Creating Special Effects for TV and Video is a concise and practical introduction to the techniques used in television production. Now completely updated, this third edition covers a wide range of special effects in a simple and practical form with clear illustrations and photographs that support the text. Bernard Wilkie, now a freelance consultant director and writer, spent 25 years creating special effects for BBC TV where he became manager of one of the largest and most specialised visual FX units in the world. Movie Special Effects Liz Miles, 2009-07-01 Designed to reinforce literacy skills and arts knowledge with easy to follow activities. Special Effects Michele Pierson, 2002 Moving from an exploration of 19th century popular science and magic to Hollywood science fiction cinema of our time, Pierson examines the history, advancements and connoisseurship of special effects. Movie Stunts & Special Effects Andrew Lane, 2014-11-20 Throughout film history, one of the fundamental fantasies portrayed on screen has been the kind of physical action few of us could ever experience in real life. The image of an every man engaged in hand to hand mortal combat, defending his family or even the world population against an overwhelming and malevolent force, speaks to our most primal instincts and thus became a mainstay of movie entertainment. In order to translate these deep seated fantasies to the screen, filmmakers have been developing special skills and crafts for over 100 years. It is these skills that make movie magic and have allowed audiences to take part in the primal hopes and fears we all possess. Movie Stunts Special Effects: A Comprehensive Guide to Planning and Execution is designed to inform filmmakers on how to plan for and utilize these crafts by engaging and empowering filmmakers to better communicate with stunts and effects practitioners and thereby enabling them to more fully realize their vision. Director/Producer Andrew Lane surveys fights, use of weapons, cars and vehicles, falls, the use of pyrotechnics, atmospheric effects, bullet hits, wounds and blood among many other categories. Factors such as cost, time to implement, safety accommodations and assessing the competence of those employed to plan and execute stunts and special effects are numerous and very specific. Each topic in Movie Stunts Special Effects is examined using narrative explanations and extensive interviews with world renowned experts. Various stunts and special effects are explored in the context of how they are best captured by a camera and then editorially constituted in the final product. Movie Stunts and Special Effects Geoffrey M. Horn, 2006-12-15 Describes how stunt performers, camera trickery and computer graphics are used to create illusions of reality in movies. Special Effects Rick Clise, 1987 Explains how special effects are created in films to give the illusion of people on fire, spaceships moving through space, hideous monsters and other effects. Special Effects in Motion Pictures Frank P. Clark, 1966 Movie Magic Elaine Scott, 1995-10-18 Offers an introduction to special effects in films, discussing the influence of computers and offering examples from such popular films as Forrest Gump and Jurassic Park. Special Effects Sara Green, 2019-08-01 The action of the big screen car crashes, torrential rainfall, ships sinking is the work of special effects. Directors and crews use anything they can to create a real and captivating experience. Enormous models, airplane engines, controlled fires and much more create the excitement we all crave. Young readers will marvel over this behind the scenes look at how movies are made Making Believe Lisa Bode,2017-07-07 In the past twenty years we have seen the rise of digital effects cinema in which the human performer is entangled with animation collaged with other performers or inserted into perilous or fantastic situations and scenery Making Believe sheds new light on these developments by historicizing screen performance within the context of visual and special effects cinema and technological change in Hollywood filmmaking through the silent early sound and current digital eras Making Believe incorporates North American film reviews and editorials actor and crew interviews trade and fan magazine commentary actor training manuals and film production publicity materials to discuss the shifts in screen acting practice and philosophy around transfiguring makeup doubles motion capture and acting to absent places or characters Along the way it considers how performers and visual and special effects crew work together and struggle with the industry critics and each other to define the aesthetic value of their work in an industrial system of technological reproduction Bode opens our eyes to the performing illusions we love and the tensions we experience in wanting to believe in spite of our knowledge that it is all make believe in the end

Special Effects Artists Rolf Giesen,2014-04-24 Throughout the course of film history artists have used matte painting stop motion animation model photography process cinematography in camera effects travelling mattes optical printing and physical and floor effects to entertain audiences These are the special effects artists in this book The biographical entries provide career synopses and movie credits spanning the early years of cinematography through the end of the mechanical age of filmmaking marked by Steven Spielberg s Jurassic Park and its combination of conventional effects and computer generated images An extensive filmography numerous stills a glossary a bibliography and index are presented Creating Special Effects for TV and Film Bernard Wilkie,1977
