He Awakens Me Shirley Hudson, 2006-12 He Awakens Me is a collection of weekly meditations composed by Shirley Hudson They are in the form of soliloquies Interacting with happenings and observations she finds analogies that speak to the territory of Christian experience To facilitate greater practical and devotional usage the writer has provided not only a topical list of the subjects covered but also an index of the related scriptural passages that figured in each soliloquy The soliloquies were first sent out on a weekly basis via email to an ever increasing mailing list Many who received them expressed appreciation and suggested that they be published in book form in order to reach a wider audience The author prays that these personal meditations will not only reach a wider audience but that they will help produce in every reader that quality of life that truly honors and glorifies her Savior the Lord Jesus Christ Sandcastles Luanne Rice, 2007-06-26 Painter Honor Sullivan has made a life for herself and her three daughters Regis Agnes and Cecilia at Star of the Sea Academy on the magical Connecticut shore Here she teaches art at the convent school s beautiful seaside campus over which

Honor's sister in law mother superior Bernadette Ignatius keeps a benevolent and watchful eye No one could have foreseen the day rebellious Regis would come home with the stunning news that she was getting married Nor could anyone have guessed how that sudden announcement would soon change all their lives forever Eleven years ago Honor thought she had the perfect home the perfect love the perfect life Then her husband brilliant photographer and sculptor John Sullivan broke her heart and tore their little family apart Now hearing of Regis's impending marriage John has ended his self imposed exile and returned to the family he's always loved more than anything on earth What he finds is one daughter still hurting over his abandonment another who barely remembers him and a third who may be in more trouble than anyone knows And then there is Honor herself and a passion that may have been interrupted but that has never waned Some things like sandcastles don't survive the changing tides But love family and friendship just as fragile have a way of standing against anything It will take nothing short of a miracle to heal the rift between father and daughter husband and wife the past and the present but a miracle is exactly what is in the works at Star of the Sea Academy The only question is Do you believe Expressed

Waltzing with Bears to a serious discussion of Albert Schweitzers theology of reverence for life We learn from such diverse role models as Jesus and Nemo as in the fish Nemo We celebrate the glories and agonies of the seasons in New England as well as a Wisconsin winter that rivaled the worse snows of Maine We face the dark side of humanity We are reminded that there truly are good people making a difference in the world We are asked questions about our own spiritual lives We ponder ways of creating a peaceful world We are taught by children dogs cats seashells gardens the sacredness of the every day is lifted up We are asked to think of what our children really need from us We are reminded to rest in the grace of the world We are challenged to act for what we believe in We are given hope in life and in ourselves and along the way we laugh often

Excerpt from Out of the Fog I miss a fireplace A working fireplace Or rather a fireplace of delights and dreams and real logs real fire I grew up with a fireplace in our living room not used for heat but for warmth beauty visions friendliness We carefully cleaned the fireplace each Christmas Eve so Santa would not be covered in ash On Christmas Day we lit the fire using as kindling the few Christmas wrappings my mother deemed unsalvageable for another year The fireplace crackled snapped and exuded good cheer all December 25th and New Years as it did on Thanksgiving and on snowy January February and March days and evenings The fire removed the chill of fog in fall and spring and in the hurricane became briefly a working fireplace for heat for light for cooking most of all for the vision of coziness amidst the tempests roar Even in summer when the days turned damp and shivery the fire would be lit and we'd gather in its glow for fun and games I still have the old wire popcorn popper we jiggled above the flames waiting with bated breath for that first distinctive POP and then in exultation as the kernels exploded in a delicious cacophony of pows I have lost years ago the wire marshmallow and hot dog toasters that the bold thrust into the flames those of us who liked blackened marshmallows and hot dogs that split taking the risk of losing them to the fire god and the more genteel held with tense concentration hovering over the embers for perfectly browned outside sumptuously melted inside marshmallows I remember my thirteenth birthday an icy wind whistling February night when ten teen girls toasted and roasted and tried to scare each other silly with ghost stories as the fire died slowly down and the room grew dark until mother returned with hot chocolate and in her matter of fact manner stirred up the fire with a poker adding a new log for good measure breaking the spell of titillating terror We turned to giggling over riddles jokes and songs featuring a lot of mindless alliteration I remember the dinner parties as an adult when talk would turn from children to gossip to politics to God somehow the fire drew us into an intimacy and warmth that went beyond the heat upon our faces I remember so many faces some grown some gone but all faces that turned more friendly around the fire that gentled into peace sharing the best of themselves in the steadfast glow If you have such a fireplace invite your friends over stockpile wood for the storm or light a log alone and listen to the fires song If like me your fireplace is in a room long gone from you remember those of your past and those who shared them and be thankful Remember also those who have sat with you beside all the fires of your life those who need no fireplace of bricks and mortar to laugh with you and eat with you
