Petr Alekseevich Kropotkin (kniꞑaꞑz'), 1991 Introduction by George Woodcock In this work Peter Kropotkin is propounding the thesis that in Russia literature occupies a unique position because it is the only way of reflecting the real currents of intellectual development and of underground political opinion The consequence he feels has been that the best minds of the country have chosen the poem the novel the satire or literary criticism as the medium for expressing their aspirations their conceptions of national life and their ideals Concentrating on content rather than on form on intention rather than achievement Russian Literature provides a fair and comprehensive introduction to Russian writing up to the end of the nineteenth century Almost every poet and prose writer of any significance is discussed Pushkin Lermontoff Gogol Turgueneff Tolstoy Dostoyevsky and every class of literature is included criticism as well as novels and political writings as
