Russian Philosophy: Pre-Revolutionary Philosophy and Theology Philosophers in Exile Marxists and Communists; Volume III ,1965 Russian Philosophy James M. Edie,Mary-Barbara Zeldin,1965 Russian Religious Thought Judith Deutsch Kornblatt,Richard F. Gustafson,1996 Contains 11 essays on four seminal thinkers from the modern Russian tradition Vladimir Soloviev 1853 1900 Pavel Florensky 1882 1937 Sergei Bulgakov 1871 1944 and Semen Frank 1877 1950 Despite their various approaches they all share the predominant dual focus of most Russian religious thought on the doctrines of Incarnation and Deification and the attendant stress on moral and social issues the philosophy of history and the relation of religion and culture Paper edition unseen 21 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Pre-revolutionary Philosophy and Theology James M. Edie,George L. Kline,James P. Scanlan,Mary-Barbara Zeldin,1969 Russian philosophy. Vol. III James M. Edie, Russian Philosophy, Volume 1 James M. Edie,2025-03-14 Russian philosophy begins through the impregnation of the ancient Byzantine tradition of Old Russia by the Western thought of the French Enlightenment and then by German Romanticism The first original Russian philosopher Gregory Skovoroda the Russian Socrates was followed by the early philosophy of history and culture Alexander Radishchev and Peter Chasadayev The fateful break of Russian philosophers into two opposed camps of the Slavophiles was accomplished by the middle of the nineteenth century Pre-revolutionary Philosophy and Theology, Philosophers in Exile, Marxists and Communists James M. Edie,1976 Russian Philosophy, Volume 2 James M. Edie,2025-03-14 The second half of the nineteenth century in Russian philosophy sees it more or less definitive triumph of Westernizing currents over the Slavophiles There is no doubt that both Nihilism and Populism as successive schools of Russian philosophy are the authentic progeny of the senior Westernizers though in the development of their philosophical doctrine they owe much less to German Romanticism than to British utilitarianism French positivism and the socialism of left wing Hegelians Toward the end of the century these philosopher come increasingly under the influence of the scientific socialism of Karl Marx Dostoevsky P. H. Brazier,2016-06-02 As a writer and prophet Dostoevsky was no academic theologian yet his writings are deeply theological his life beliefs even his epilepsy all had a role in generating his theology and eschatology Dostoevsky s novels are riven with paradoxes are deeply dialectical and represent a criticism of religion offered in the service of the gospel In this task he presented a profound understanding and portrait of humanity Dostoevsky s novels chart the movement of the human into death either the movement through paradox and Christlikeness into Christ s cross a soteriology often characterized by the apophatic negation and self denial what we may term the Mark of Abel leading to salvation and resurrection or conversely the movement of those who refuse Christ s invitation to be redeemed and continue to fall into a self willed death and a self generated hell the Mark of Cain This eschatology becomes a theological axiom which he unceasingly warned people of in his mature works Startlingly original stripped of all religious pretence some prostitutes and criminals might just have a better understanding of salvation than some of the pietistic wealthy and cultured classes Dostoevsky as a prophet forewarned of the politicized humanistic delusions of the twentieth century a prophet crying out through the wilderness

World Communism, 1964-1969, a Selected Bibliography United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1971 Approaching the World's Religions, Volume 1 Robert Boyd, 2017-05-04 Philosophically Thinking about World Religions is different from other works in the discipline today It deviates from the typical approaches used for the study of world religions Its goal is to engage readers in thinking hard about world religions not about the data surrounding those traditions By focusing on philosophical questions each reader should be challenged to do their own investigations that may reveal the heart of these traditions Another stance that this project takes that distinguishes it from other texts in the discipline is that it advocates an inclusivist perspective regarding the world religions Pluralism which is the predominate assumption today ends either in contradiction or in the development of a metatheory that dismisses crucial distinctions between the various traditions or eliminates some ancient religions because they do not fit the metatheory By taking an open inclusivist approach all religious traditions may engage at the table of dialogue The final essay is about justice and social affairs While that discussion is couched within the context of a particular tradition each religious tradition must have the discussion But it must be more than an intrareligious dialogue it must become an interreligious dialogue Bogdanov and His Work John Biggart, Georgii Gloveli, 2017-07-05 Alexander Bogdanov was a co founder with Lenin of the Bolshevik faction of the Russian Social Democratic Party in 1904 His ideas on the sociology of culture led to the founding of the Proletkult in 1917 and during the 1920s these ideas were taken up adapted and often distorted in the course of the Cultural Revolution Bogdanov s textbooks in sociology and economics were widely used during the 1920s This bibliography of Bogdanov s works takes advantage of the opening of the Party and State archives and provides references to the principal relevant archives in Europe and the United States Its publication is a landmark in the history of Bolshevism and in the history of Russian social thought Russian Philosophy: The Nihilists. The Populists. Critics of religion and culture James M. Edie, James Patrick Scanlan, Mary-Barbara Zeldin, 1965 The Family Novel in Russia and England, 1800-1880 Anna A. Berman, 2022 An in depth comparative analysis of the family novel as it developed as a genre in Russia and England during the course of the nineteenth century Harmony and Dissent R. Bruce Elder, 2010-04-22 R Bruce Elder argues that the authors of many of the manifestoes that announced in such lively ways the appearance of yet another artistic movement shared a common aspiration they proposed to reformulate the visual literary and performing arts so that they might take on attributes of the cinema The cinema Elder argues became in the early decades of the twentieth century a pivotal artistic force around which a remarkable variety and number of aesthetic forms took shape To demonstrate this Elder begins with a wide ranging discussion that opens up some broad topics concerning modernity's cognitive and perceptual regime with a view to establishing that a crisis within that regime engendered some peculiar and highly questionable epistemological beliefs and enthusiasms. Through this discussion Elder advances the startling claim that a crisis of cognition precipitated by modernity engendered by way of response a peculiar sort of pneumatic spiritual epistemology. Elder then shows that early ideas of the cinema were strongly influenced by this pneumatic epistemology and uses this conception of the cinema to explain its pivotal role in shaping two key moments in early twentieth century art: the quest to bring forth a pure objectless non-representational art and Russian Suprematism, Constructivism and Productivism.
