs Mixed methods designs Data analysis Designing Social Research will be ideal first reading for M level students and undergraduates planning significant research projects for their dissertations It will also be invaluable to first year PhD students considering how they will go about their research projects The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film The Craft of Ritual Studies Ronald L. Grimes,2014 Readership Students and scholars of ritual studies religious studies anthropology Getting the Most Out of the Research Experience Brian Roberts,2007-04-06 Brian Roberts takes the researcher through the research process answering the practical and subjective questions anyone will face on issues like entering the field and emotional aspects of research types of research and associated experiences writing and research blocks and research confessions
