Rusted Dreams Hard Times In A Steel Community:

Rusted Dreams David Bensman, Roberta Lynch, 1987 The larger consequences of the sharp decline of the American steel industry in the late 1970s and the 1980s are epitomized in the experience of a South Chicago neighborhood where two large steel mills shut down mass unemployment and hardship family tensions deterioration of community institutions decay of local businesses and helplessness of business political and union leaders when confronted by the larger economic and political forces that had engulfed the industry Bensman and Lynch believe that only a comprehensive strategy encompassing permanent import restrictions industry modernization and measures to widen the market for steel will save the industry and its workers This is a perceptive and sympathetic account Steel and Steelworkers John Hinshaw, 2012-02-01 Steel and Steelworkers is a fascinating account of the forces that shaped Pittsburgh big business and labor through the city's rapid industrialization in the mid nineteenth century its lengthy era of industrial maturity its precipitous deindustrialization toward the end of the twentieth century and its reinvention from hell with the lid off to America's most livable post industrial city Hinshaw examined a wide variety of company union and government documents oral histories and newspapers to reconstruct the steel industry and the efforts of labor business and government to refashion it A compelling report of industrialization and deindustrialization in which questions of organization power and politics prove as important as economics Steel and Steelworkers shows the ways in which big business and labor helped determine the fate of steel and Pittsburgh City of Big Shoulders Robert G.
