Reading for Meaning Frank Schaffer Publications, 2000-08-11 Text-Dependent Questions, Grades K-5 Douglas Fisher, Nancy Frey, Heather Anderson, Marisol Thayre, 2014-09-02
Fisher Frey's answer to close and critical reading. Learn the best ways to use text dependent questions as scaffolds during close reading and the big understandings they yield. But that's just for starters. Fisher and Frey also include illustrative video texts and questions, cross-curricular examples, and an online facilitator's guide making the two volumes of TDQ a potent professional development tool across all of K-12. The genius of TDQ is the way Fisher and Frey break down the process into four cognitive pathways: What does the text say? How does the text work? What does the text mean? What does the text inspire you to do? Reading for Meaning Barbara M.

Taylor, Michael F. Graves, Paulus Willem van den Broek, 2000. Reading comprehension is of great concern to many Americans as evidenced by the mandate in most states today for graduation standards in reading and for assessments aligned to those standards. This book focuses on what has been learned from research about fostering reading comprehension in the middle grades, providing a broad overview of current educational and psychological research about effective strategies for teaching reading to middle grade students. Following an introduction by the editors, essays in the book are as follows: 1. The Mind in Action: What It Means to Comprehend during Reading. Paul van den Broek and Kathleen E. Kremer. 2. Comprehension Instruction in Elementary School: A Quarter Century of Research Progress. Michael Pressley. 3. Explicit and Implicit Instruction in Comprehension. Janice A. Dole. 4. Balancing Literature and Instruction: Lessons from the Book Club Project. Taffy E. Raphael. 5. Building Student Capacity to Work Productively during Peer-Assisted Reading Activities. Lynn S. Fuchs and Douglas Fuchs. 6. A Vocabulary Program to Complement and Bolster a Middle Grade Comprehension Program. Michael F. Graves. 7. Classroom Talk about Texts: Is It Dear, Cheap, or a Bargain at Any Price? Donna E. Alvermann. 8. Literacy Lessons Derived from the Instruction of Six Latina/Latino Teachers. Robert T. Jimenez. 9. Handbook of Reading Disability Research Anne McGill-Franzen, Richard Allington, 2010-09-17. Bringing together a wide range of research on reading disabilities, this comprehensive Handbook extends current discussion and thinking beyond a narrowly defined psychometric perspective. Emphasizing that learning to read proficiently is a long-term developmental process involving many interventions of various kinds, all keyed to individual developmental needs, it addresses traditional questions: What is the nature or causes of reading disabilities? How are reading disabilities assessed? How should reading disabilities be remediated? To what extent is remediation possible, but from multiple or alternative perspectives? Taking incursions into the broader research literature represented by linguistic and anthropological paradigms, as well as psychological and educational research, the volume is on the front line in exploring the relation of reading disability to learning and language, to poverty and prejudice, and to instruction and schooling. The editors and authors are distinguished scholars with extensive research experience and publication records and numerous honors and awards from professional organizations representing the range of disciplines in the field of reading disabilities Throughout their contributions are contextualized within the framework of educators struggling to develop concrete instructional practices that meet the learning needs of the lowest achieving readers

Baldwin,Jeanne Sternlicht Chall,2009-06-30 How severe is the literacy gap in our schools Why does the nine year old child from a culturally disadvantaged background so often fall victim to the fourth grade slump Although the cognitive abilities of these children at risk may be consistent with the norm their literacy development lags far behind that of other children In The Reading Crisis the renowned reading specialist Jeanne Chall and her colleagues examine the causes of this disparity and suggest some remedies Using Chall s widely applied model of reading development the authors examine the strengths and weaknesses in the reading writing and language development of children from low income families in an attempt to identify the onset of their difficulties They show how in the transition from learning the medium to understanding the message the demands on children s reading skills become significantly more complex The crucial point is fourth grade when students confront texts containing unfamiliar words and ideas that are beyond the range of their own experience According to Chall s findings the lack of specific literacy skills not cognitive factors explains the deceleration in the reading and writing development of low income children The authors outline an active role for the schools in remedying weaknesses in literacy development and give suggestions for the home and the community Their recommendations address both practical issues in instruction and the teacher student dynamic that fosters literacy development Table of Contents Preface Acknowledgments 1 Literacy and Language among Low Income Children 2 The Children Their Schools and Their Families 3 Reading Development 4 Writing Development 5 Language Development 6 Interrelations among Reading Writing and Language 7 Classroom Instruction and Literacy Environments 8 Home Influences on Literacy and Language 9 Influences on the Lower and Higher Grades 10 Where Do We Go from Here Epilogue Persistent Questions Appendix A Samples of Narrative Writing Representing Average Holistic Ratings and Production Students Handwriting Appendix B Samples of Expository Writing Representing Average Holistic Ratings and Production Students Handwriting References Index Reviews of this book An important study for wide academic and professional attention Suzanne W Wood Library Journal The Content and Measurement of the Reading Vocabulary Sister Mary Irmina, 1927 Teaching Text Features to Support Comprehension Michelle Kelley, Nicki Clausen-Grace, 2015-05-26 When K 5 students understand how to read text features like diagrams bullets insets and tables they are reading the whole page essential for deep comprehension of nonfiction and fiction text In this revised edition of Reading the Whole Page Teaching and Assessing Text Features to Meet K 5 Common Core Standards seasoned educators Michelle Kelley and Nicki Clausen Grace show you how to explicitly teach K 5 students to read text features use them to navigate text and include them in their own writing The classroom proven mini lessons activities and assessment tools in Teaching Text Features to Support Comprehension help you teach relevant Common Core State Standards and grade level expectations diagnose monitor and meet student needs with one of two level appropriate assessments evaluate knowledge with a unique picture book that can be downloaded that illustrates all the text features and monitor and guide differentiated instruction with a convenient class profile Sixty mini lessons for teaching print graphic and organizational features provide ample choices for meeting the standards while adapting to students needs Flexible lessons which follow the gradual release of responsibility model and increase in difficulty can be used within the typical 90 minute reading block during content area instruction in small groups and as part of independent practice opportunities like literacy centers Each lesson offers concept review suggestions for differentiation assessment options and technology connections requiring students to find explore manipulate and create text features in their own writing Even more activities from text feature walks to scavenger hunts help students integrate text feature knowledge as they read The downloadable materials provided online include important resources and convenient lesson supports such as interactive thinksheets that can be filled out directly on the computer visual examples of each text feature rubrics the assessment picture book and readers theatre scripts Annual Conference on Educational
