effective writing Students final essays are assessed using a checklist developed by the class over the course of the unit The organization and distinctive content of the model and source texts in each unit afford teachers the flexibility to implement each unit independently of the others and at any point during the curriculum For example a unit may be implemented to assess students writing prior to implementation of the standard curriculum to scaffold writing instruction leading into a writing assessment or to support struggling writers by addressing gaps in skills as demonstrated in previous assessments The Paths Writing Units provide teachers with invaluable opportunities to engage students as active participants in their own learning at every stage of the writing process and to customize instruction to meet the varying needs of all students ABOUT PUBLIC CONSULTING GROUP Public Consulting Group works with schools districts and state education agencies to build their capacity for instructional and programmatic improvements We provide curriculum development coaching professional development and technical assistance services Our work alongside educators and policy makers ensures effective implementation of both the Common Core State Standards and state specific standards for college and career readiness As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6 12 Public Consulting Group provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning A train the trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches Reading, Writing, and Digitizing Alice Horning,2013-01-16

Reading Writing and Digitizing offers a new theoretical proposal concerning expert and novice readers and writers based on the psycholinguistics of literacy This book has five specific goals First it presents a theory of meta reading and writing that describes what literacy experts are able to do with written text They do what the word meta describes go before and after into and around beyond and beside written text to understand and create meaning Second the case studies presented reveal differences between literacy novices and experts in terms of their awarenesses about texts and their skills these are clarified as the discussion unfolds Third the book provides an analysis of the processing mechanisms people use and the features that texts contain that make literacy possible A fourth goal is to examine how experts understand and produce texts in both traditional and digital venues Finally the book ends with focused strategies for instruction that will be useful to any reader working with people engaged in literacy development Readers of this book will be better equipped to support the literacy development of others through their enhanced understanding of the psycholinguistics of reading and writing and of the differences between literacy novices and experts Argument Writing as a Supplemental Literacy Intervention for At-Risk Youth Margaret Sheehy,Donna M. Scanlon,2021-11-28 This volume details the development and initial evaluation of a supplemental literacy course intended to support at risk high school students in the US Developed using design based research DBR the course combines argument writing and knowledge building literacy routines to support academic literacy development Acknowledging the demand for US students to meet academic literacy standards that emphasize explanatory and argumentative writing the text foregrounds knowledge building as key to effective writing development Chapters trace the development and implementation of course literacy routines designed using DBR and use whole class and individual case studies to demonstrate how informational reading discussion and argument writing become an activity system to support literacy development Ultimately the text has important implications for literacy course design and the use of knowledge building analysis and DBR in research The text will benefit researchers academics and educators in higher education with an interest in academic literacy education writing and composition and secondary education more broadly Those specifically interested in methodologies relating to classroom teaching and learning as well as argumentation and argument writing will also benefit from this book
