Sacred Interconnections Postmodern Spirituality Political Economy And Art:

Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-01-01 This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism religion politics economics and art It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive cynical even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles

The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology

Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without American Spiritualities Catherine L. Albanese, 2001-04-22 This reader explores current interest in spirituality in the United States It traces the concept and presence of spirituality in the nation's past and explains the strong attraction to spiritual themes in the present with attention to questions of definition, historical usage and connection to religion. Twenty-seven selections pursue the difference and diversity among Americans in terms of their spiritual styles here understood as modes of experiential knowledge. Catherine L. Albanese has organized these selections to reflect four approaches to spirituality: knowing through the body or ritual-based spiritualities; knowing through the heart or evangelical and emotionally toned spiritualities; knowing through the will or prophetic and social action spiritualities; and knowing through the mind or metaphysically oriented spiritualities. Taken together, these essays make the argument that the spiritual is human-made, essentially religious, and surely not the same at all American times and places. The anthology includes selections by Catherine L. Albanese, Janet and Robert Aldridge, Daniel Berrigan, Joseph Epes Brown, Charles W. Colson, Annie Dillard, Virgilio Elizondo, Tamar Frankel, Emma Goldman, Charles E. Hambrick Stowe, B. K. S. Iyengar, Curtis D. Johnson, Martin Luther King Jr., Chen Kung Jerena, Lee Shirley MacLaine, Aimee Semple McPherson, Thomas Merton, Carry A. Nation, E. Burke Rochford Jr., Jerry Rubin, Molly Rush, Starhawk, Henry David Thoreau, Ralph Waldo Trine, Joachim Wach, B. Alan Wallace, Steven Wilhelm, and Dhyani Ywahoo. Catherine L. Albanese is Professor of Religious Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara. She is the author of the widely used textbook American Religions and Religion, now in its third edition, and of numerous other articles and books, including Nature Religion in America: From the Algonkian Indians to the New Age. Albanese is a former president of the American Academy of Religion. 552 pages, 6 1/8 x 9 1/4, bibl. index, cloth $253.33, ISBN 0 565 00150 0, paper $253.21, ISBN 0 253 21432 7, 27 50 s 21 00.

Cultural Rights and Justice John Clammer, 2018-12-11. This book provides an innovative contribution to the emerging field of culture and development through the lens of cultural rights, arguing in favour of a fruitful dialogue between human rights, development studies, critical cultural studies, and concerns about the protection and preservation of cultural diversity. It breaks with established approaches by introducing the themes of aesthetics, embodiment, narrative, and peace studies into the field of culture and development, and in doing so proposes both an expanded conception of cultural rights and a holistic vision of development that not only includes these elements in a central way but which argues that genuine sustainability must include the cultural dimension, including the notion of cultural justice as recognition, protection, and respect extended to the many expressions of human imagination in this world.

Vision and Society John Clammer, 2014-03-26. The sociology of art is now an established sub-discipline of sociology. But little work has been done to explore the implications not of society on art but of art on the nature and principles of sociology itself. Vision and Society explores the ways in which art here, mainly understood as visual art, structures in fundamental ways the constitution of society the relations between societies and the ways in which society and culture should be theorized Building initially on an unfulfilled project by the French sociologist of art Nathalie Heinich to derive a sociology from art this book pushes this idea in unconventional directions Rethinking the relationships between the study of art and the study of sociology and anthropology this book explores how this rethinking might impact sociological theory in general and certain aspects of it in particular especially the study of social movements social change the urban the constitution of space and the ways in which human social relationships are mediated and expressed

United States Foreign Policy and the Prospects for Peace Education Carl Mirra, 2008-03-31 In light of the United States age of terrorism and the controversial involvement in the war in Iraq U S policies toward diplomatic peace education are coming under increasing scrutiny This book evaluates the prospects for effective U S peace education in the context of post 1945 U S foreign policy The work first documents the disparity between U S pronouncements about protecting human rights and the country's systematic erosion of those rights in the international arena Second it evaluates the challenges that the war on terrorism poses for peace education and explores the importance of international treaties in upholding security A final section explores new ways of thinking and relating that are ultimately necessary for the realization of nonviolent peacekeeping efforts Designed as a resource text for U S educators the text offers concrete proposals for addressing contentious foreign policy issues in the classroom and includes an appendix of primary documents and sample questions for easy use

Spiritual Titanism Nicholas F. Gier, 2012-03-27 This work in comparative philosophy uses the concept of Titanism to critique certain trends in both Eastern and Western philosophy Titanism is an extreme form of humanism in which human beings take on divine attributes and prerogatives The author finds the most explicit forms of spiritual Titanism in the Jaina Samkhya and Yoga traditions where yogis claim powers and knowledge that in the West are only attributed to God These philosophies are also radically dualistic and liberation involves a complete transcendence of the body society and nature Five types of spiritual Titanism are identified and in addition to this typology a heuristic based on Nietzsche's three metamorphoses of camel lion and child is offered The book determines that answers to spiritual Titanism begin not only with the Hindu Goddess religion but also are found in Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism especially Zen Buddhism and Confucianism

Diffraction Reading Kai

Merten,2021-05-27 Putting the New Materialist figure of diffraction to use in a set of readings in which cultural texts are materially read against their contents and their themes against their readers or against other texts this volume proposes a critical intervention into the practice of reading itself In this book reading and reading methodology are probed for their materiality and re considered as being inevitably suspended between or diffracted with both matter and discourse The history of literary and cultural reading including poststructuralism and critical theory is revisited in a new light and opened up for a future in which the world and reading are no longer regarded as conveniently separate spheres but recognized as deeply entangled and intertwined Diffraction Reading ultimately represents a new reading of reading itself firstly by critiquing the distanced perspective of critical paradigms such as translation and intertextuality in which texts encountered processed or otherwise subdued secondly showing how all literary and cultural readings represent different agential cuts in the world text reader constellation which is always both discursive and material and thirdly the volume materializes dynamizes and politicizes the activity of reading by drawing attention to reading s intervention in and co creation of the world in which we live Transformational Politics Stephen Brim Woolpert,Christa Daryl Slaton,Edward W.
