,1999 Resources in Education ,2001 The Hidden History of South Africa's Book and Reading Cultures Archie L.
Dick,2013-06-17 The Hidden History of South Africa s Book and Reading Cultures shows how the common practice of reading can illuminate the social and political history of a culture This ground breaking study reveals resistance strategies in the reading and writing practices of South Africans strategies that have been hidden until now for political reasons relating to the country s liberation struggles By looking to records from a slave lodge women s associations army education units universities courts libraries prison departments and political groups Archie Dick exposes the key works of fiction and non fiction magazines and newspapers that were read and discussed by political activists and prisoners Uncovering the book and library schemes that elites used to regulate reading Dick exposes incidences of intellectual fraud book theft censorship and book burning Through this innovative methodology Dick aptly shows how South African readers used reading and books to resist unjust regimes and build community across South Africa s class and racial barriers The Indigenization of Christianity in China II Qi Duan,2022-12-22 As the second volume of a three volume set on the indigenization of Christianity in modern China this book focuses on Christianity s encounter with the turbulent history of China in the 1920s the responses of the Chinese Church to criticisms and the backlash against Christianity Over the course of its growth in modern China Christianity has faced many twists and turns in attempting to embed itself in Chinese society and indigenous culture This three volume set delineates the genesis and trajectory of Christianity s indigenization in China over the course of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries highlighting the actions of Chinese Christians and the relationship between the development of Christianity in China and modern Chinese history This volume re examines the Condemning Christianity Movement and discusses debates and reflections on the independence and indigenization of the Chinese Church religious education and the relationship of Christianity with imperialism The author also demonstrates how historical events and intellectual trends during the period fashioned local believers national consciousness and their views on foreign missionary societies imperialism and patriotism figuring prominently in Chinese Christians domination of the Church The book will appeal to scholars and students interested in the history of Christianity in China and modern Chinese history Fifty Lessons in Training for Service Herbert Moninger,1916 Barnard's American journal of education ,1863 100
