Literature and the Glocal City Ana María Fraile-Marcos, 2014-07-17 The modern city is a space that can simultaneously represent the principles of its homeland alongside its own unique blend of the cultures that intermingle within its city limits This book makes an intervention in Canadian literary criticism by foregrounding both globalism which is increasingly perceived as the state of the art literary paradigm and the city These are two significant axes of contemporary culture and identity that were previously disregarded by a critical tradition built around the importance of space and place in Canadian writing Yet as relevant as the turn to the city and to globalism may be this collection s most notable contribution lies in linking the notion of glocality that is the intermeshing of local and global forces to representations of subjectivity in the material and figurative space of the Canadian city Dealing with oppositional discourses as multiculturalism postcolonialism feminism diaspora and environmentalism this book is an essential reference for any scholar with an interest in these areas Canadian Books in Print.
