Pleasure Of Reading In An Ideological Age:

The Pleasures of Reading Robert Alter, 1996 A distinguished critic rescues literature from the ivory tower and reestablishes reading as a personal source of complex pleasure and insight Reading W. G. Sebald Deane Blackler, 2007 A daring new view of Sebald's works and the reading practice they call forth W G Sebald was born in 1944 in Germany He found his way as a young academic to England and a career as professor of German Only between the late 1980s and his untimely death in 2001 did he concentrate on nonacademic writing crafting a new kind of prose work that shares features with but remains distinct from the novel essay travel writing and memoir forms and gaining elevation to the first rank of writers internationally No less a critic than Susan Sontag was moved to ask Is literary greatness still possible implying that it was and that she had found it embodied in his writing Deane Blackler explores Sebald's biography before analyzing the reading practice his texts call forth that of a disobedient reader a proactive reader challenged to question the text by Sebald's peculiar use of poetic language the pseudoautobiographical voice of his narrators the seemingly documentary photographs he inserted into his books and by his exquisite representations of place Blackler reads Sebald's fiction as adventurous and disobedient in its formulation an imaginative revitalization of literary fiction for the third millennium Deane Blackler received her Ph D in Comparative Literature in 2005 from the University of Tasmania Reading Marginally Rutledge, 2021-09-06 This volume provides an introduction to the deconstructive criticism of Jacques Derrida discussing its relevance to feminism in general and to feminist interpretation of the Bible in particular The first part of the book provides a critical overview of current trends in feminist exegesis and proceeds with an outline of some key strategies in Derridean theory which could prove useful for feminist critical purposes The theological implications of deconstructive biblical interpretation are considered and the book's final chapter offers a reading of Genesis 2:4b-3:24 in which some of these reading strategies are put to work This study addresses a wide range of current issues in theology and biblical criticism and offers a valuable perspective on the advent of postmodernism in contemporary religion The Book Publishing Industry Albert N. Greco, Jim Milliot, Robert Wharton, 2013-07-31 The Book Publishing Industry focuses on consumer books adult juvenile and mass market paperbacks and reviews all major book categories to present a comprehensive overview of this diverse business In addition to the insights and portrayals of the U S publishing industry this book includes an appendix containing historical data on the industry from 1946 to the end of the twentieth century The selective bibliography includes the latest literature including works in marketing and economics that has a direct relationship with this dynamic industry This third edition features a chapter on e books and provides an overview of the current shift toward digital media in the US book publishing industry A Nation of Bookworms? Jiří Trávníček, 2021-04-01 Nation of Bookworms takes an in depth look at the reading culture of the Czech Republic the country with the highest number of libraries per capita worldwide Drawing on studies and oral interviews of Czech readers conducted by the National Library of the Czech Republic and the Institute of Czech

Literature between 2007 and 2018 the book presents intriguing new research on Czech readership and society Ji Tr vn ek deftly sifts through hard data and first person reportage illuminating the myriad components that make up reading culture such as print reading screen reading libraries book sales the social lives of readers time spent reading and reading preferences Tr vn ek also takes a global look at literary love exploring the parallels between the reading cultures of other countries and the Czechs unique fervor for the written word Nation of Bookworms is essential reading for bibliophiles on every continent

Paradise Farm Brenda Webster,2000-02-17 Set in 1929 before the Crash Paradise Farm probes the disintegration and rebirth of a wealthy Jewish family at a time when the New York art world was in ferment women s roles were changing the psychoanalytic movement was burgeoning and Hitler s menace was recognized only by a prescient few

The Translator's Mirror for the Romantic Fan Shengyu,2022-05-29 The Translator s Mirror for the Romantic Cao Xueqin s Dream and David Hawkes Stone is a book that uses precious primary sources to decipher a master translator s art in Stone a brilliant English translation of the most famous Chinese classic novel Dream This book demonstrates a bilingual close reading which sheds light on both the original and its translation By dividing the process of translation into reading writing and revising and involving the various aspects of Sinological research textual criticism recreation and literary allusions this book ventures to emphasise the idea of translation as a dialogue between the original and the translated text between the translator and his former self and a learning process both for the translator and the reader of his translation Any student of Chinese language and literature or Chinese English translation will benefit from this book for students and scholars who want to study David Hawkes and his Stone this book is an indispensable aid Readers will be interested to see how a non theoretical analysis could be used to evaluate this translation for it makes an extremely important and useful contribution to this subject

