Protestantism accommodated itself to the modern world and Reform Judaism is at home in American society In Evangelicalism Richard Kyle explores paradoxical adjustments and transformations in the relationship between conservative Protestant Evangelicalism and contemporary American culture Evangelicals have resisted many aspects of the modern world but Kyle focuses on what he considers their romance with popular culture Kyle sees this as an Americanized Christianity rather than a Christian America but the two are so intertwined that it is difficult to discern the difference between them Instead in what has become a vicious self serving cycle Evangelicals have baptized and sanctified secular culture in order to be considered culturally relevant thus increasing their numbers and success within abundantly populous and populist driven American society In doing so Evangelicalism has become a middle class movement one that dominates America s culture and unabashedly populist Many Evangelicals view America as God s chosen nation thus sanctifying American culture consumerism and middle class values Kyle believes Evangelicals have served themselves well in consciously and deliberately adjusting their faith to popular culture Yet he also thinks Evangelicals may have compromised themselves and their future in the process so heavily borrowing from the popular culture that in many respects the Evangelical subculture has become secularism with a light gilding of Christianity If so he asks can Evangelicalism survive its own popularity and reaffirm its religious origins or will it assimilate and be absorbed into what was once known as the Great American Melting Pot of religions and cultures Will the Gospel of the American dream ultimately engulf and destroy the Gospel of Evangelical success in America This thoughtful and thought provoking volume will interest anyone concerned with the modern day success of the Evangelical movement in America and the aspirations and fate of its faithful Reclaiming Hope Michael R.

There is something about when the minstrel and the senior leader of a ministry are on the same page in heart and deed that can't be explained. It releases a level of glory that releases miracles, signs, and wonders to a house through the power of oneness through the power of divine alignment. I am so enthused for the bridging of the gap that will take place between the Levite and priest. It is definitely an apostolic movement. Apostolic work is not easy. To be the one that has to carry an assignment that deals with the sticky stuff isn't always fun. However, by the grace of God and through his love, I am optimistic about this great coming together. God is moving and preparing us for a greater glory. Courtney C Moore
