Garden deserves its place alongside the Pyramids and the Colossus of Rhodes as one of the most astonishing technical achievements of the ancient world Sennacherib's "Palace Without Rival" at Nineveh John Malcolm Russell,1991 Best known today from biblical accounts of his exploits and ignominious end the Assyrian king Sennacherib 704 681 B C was once the ruler of all western Asia In his capital at Nineveh in what is now northern Iraq he built what he called the Palace without Rival Though only scattered traces of this magnificent structure are visible today contemporary written descriptions and surviving wall reliefs permit a remarkably detailed reconstruction of the appearance and significance of the palace An art historian trained in ancient Near East philology archaeology and history John Malcolm Russell marshals these resources to investigate the meaning and political function of the palace of Sennacherib He contends that the meaning of the monument cannot be found in images or texts alone nor can these be divorced from architectural context Thus his study combines discussions of the context of inscriptions in Sennacherib s palace with reconstructions of its physical appearance and analyses of the principles by which the subjects of Sennacherib s reliefs were organized to express meaning Many of the illustrations are published here for the first time notably drawings of palace reliefs made by nineteenth century excavators and photographs taken in the course of the author s own excavations at Nineveh The Archaeology of the Kurdistan Region of Iraq and Adjacent Regions Konstantinos Kopanias,John MacGinnis,2016-06-23 Conference proceedings presenting the first opportunity for leading figures in the burgeoning area of archaeological research in the Kurdish Autonomous Region of Iraq to gather and present all the key new projects which are revolutionising our understanding of the region Guide to the Aqueducts of Ancient Rome Peter J.
