Mothers Together:

Mothers Work Michelle Napierski-Prancl, 2019-09-25 Through a series of focus group interviews and an analysis of the media and popular culture Mothers Work examines the institution of motherhood and the arenas in which mothering occurs Michelle Napierski Prancl explores shared and divergent experiences perspectives lives and challenges through the voices of experts on the topic of motherhood the mothers themselves Mothers Work analyzes how mothers feel about themselves each other and the culture that situates them against one another Gathering Together Gertrude Dyer Wilks, 2010-02-18

When Barack Obama became president Gertrude Wilks was overjoyed and filled with hope She knew it was time to tell her story because it would inspire people to become active Now is the time for community people to get poor folks involved in helping themselves she said Gertrude Wilks grew up in a sharecropping family in Louisiana She learned to be a community organizer from her strong Mother and Father When Gertrude her husband and their baby moved to California they found it not so golden either When she discovered that black children in the community were not being educated by public schools she started a school for them Its motto was Our Children Can Learn and they did Unhappy mothers Sarah

Crook, 2025-07-29 In the decades following the Second World War mothers experiences of loneliness boredom and unhappiness were increasingly widely acknowledged The language of postnatal depression came to be attached to this but mothers organised around their own discontent in ways that challenged the medical model Unhappy mothers draws attention to the social political and professional contexts within which knowledge about unhappy mothering developed Drawing upon an extensive range of archival material the book addresses themes around expertise feminism and the value given to lived experience How Mothers Love Naomi Stadlen, 2011-09-01 Mothers describe falling in love with their babies and then more slowly learning to understand them Children flourish when their mothers love and understand them For over 20 years Naomi Stadlen has listened to hundreds of mothers talking at her weekly discussion groups In How Mothers Love she offers unique insights into how mothers and babies learn to communicate intimately with one another When adults relate to one another they are building on the foundations usually laid down by their mothers How Mothers Love is a study of how mothers start to build those foundations and covers areas such as how to create emotional space for your unborn child how to maintain a close relationship with two or more children the transformation into motherhood and your role as a mother in wider society By sharing the experiences of other mothers Naomi Stadlen offers reassurance and support to all new parents as they navigate the highs and lows of the early years with their babies Parental Psychiatric Disorder Michael

Göpfert, Jeni Webster, Mary V. Seeman, 2004-05-13 A unique and innovative approach to family issues in psychiatric disorders The authors tackle a broad range of complex issues that are rarely covered in the depth or with the expertise that this volume brings This book is a major contribution to the field and provides the kind of international perspective that enhances our understanding of the complex dimensions of psychiatric disorders from a multigenerational and cross cultural perspective

From a review of the first edition by Carol Nadelson Professor of Psychiatry Harvard Medical School It is indisputable that mental illness in a parent has serious and often adverse effects on the child something which is surprisingly unreflected in clinical service provision In this completely rewritten second edition an international multidisciplinary team of professionals review the most up to date treatment interventions from a practical clinical point of view It is essential reading for all professionals dealing with adult mental illness and child care I was born Mother of Saint Laerte do
