International Relations theory in Russian foreign policy studies Wiebke E. Kircheisen, 2008 Role Theory and Russian Foreign Policy Damian Strycharz, 2022-04-27 Despite the increased interest in Russia and its international behaviour current analyses leave much unexplained Damian Strycharz fills this gap in the literature by analysing leaders perceptions and the interactions between internal and external factors shaping foreign policy decisions Challenging existing interpretations of Russian foreign policy and advancing our understanding on how role dynamics occur in non democracies Strycharz examines Russia s reactions to the 2003 4 colour revolutions in Georgia and Ukraine the Five Day War in Georgia and the Euromaidan Revolution He argues that divergent reactions to these upheavals result from a profound change in the leadership perceptions of Russia s international responsibilities Consequently a shift in the understanding of Russia s international duties and departure from the Western partner role resulted in more assertive foreign policy behaviour exemplified by the intervention in Georgia and the annexation of Crimea The book demonstrates that processes of foreign policy formation in Russia are more complex and include more actors than commonly assumed Role Theory and Russian Foreign Policy is an ideal resource for scholars and researchers of international relations foreign policy and post Soviet politics

Power, Energy, and the New Russian Imperialism Anita Orban, 2008-09-30 Russia is the world's foremost energy superpower rivaling Saudi Arabia as the world's largest oil producer and accounting for a quarter of the world's exports of natural gas Russia's energy reserves account for half of the world's probable oil reserves and a third of the world's proven natural gas reserves Whereas military might and nuclear weapons formed the core of Soviet cold war power since 1991 the Russian state has viewed its monopolistic control of Russia's energy resources as the core of its power now and for the future Since 2005 the international news has been filled with Russia's repeated demonstrations of its

readiness to use price transit fees and supply of gas and oil exports as punitive policy instruments against recalcitrant states that were formerly part of the Soviet Union striking in turn the Ukraine Georgia Azerbaijan Armenia Belarus and Lithuania Orban reveals for the first time in Power Energy and the New Russian Imperialism Russia's readiness to wield the same energy weapon against her neighbors on the west all of them former Soviet satellite states but now EU and NATO member nations the three Baltic nations and the five East European nations of Poland Slovakia Hungary the Czech Republic and Slovenia Orban shows how the Kremlin since 1991 has systematically used Russian energy companies as players in a concerted neo mercantilist energy based foreign policy designed to further Russia's neo imperial ambitions among America's key allies in Central East Europe Her unprecedented analysis is key to predicting Russia's strategic response to American negotiations with Poland and the Czech Republic to host the US missile shield She also reveals the economic and diplomatic modus operandi by which Russia will increasingly apply its energy clout to shape and coerce the foreign policies of the West European members of the EU as Russia's contribution to EU gas consumption increases from a quarter today to three quarters by 2020 Orban proves that Russia's neo mercantilist energy strategy in East Europe is not at all dependent on the person of Putin but began under Yeltsin and continues under Medvedev the former chairman of Gazprom
