Countervisions Darrell Y. Hamamoto, Sandra Liu, 2000

Spotlighting Asian Americans on both sides of the motion picture camera Countervisions examines the aesthetics, material circumstances, and politics of a broad spectrum of films released in the last thirty years. This anthology focuses in particular on the growing presence of Asian Americans as makers of independent films and cross-over successes. Essays of film criticism and interviews with film makers emphasize matters of cultural agency that is the practices through which Asian American actors, directors, and audience members have shaped their own cinematic images. One of the anthology's key contributions is to trace the evolution of Asian American independent film practice over thirty years. Essays on the Japanese American internment and historical memory, essays on films by women and queer artists, and the reflections of individual film makers discuss independent productions as subverting or opposing the conventions of commercial cinema. But Countervisions also resists simplistic readings of mainstream film representations of Asian Americans and enumerations of negative images. Writing about Hollywood stars Anna May Wong and Nancy Kwan, director Wayne Wang, and erotic films, several contributors probe into the complex and ambivalent responses of Asian American audiences to stereotypical roles and commercial success. Taken together, the spirited, illuminating essays in this collection offer an unprecedented examination of a flourishing cultural production.

Author note: Darrell Y. Hamamoto is Associate Professor in the Asian American Studies Program at the University of California, Davis. He is the author of Nervous Laughter: Television Situation Comedy and Liberal Democratic Ideology, Monitored Peril: Asian Americans and the Politics of Television Representation, and New American Destinies: A Reader in Contemporary Asian and Latino Immigration. Sandra Liu is a Ph.D. candidate in the Department of Ethnic Studies, University of California, Berkeley.

Eternal Flame Jennifer Otter Bickerdike, 2025-02-18

The authorized biography of the quintessential 80s pop band The Bangles, who scored massive hits with "Manic Monday," "Walk Like an Egyptian," "Hazy Shade of Winter," and more. From their first meeting in 1981, the Bangles were ambitious, focused, and intentional: their hard work and determination resulted in millions of records sold across the globe before becoming the first all-girl band to have five Top 10 hits. Not long after coming together, they toured the world, released 11 records, and collaborated with the biggest artists of the day. They seemed unstoppable until tensions within the band, artistic differences, and the pressures of sudden celebrity tore them apart. Less than a decade later, ETERNAL FLAME is the story of those eight years of a diverse and vibrant Los Angeles music scene, unfettered work ethics, and self-belief; the dawn of MTV; the unpredictable consequences of fame; life as a touring band; and their rapid rise to global domination, then imploding at the height of success. But it's also a story of the very real challenges faced by women attempting to follow their artistic dreams in a media and music industry ecosystem which seemed set up for their failure from the start. With unprecedented access to founding members Debbi Peterson, Susanna Hoffs, and Vicki

Peterson ETERNAL FLAME is the first authorized biography of this iconic group featuring exclusive stories input and interviews from the pioneering band members themselves as well as those that knew them best From playing the club circuit in 1980s LA to bunking with Sting during a PR trip to the UK to topping the Billboard charts to interludes with Prince and appearances on the definitive MTV ETERNAL FLAME traces the band s rise to superstardom taking readers behind the scenes and sharing with them never before shared anecdotes and personal ephemera As Debbi herself notes I think it s about time that our true story was told People only see certain aspects of the Bangles especially as the media has twisted the past and we have been misrepresented for a long time Plus certainly in the eighties we were women making it in a man s world I think that needs to be celebrated Dynamic daring and deliciously entertaining from start to finish ETERNAL FLAME is a tribute to one of the greatest pop bands of the 20th century and a long overdue corrective that restores The Bangles to their rightful place in music history as feminist trailblazers Movie Maker ,1985