The Blood-Marriage of Earth and Sky: Robert Penn Warren's Later Novels Leonard Casper,1997 Edinburgh Dictionary of Modernism Vassiliki Kolocotroni,2017-12-20 This book examines how the productive interplay between nineteenth century literary and visual media paralleled the emergence of a modern psychological understanding of the ways in which reading viewing and dreaming generate moving images in the mind

The Exegesis of the Pentateuch Jean Louis Ska,2009 The studies collected in this book represent landmarks in the vast exegetical landscape of the Pentateuch In the first series of these studies Jean Louis Ska examines key texts from different perspectives and draws a map to show the way These texts are mainly the story of the flood Gen 6 9 the call of Abraham Gen 12 1 4 God s covenant with Abraham Gen 15 the Lord s apparition to Abraham in Mamre Gen 18 the sacrifice of Isaac Gen 22 the introduction to the Sinai covenant Exod 19 3 6 and the meal and the vision on the mountain Exod 24 9 11 Different methods are used according to the text or the topic treated literary criticism redaction criticism inner biblical exegesis and narrative analysis In the second part the author grapples with some basic issues in recent debates about exegetical methods the function of the narrator the validity of resorting to the category of redactor the nature and purpose of the biblical law collections and the legitimacy of a critical reading of the Old Testament The Pentateuch is a cantata with many voices and faithfulness to its nature means that the exegete has to use all the instruments at his or her disposal to make this old music be heard once again

The Future of English in Asia Michael O'Sullivan, David Huddart, Carmen Lee, 2015-10-05 This collection is unique in bringing together key thinkers on language and literature to discuss the future of English in Asia Many of the contributors are themselves responsible for important sub genres in English linguistics and literary studies and this collection gives them the opportunity to respond to each other directly The different chapters also respond to different contemporary debates and emerging trends and discourses that are hugely important for the future of English language teaching in schools across Asia This volume is also ground breaking in bringing English literary studies and Applied English Linguistics together in the contemporary Asian context The Future of English in Asia includes studies on the following subject areas Cultural Translation in World Englishes Multilingual Education English Futures and the function of Literature English Literary Studies in Japan and English and Social Media in Asia Well into this century it appears that it is still very difficult to know what to expect when it comes to the future of English The future of English will continue to be determined by complex local contexts As it has in other parts of the world the future of English in Asia will continue to rely on the proliferation of its transformations as much as its hegemonic status This volume reflects the widespread acknowledgement that whatever future English has will inevitably be shaped by its fate in Asia The collection will be a welcome resource for scholars and students of English linguistics English literary studies and topics related to the teaching of English in Asia

Fault Lines of Modernity Kitty Millet, Dorothy Figueira, 2018-09-20 This state of the art collection offers fresh perspectives on why intersections between literature religion and ethics can address the fault lines of modernity and are not necessarily the cause of modernity's faults From a diverse cohort of scholars from around the world with appointments in comparative literature and other disciplines the essays suggest that the imagined hegemony of a Judeo Christian Western project is neither exclusively true nor productive However the essays also suggest that elements of the Western religious traditions are important vectors for understanding modernity's complicated relationship to the past

The Desert Will Bloom A. Joseph Everson, Hyun Chul Paul Kim, 2009 Isaiah's vision of the future is nothing less than a portrait of shalom involving peace wholeness and hope both for the human community and the earth Throughout the scroll imagery drawn from nature affirms that renewal of life like the renewal of the earth is possible for the human family The essays in this volume explore the poetic artistry and symbolic imagery in the Isaiah scroll They examine specific texts interpreting important language and imagery in those texts delineating the functions and implications of such imagery and metaphors throughout the entire book of Isaiah and presenting fresh methodological and interpretive considerations in reading Isaiah Page 4 of cover

