K. Irwin Michèle Rackham Hall, 2016-11-29 At an early age P K Page Irwin displayed an aptitude for illustration and even her juvenalia indicated a sharp painterly eye But it wasn't until she visited Brazil in the 1950s as wife of the Canadian ambassador that she began to hone her artistic practice Under her married name P K Irwin she produced a wide array of paintings drawings and other artworks experimenting with media and styles as she sought to develop her own visual aesthetic and to reconcile her celebrated poetic identity with her more private painterly one In The Art of P K Irwin Michèle Rackham Hall investigates the artist's creative development and examines the exotic locales and the wealth of accomplished peers who helped shape Irwin's artistic output With rich biographical detail and extensive reference to Irwin's lyrical life writing The Art of P K Irwin takes readers along on the artist's journey toward her own aesthetic one in which place was her most potent muse and exile her most fertile state The Art of Avaz and Mohammad Reza Shajarian Rob Simms, Amir Koushkani, 2012-01-20 The Art of Avaz and Mohammad Reza Shajarian Foundations and Contexts by Rob Simms and Amir Koushkani examines the traditional art of singing classical Persian poetry as represented by its greatest living exponent This in depth study surveys the social and historical context of the twentieth century tradition of avaz while placing Shajarian's early career within this complex culture from being a child prodigy of Quran recitation in Mashhad to his rise to national prominence in the 1970s As a globetrotting celebrity who is renowned for singing medieval poetry with impeccable technique and radiant inspiration Shajarian's life and work provide a compelling case study for larger issues of reconciling tradition and modernity and the crucial role of the individual in maintaining and renovating traditional art forms Avaz is discussed in the broader context of Iranian narrative performance traditions where the performer retells well known scripts in a way that is appropriate to the audience and the present occasion spinning the tale to convey a personal message Shajarian's career also exemplifies the huge changes that Iranian musical culture underwent in the 1960s and 70s Finally the study includes a detailed examination of the materials and creative processes of Shajarian's artistic craft including his acquisition process and training vocal technique selection and treatment of poetry use of traditional musical materials and his balance of engaging preset materials with improvisation The Art of Avaz and Mohammad Reza Shajarian is an impressively detailed study of the music life and environment of the most influential musician in Iranian classical music of the past three decades

Global Indian Diaspora Brinsley Samaroo, Primnath Gooptar, Kumar Mahabir, 2021-11-22 Indian Diaspora World Convention was held in Trinidad in 2017 to commemorate the 1917 decision of the Indian Legislature to end further recruitment of Indians for overseas indentured service This part is volume I of the two volume work Global Indian Diaspora It is a significant addition to current research on India's cultural expansion into the Atlantic and Pacific worlds In this volume the former indentured Empire speaks back giving its side of the narrative not in an apologetic accounting but rather on the positive side in diverse ways The Girmitiyas lit agreement signers maintained their core values using these to gain anchorage in the new places At the same time they prudently took advantage of agencies such as the Canadian Mission to gain admission to the wider westernized community They maintained ties with India through frequent visits of Indian scholars and missionaries They equally preserved their cultural observances derived from Indian antiquity adding diversity to the colonial society All of these elements combine to give a refreshing perspective on the globalization of the world which started long before all the time Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Topkapi Scroll Gülru Necipoğlu, 1996-03-01 Since precious few architectural drawings and no theoretical treatises on architecture remain from the premodern Islamic world the Timurid pattern scroll in the collection of the Topkapi Palace Museum Library is an exceedingly rich and valuable source of information In the course of her in depth analysis of this scroll dating from the late fifteenth or early sixteenth century G lru Necipo lu throws new light on the conceptualization recording and transmission of architectural design in the Islamic world between the tenth and sixteenth centuries Her text has particularly far reaching implications for recent discussions on vision subjectivity and the semiotics of abstract representation She also compares the Islamic understanding of geometry with that found in medieval Western art making this book particularly valuable for all historians and critics of architecture The scroll with its 114 individual geometric patterns for wall surfaces and vaulting is reproduced entirely in color in this elegant large format volume An extensive catalogue includes illustrations showing the underlying geometries in the form of incised dead drawings from which the individual patterns are generated An essay by Mohammad al Asad discusses the geometry of the muqarnas and demonstrates by means of CAD drawings how one of the scroll s patterns could be used to design a three dimensional vault The Pagan Dream of the Renaissance Joscelyn Godwin, 2005-02-10 The Pagan Dream of the Renaissance recounts the almost untold story of how the rediscovery of the pagan mythological imagination during the Renaissance brought a profound transformation to European culture This highly illustrated book available for the first time in paperback shows that the pagan imagination existed side by side often uneasily with the official symbols doctrines and art of the Church Godwin carefully documents how pagan themes and gods enhanced both public and private life Palaces and villas were decorated with mythological images stories music and dramatic pageants were written about pagan themes and landscapes were designed to transform the soul This was a time of great social and cultural change when the pagan idea represented nostalgia for a classical world untroubled by the idea of sin and in no need of redemption A stunning book with hundreds of photos that bring alive this period with all its rich conflict between Christianity and classicism Aisha's Cushion Jamal J. Elias, 2012-11-15 Westerners have a strong impression that Islam does not allow religious imagery Elias corrects this view Unearthing shades of meaning in Islamic thought throughout history he argues that Islamic perspectives on representation and perception should be sought in diverse areas such as optics alchemy dreaming vehicle decoration Sufi metaphysics Faith in the Millennium Stanley E. Porter, Michael A. Hayes, David Tombs, 2001-02-01 At the close of one millennium and the beginning of a new one this conference volume reflects on the past and looks forward to a new era in terms of the development of faith Although most of the papers in the volume address issues concerning Christian faith the volume is not confined to such a perspective since the concept of faith is treated here in an encompassing and broad manner The historical perspective reaches back several millennia addresses contemporary issues of economics and justice as they have a bearing on faith and looks to the future as a new millennium presents its own problems and potential opportunities

The Evolution of Indian Stupa Architecture in East Asia Eric Stratton, 2002 Contents I Introduction II Symbolic analysis of religious architecture III Indianization in Southeast Asia lineage one 1 Religious foundations 2 Architecture 3 Java 4 Cambodia 5 Champa IV Burma lineage two 1 Thai Era 2 The lineages of stupa forms V The philosophical Indianization of Northeast Asia the third lineage 1 China 2 Korea 3 Japan 4 Tibet 5 Mongolia 6 The Tibetan stupa Bibliography This work seeks to explore the development of East Asian architecture based upon its borrowings from the Indian stupa While most scholars agree that some features of East Asian religious architecture have been strongly influenced by the symbolic architecture of the stupa this study specifically seeks to identify three distinct architectural lineages originating from India to East Asia These lineages were inspired by the work of Liang Ssu Ch'eng who first identified several families of pagoda structures in Mainland China in the early part of the 20 century However here we extend our search to all the nations that have employed the stupa architecture outside India and Nepal These other lineages have been identified through careful analysis in archaeological anthropological historical and religious studies The first of these lineages extends through Indo China and Indonesia The second lineage is mainly found extending through Burma Both lineages one and two meet together in later Thai architecture The third lineage extends across Central Asia to the shores and nations of Far East Asia such as Japan Korea and China As all the lineages are demonstrated to be imbued and propagated by the scared and ancient symbolism of India each chapter examines the history of Indian thought as it was introduced into a region and then discusses the features of the most well known structures of that region jacket Legacy of the Luoshu
