Radical Ecopsychology, Second Edition Andy Fisher,2013-01-01 Expanded new edition of a classic examination of the psychological roots of our ecological crisis      Small Cities, Big Issues Christopher Walmsley,Terry Kading,2018-07-20 Small Canadian cities confront serious social issues as a result of the neoliberal economic restructuring practiced by both federal and provincial governments since the 1980s Drastic spending reductions and ongoing restraint in social assistance income supports and the provision of affordable housing combined with the offloading of social responsibilities onto municipalities has contributed to the generalization of social issues once chiefly associated with Canada s largest urban centres As the investigations in this volume illustrate while some communities responded to these issues with inclusionary and progressive actions others were more exclusionary and reactive revealing forms of discrimination exclusion and othering in the implementation of practices and policies Importantly however their investigations reveal a broad range of responses to the social issues they face No matter the process and results of the proposed solutions what the contributors uncovered were distinctive attributes of the small city as it struggles to confront increasingly complex social issues If local governments accept a social agenda as part of its responsibilities the contributors to Small Cities Big Issues believe that small cities can succeed in reconceiving community based on the ideals of acceptance accommodation and inclusion      Peacemaking Circles Kay Pranis,Barry Stuart,Mark Wedge,2013      Walking This Path Together, 3rd Edition Gwendolyn Gosek,2025-04-29T00:00:00Z Canadian child welfare policies and practices have been central to maintaining a settler colonial nation by controlling and managing the childhoods and future lives of children While ostensibly grounded in the best interests of the child child welfare policies and practices far too often make the lives of young people more precarious because they are stratified along race and class lines rather than caring for their wellbeing There have been dire consequences for Indigenous communities but also for Black newcomer non citizen and poor people who are also disproportionately the primary focus of child welfare The contributors to this book reveal these unjust conditions so that workers can contribute to the ongoing transformation of child welfare to facilitate child wellbeing The third edition of Walking This Path Together continues the transformative vision of the first two editions and charts a new way forward There are several new chapters and authors who focus on M tis kinship protocols family group conferencing decolonizing child welfare and the criminalization of newcomers refugee children and Indigenous youth in care They demonstrate how to bring forward transformative practices to moving child welfare into a truly new decolonial era This transformative vision is the path that we are walking      One-Minute Mindfulness Donald Altman,2011 The next 60 seconds can change your life for

Restorative justice as it exists in Canada and the U S has been co opted and relegated to the sidelines of the dominant criminal justice system In Security With Care Elizabeth M Elliott argues that restorative justice cannot be actualized solely within the criminal justice system If it isn't who we are says Elliott then the policies will never be sustainable Restorative justice must be more than a program within the current system it must be a new paradigm for responding to harm and conflict Facilitating this shift requires a rethinking of the assumptions around punishment and justice placing emphasis instead on values and relationships But if we can achieve this change we have the potential to build a healthier more ethical and more democratic society      From Trauma to Resiliency Shulamit Natan Ritblatt,Audrey Hokoda,2022-09-28 From Trauma to Resiliency integrates research and practice of trauma informed care reviewing the neuroscience of trauma and highlighting relationship based interventions for diverse populations that have faced multiple traumas Chapters explore the experiences of oppressed groups that include survivors of abuse war poverty Indigenous youth Middle Eastern refugee mothers individuals who identify as sexual and or gender minorities SGM and children and youth involved in child welfare foster care and juvenile justice systems In each chapter contributors provide strengths based trauma informed strategies that can be used in clinical settings school based programs and in urban communities where food insecurity limited access to health services and community violence are prevalent Professionals and students in counseling social work psychology child welfare education and other programs will come away from the book with culturally affirming trauma informed interventions and models of care that promote well being and resilience      Teacher, Take Care Richelle North Star Scott,Cher Brasok,Monika Cichosz Rosney,Laura Doney,Dana Fulwiler Volk,Jackie Gagné,Megan Hunter,Kelsey McDonald,Keith Macpherson,Lisa Dumas Neufeld,Sandra Pacheco Melo,Joyce Sunada,2022-12-09 Teaching can be a highly satisfying profession but it can also be overwhelming Stress management Self care Mental well being Mindfulness These words have become all too familiar but what do they actually mean for you And how can they help without adding to your to do list All teachers have different experiences and different needs Through stories by diverse educators this professional resource invites you to try different wellness strategies explore varying perspectives and consider new ideas of what it means to be well Grounded in servant leadership and a holistic model each chapter connects to Indigenous perspectives of wellness through remarks from Elder Stanley Kipling and Knowledge Keeper Richelle North Star Scott      The Colonial Problem Lisa Monchalin,2016-01-01 In The Colonial Problem Lisa Monchalin challenges the myth of the Indian problem and encourages readers to view the crimes and injustices affecting Indigenous peoples from a more culturally aware position      Aboriginal Canada Revisited Kerstin Knopf,2008-09-13 Exploring a variety of topics including health politics education art literature media and film Aboriginal Canada Revisited draws a portrait of the current political and cultural position of Canada's

Aboriginal peoples While lauding improvements made in the past decades the contributors draw attention to the systemic problems that continue to marginalize Aboriginal people within Canadian society From the Introduction This collection helps to highlight areas where the colonial legacy still takes its toll to acknowledge the manifold ways of Aboriginal cultural expression and to demonstrate where Aboriginal and non Aboriginal people are starting to find common ground Contributors include Aboriginal and non Aboriginal scholars from Europe and Canada including Marlene Atleo University of Manitoba Mansell Griffin Nisga a Village of Gitwinksihlkw British Columbia Robert Harding University College of the Fraser Valley Tricia Logan University of Manitoba Steffi Retzlaff McMaster University Siobh n Smith University of British Columbia Barbara Walberg Confederation College Published in English
