Silence of Pain Cheryl Tolliver,2012

Entitled Silence Of Pain the manuscript is about an African American girl from Louisiana endures abuse at the hands of her schizophrenic mother an absent father and the torment it brought into their family lives At the age of five years old and born the first of three children in Jonesville La this young girl was forced to endure pain loneliness loss and self worth This young girl's family was poor and had to raise their own cattle and crops in order to make a living. After the murder of a daughter being drugged and hit in the head with an axe, her mother was diagnosed as a paranoid schizophrenic. At the age of sixteen years old, she entrapped a young man by getting pregnant. After moving out of her grandparents' home, she moved with her baby daddy only to find herself in an abusive relationship. At the age of two years old, her son's thigh was mysteriously broken; therefore, she finds herself under an investigation and accused of child abuse. At the age of twenty years old, she continued to go through the torment of her mother and the effect it had on their family lives. At the age of twenty one, she enrolled in a community college. Upon completion of her college courses and finding a job working in a Nursing Facility, she left her son's dad to live on her own. At the age of twenty four, she had worked at the Nursing Facility for two years; she was charged with a crime that she didn't perpetrate. By the age of twenty eight years old, her mother had recovered from her illness, so she moved to Houston, Texas, to escape any future episodes of her mother's torments and nightmare of being charged with a crime that she didn't perpetrate. Thinking that she would have a better life living in Texas, she was stalked, drugged, escaped death, and got caught up in an on-the-job scheme that cost her career, which led her to become depressed and wanting to kill herself. Throughout her hard times, she regained her health and strength through prayer, friends, and self-motivation that allowed her to succeed in her daily life. Finally, she established a stronger bond with Christ to find solutions for both the physical and mental problems that she was facing.

Uncle Sam's Medal of Honor Theophilus Francis Rodenbough, 1886

Embracing the Beat of Expression: An Mental Symphony within Sam Who Never Forgets

In some sort of used by displays and the ceaseless chatter of immediate transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony created by the written word usually fade in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the persistent sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, nestled within the pages of Sam Who Never Forgets an enchanting fictional value full of raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this emotional assessment, we shall examine the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