Dramatic Closure June Schlueter, 1995 Examples of plays from Oedipus to the present appear throughout the book and individual chapters are dedicated to sustained discussions of William Shakespeare's King Lear Tom Stoppard's

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead Arthur Miller's The Ride Down Mount Morgan and Tennessee Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire The author emphasizes Shakespeare and especially modern drama in the belief that these plays provide salient models of the theoretical principles of reading toward closure

Ghosts and the Overplus Christina Pugh, 2024-03-19 Ghosts and the Overplus is a celebration of lyric poetry in the twenty first century and how lyric poetry incorporates the voices of our age as well as the poetic ghosts from the past Acclaimed poet and award winning teacher Christina Pugh is fascinated by how poems continually look backward into literary history Her essays find new resonance in poets ranging from Emily Dickinson to Gwendolyn Brooks to the poetry of the present Some of these essays also consider the way that poetry interacts with the visual arts dance and the decision to live life as a nonconformist This wide ranging collection showcases the critical discussions around poetry that took place in America over the first two decades of our current millennium Essay topics include poetic forms continually in migration such as the sonnet poetic borrowings across visual art and dance and the idiosyncrasies of poets who lived their lives against the grain of literary celebrity and trend What unites all of these essays is a drive to dig more deeply into the poetic word and act to go beyond surface reading in order to reside longer with poems In essays both discursive and personal Pugh shows that poetry asks us to think differently in a way that gathers feeling into the realm of thought thereby opening the mysteries that reside in us and in the world around us

The Only Super Power Paul Hollander, 2008-12-16 In The Only Superpower Reflections on Strength Weakness and Anti Americanism Paul Hollander examines anti Americanism including the relationship between the foreign and domestic varieties American culture especially mass culture the lingering political and cultural influences of the 1960s and the controversial relationship between the realms of the personal and the political He also revisits the part played by hatred and especially the scapegoating impulse in social and political conflicts The essays range widely from Michael Moore's political celebrity the American love for SUVs and getting old in America to Islamic fanaticism and the aftermath of the fall of Eastern European communist systems

Feminist Companion to John Amy-Jill Levine, Marianne Blickenstaff, 2003-01-01 V 2 studies includes some that seek to locate the cumulative effect of all the stories concerning women these lead to general suggestions concerning both the evangelist's view of gender and the role of women in the Johannine community Also Christological language and theological categories in search for an alternative to the androcentrism and exclusivity theologians typically associate with the Fourth Gospel Highlights of specific scenes e.g. crucifixion appearance to Mary Magdalene to interrogate the function of feminine imagery the implications of particularly troublesome verses the cultural appropriations of the narratives from back cover

The Creation of History in Ancient Israel Marc Zvi Brettler, 2002-11-01 The Creation of History in Ancient Israel demonstrates how the historian can start to piece together the history of ancient Israel using the Hebrew Bible as a source

The Ethnography of Reading Jonathan Boyarin, 2023-09-01 Writing the subject of much innovative scholarship in recent years is only half of what we call literacy The other half reading now finally receives its due in these groundbreaking essays by a distinguished group of anthropologists and literary scholars. The essays move well beyond the simple rubric of literacy in its traditional sense of evolutionary advancement from oral to written communication. Some investigate reading in exotically cross cultural contexts. Some analyze the long historical transformation of reading in the West from a collective oral practice to the private silent one it is today while others demonstrate that in certain Western contexts reading is still very much a social activity. The reading situations described here range from Anglo Saxon England to contemporary Indonesia from ancient Israel to a Kashaya Pomo Indian reservation. Filled with insights that erase the line between orality and textuality this collection will attract a broad readership in anthropology literature history and philosophy as well as in religious gender and cultural studies. Writing the subject of much innovative scholarship in recent years is only half of what we call literacy. The other half reading now finally receives its due in these groundbreaking essays by a distinguished group of anthropologists and literary scholars.

The Regenerate Lyric Elisa New, 1993-05-28 Elisa New examines the poems in great detail offering searching readings and concluding finally that it is regeneracy rather than originality that is the American poet's modus operandi and native mandate.
